

OFFERS AID TO MAN WHO SEEKS A WIFE

Empress Theater Manager Writes
Olaf Anderson He Will Assist in Quest.

Advertising pays.

In response to a letter to Mayor Prince, published in Duluth papers, Olaf Larson of Holland, Mich., may find a wife—one who cares nothing for the tango and expensive gowns.

Following is a letter from William Abrahamson, manager of the Empress theater:

"Mr. Olaf Larson, Holland, Mich.—
Dear Sir: Your letter of March 31, addressed to the mayor of this city and published in the local papers attracted my attention. As you are very desirous of getting a wife from this section of the country, and thinking I may be of some assistance to you, I have a proposition to offer. If you think favorably of same, let me hear from you at once by letter or wire and I will get to work in your behalf at once.

"My idea is this: I'll advertise extensively, and I feel positive I can get some woman who will accept your hand in marriage. The benefit I would want for my labors, is that you and the woman appear at my Empress theater and let my patrons by vote select the woman whom they think will make the best wife for you.

"For your protection, before allowing any woman to enter the contest, I shall look up her moral character.

"I admit, this maybe appears a peculiar way to enter the bonds of marriage, but as a great many marriages are a chance, who knows but what the patrons of the Empress theater might choose a jewel.

"Awaiting your reply by early mail or wire, I beg to remain, your truly,

"W. M. ABRAHAMSON
