

CITY BRIEFS

From Saturday's Daily.

Brewers to Play Scribes. Manager Clyde Emmons of the Virginia Brewing Co., baseball team announced this morning that his crew is working out evenings getting ready to meet the Daily Virginian team on Sunday, May 31. He announces his line-up as follows: Catcher, Mike Kierig; pitcher, Charles Nystrom; first base, Steve Sullivan; second, J. Hankey; third, Ernest Carlson; short stop, A. C. Emmons, captain; right field, Charles Hanson; centerfield, George Bolan; left field, Fred Asdol.

Organizing Gas Company. The organization of the New Ulm Gas company is expected to be completed in Virginia this afternoon. The concern is formed to take over a franchise recently granted at New Ulm to J. A. Kennedy of Virginia and N. A. Smith of the American Gas Construction company. It will be a close corporation and plans to construct a gas plant at New Ulm in accordance with the terms of its franchise. The officers will be named at a meeting to be held this afternoon.

W. E. Hannaford Home for Visit. W. E. Hannaford, formerly publisher of the Enterprise, now with the C. I. Johnson Printers. Supply company is home for a visit. He has just returned from a western trip. Small boys offering angle worms for sale have been beseeching the Enterprise office as the result of an announcement that Mr. Hannaford and City Clerk Bickford plan a trout fishing expedition tomorrow.

N. B. Arnold Here. Attorney N. B. Arnold of Duluth looked after legal matters in the city today. Mr. Arnold was formerly a resident of this city and one time was president of the Commercial club. He still takes a great deal of interest in Virginia and is always pleased to note its steady growth, both commercially and otherwise. Mr. Arnold reports his family well and prosperous.

Attended Marble Wedding. Miss Lottie Young and Willard Young have returned from Marble where on Wednesday they attended the wedding of their sister, Miss Agnes Young to Mr. Octave J. Savard of St. Paul. The service was read by the Rev. Father Gemache at the home of the bride's father, Mr. Joseph Young. The young people will make their home in St. Paul.

Brother Awaited. Funeral arrangements for the burial of Joe Conedera, who died of pneumonia Thursday night, have not been completed. Friends are awaiting word from his brother who resides at Manistique, Mich. Conedera was employed as a miner at the Lincoln and is survived by a wife and four children residing in Italy.

Mountain Iron Assessor. Lawrence C. Peltier, assessor of the village of Mountain Iron was in the city today on business. Mr. Peltier says that his village is a little quiet in the business line at present, but that things are expected to liven up within a short time. They are looking forward to a busy season there later on.

Shower for Miss Denfeld. Mrs. Anna Olund and Miss Evelyn O'Neill will entertain this evening at a parcel shower for Miss Katherine Denfeld, a fall bride, at the home of Mrs. Emmet Butler, 409 Hemlock street. Thirty invitations have been sent out.

Missionary Society Will Meet. The Women's Missionary Society of the Cleveland Avenue Presbyterian church will hold their next regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. W. J. Bell, 902 Wyoming avenue south, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30. An attractive program has been arranged to which everyone is invited.

Visited Gilbert. Rev. and Mrs. Henry E. Neff were guests of Rev. and Mrs. George Turner of Gilbert yesterday afternoon, also partially saw the display of the Gilbert high school in the evening. On account of the burning out of the dynamo the light was off till late in the evening.

Moose Dance a Success. One of the most successful dancing parties which has ever been given by the local lodge of Moose since its organization was given at evening at Moose hall. The dancers taxed the capacity of the spacious ballroom. Meehan's orchestra furnished the music.

Welcome for Lieutenant. At the Savation Army hall Sunday evening, May 24, there will be a welcome meeting for Lieutenant Libevell of the Salvation Army Training college at Chicago, who comes to Virginia to assist Adjutant Peers and Captain Roper.

Norton in Town. J. H. Norton of Duluth was in the city today, coming up to make a motion for a new trial in the case of Worth against the Jewell Tea company. Judge Hughes will render a decision in the matter some time next week.

Norwegian M. E. Church. Norwegian M. E. church, 320 Pine street: Morning services, 10:45; Sun-

7:45. Prayer meeting every Wednesday evening. K. Winberg, pastor. day school, 12 noon; evening services.

Exodus of Fishermen. A genuine exodus of fishermen is on from Virginia to the lakes in this vicinity for the week end. Wall eyed pike are reported to be biting fine at Lake Vermilion. Tomorrow morning several auto parties will leave for Tower, planning to leave Virginia at 5 o'clock. The drive to Tower can easily be negotiated in an hour and a half and the roads are reported to be in the best of condition. Several other parties tonight go to Joyce's Landing, where the fishing is excellent. The resort was opened last week, convenient auto livery is available at Cook and it is known as one of the finest pike fishing grounds in all Lake Vermilion.

Real Estate Shows Activity. The Williams Agency has been showing considerable activity the past few days disposing of considerable real estate. Lots 7 and 8, block 18, in the Rooney addition were disposed of to Vencil Elias who intends erecting a grocery store there. Lot 25 and the west half of lot 24 in block 12 have been sold to George Spahr who intends erecting a $700 cottage on them.

Letters Calling for Bids for the clearing and grading of all the streets and avenues in the new Williams addition.

Will Move Family to Bemidji. R. L. Given of Bemidji, is in the city for a week end visit with his family at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Johnson. Mrs. Given and children will join him at Bemidji about the first of June, where he has recently engaged in the hardware business. Mr. Given was formerly in business at Bemidji, but sold out and went to the Pacific coast. He has decided, however, that northern Minnesota will be his home in the future.

Grand Rapids Editor Here. T. J. Austad, editor of the Grand Rapids Herald-Review, since E. C. Kiley began holding down the job of postmaster at Grand Rapids, is in the city for a week end visit with relatives. The Grand Rapids Herald-Review, always one of the most representative country newspapers in the state, has shown much improvement since Mr. Austad became its editor.

Releases Ormonde Cafe. Joseph Zinn, who for the past nine months has conducted the Ormonde cafe, severs his connection with it today and the Messrs. Lusk & Sigel, proprietors of the Ormonde take over the business. They will continue to run it in connection with the Ormonde hotel and conduct it as one of the best places of the kind on the range.

Touring the D. W. & P. Assistant General Manager Warren of the Canadian Northern railway, passed through the city this morning in his private car, the Neepawa, attached to the morning train to Duluth. Mr. Warren is making a trip over the line for inspection purposes.

Preaches for Rev. Mr. Paulsen. Rev. K. E. Forsell of Lake Dinham arrived in the city this afternoon and tomorrow at the Swedish Mission church will preach for Rev. Paulsen, who is attending a church meeting at St. Paul. Rev. Forsell will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Oie.

Concert a Big Success. An audience which comfortably filled the Finnish Temperance hall heard the Finnea Male Choir in its first concert appearance in Virginia last night under the direction of Professor Emil Bjorkman. The program was much enjoyed and the proficiency shown by the chorus was a pleasant surprise to all attending. The program was well selected, well rendered and was a genuine treat to all who attended.

Trains Stop at Britt. The stopping at Britt of south bound trains on the D. W. & P., went into effect Saturday, the innovation being highly appreciated by the residents in that section. This was brought about through the efforts of the Commercial club and an endeavor is also being made by that body to have the company make north bound stops at that place.

University Grads to Dance. Virginia alumni of the University of Minnesota are planning to attend the banquet and dance to be held at Chisholm next Friday evening when former students of the university from all over the ranges will be in attendance. Great preparations are being made by the Chisholm committee for the entertainment of the visitors. It is expected that a member of the university faculty will be present and deliver an address, and there will be no toast. The dance will be one of the features of the gathering.

Never Again, Says Kleffman. Frank Kleffman, traveling man at Hibbing, and for the past quarter of a century first baseman of the Hibbing baseball team, was in Virginia yesterday afternoon to attend the Virginia-Duluth game and announces that he has quit playing ball for good. The Hibbing team was at Duluth yesterday to meet the Woodlands. Mr. Kleffman was one of the greatest first basemen in the business and was part of the machine that made the Hibbing ball team famous.

Has Brother Living Here. A. A. Krogdahl of Ironwood, Mich.,

who had charge of the rescue car here for Saturday's demonstration, is a brother of John H. Krogdahl, city assessor. Mr. Krogdahl will return to Ironwood today and after the car has undergone some needed repairs he will leave for San Francisco, Cal., to prepare a demonstration station for the World's fair and Panama exposition to be held at that place in 1915.

Remodeling Hawkison Block. The work of remodeling the Hawkison block on Chestnut street, formerly occupied by the Norton Hardware company, was begun today. Andrew Grande is in charge. The building will be occupied by the Home Stores company when completed. The repairs and remodeling undertaken will require several weeks.

Made Trip to Hibbing. Ten members of the Range Motor Cycle club made a trip to Hibbing yesterday. Plans for the next Sunday run will be made at the regular meeting of the club to be held at the Excelsior Sales company's store in the Elks' building next Friday night.

Crop Outlook is Good. W. T. Biss, the Sand Lake farmer and gardner, is in the city today on business. Mr. Biss says that things look favorable for a good big crop in that section. He has been very successful since engaging in farming there a few years ago and now has one of the best farms in this section of the country.

To Start Stock Farm. Martin Nelson Saturday sold 320 acres of land in Carleton county to a Duluth man named Arubcke, who intends to develop the tract as a stock farm and will go about the work of improving it at once.

Taking Examinations. The high school students are busy this week taking the state examinations. The work includes algebra, Cicero, German, chemistry, bookkeeping, physics and senior geography.

Encampment Initiation. The local encampment of the I. O. O. F. Saturday night initiated a class of three candidates. Following the work of the evening there was an informal social time.

To Occupy New Home. Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Morgan will remove about the first of June from the Weber flats, where they have had their home for some time past to 715 Central avenue.

Lee Expected. Wm. E. Lee, republican candidate for the nomination for governor, is expected in the city some time this week to address the local public on the political issues of the day.

Remodeling Near Completed. Remodeling the front of the business house of the Virginia Store company as well as improvements to the interior are nearing completion. Handsome display windows in the front of the building will give a much better opportunity to display goods than before, while the interior of the store to be rearranged and the office placed at the rear. The remodeled store will be one of the neatest in the city.

Club Hold Last Session. The Study club held its last meeting of the season at the public library rooms this afternoon, at which time the election of officers took place and other matters pertaining to the welfare of the club were discussed.

Operating Near McKinley. Peter Holand, clerk of the village of McKinley, spent the day in the city. Mr. Holand says they expect considerable development work to be done in that vicinity this season, a number of drills now being in operation.

Sustained Minor Injury. Matt Nikola, a miner employed at the Minorea mine sustained slight injury this morning in a cave of ground. He was brought to this city and taken to a local hospital, where it was found the hurts he had sustained were not of a serious nature.

Meet With Council. Representatives of the company who are putting Williams Addition to Virginia on the market are meeting this afternoon with the streets and alleys committee of the city council for a conference on the streets and alleys in the new addition.

Sale of Fancywork. The ladies of the Finnish Unitarian church will give a sale of fancy work and luncheon at the church, corner of Beech street and Wyoming avenue at 8 o'clock tomorrow evening. Coffee and cake will be served for 10 cents.

Returns to University. Herman Maki (Nare), formerly employed at K. R. Sarell's barber shop is home from Valparaiso university, where he is taking a commercial course and is renewing acquaintances in Virginia today.

Making Improvements. The interior of Gearlds Bros., buffet is in the hands of painters and decorators. A new steel drop ceiling is being put in and the walls decorated, which when completed will make a decided improvement in the place.

Remodeling Hawkison Block. The work of remodeling the Hawkison block on Chestnut street, formerly occupied by the Norton Hardware company, was begun today. Andrew Grande is in charge. The building will be occupied by the Home Stores company when completed. The repairs and remodeling undertaken will require several weeks.

Made Trip to Hibbing. Ten members of the Range Motor Cycle club made a trip to Hibbing yesterday. Plans for the next Sunday run will be made at the regular meeting of the club to be held at the Excelsior Sales company's store in the Elks' building next Friday night.

Crop Outlook is Good. W. T. Biss, the Sand Lake farmer and gardner, is in the city today on business. Mr. Biss says that things look favorable for a good big crop in that section. He has been very successful since engaging in farming there a few years ago and now has one of the best farms in this section of the country.

To Start Stock Farm. Martin Nelson Saturday sold 320 acres of land in Carleton county to a Duluth man named Arubcke, who intends to develop the tract as a stock farm and will go about the work of improving it at once.

Taking Examinations. The high school students are busy this week taking the state examinations. The work includes algebra, Cicero, German, chemistry, bookkeeping, physics and senior geography.

Encampment Initiation. The local encampment of the I. O. O. F. Saturday night initiated a class of three candidates. Following the work of the evening there was an informal social time.

To Occupy New Home. Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Morgan will remove about the first of June from the Weber flats, where they have had their home for some time past to 715 Central avenue.

Lee Expected. Wm. E. Lee, republican candidate for the nomination for governor, is expected in the city some time this week to address the local public on the political issues of the day.

Remodeling Near Completed. Remodeling the front of the business house of the Virginia Store company as well as improvements to the interior are nearing completion. Handsome display windows in the front of the building will give a much better opportunity to display goods than before, while the interior of the store to be rearranged and the office placed at the rear. The remodeled store will be one of the neatest in the city.

Club Hold Last Session. The Study club held its last meeting of the season at the public library rooms this afternoon, at which time the election of officers took place and other matters pertaining to the welfare of the club were discussed.

Operating Near McKinley. Peter Holand, clerk of the village of McKinley, spent the day in the city. Mr. Holand says they expect considerable development work to be done in that vicinity this season, a number of drills now being in operation.

Sustained Minor Injury. Matt Nikola, a miner employed at the Minorea mine sustained slight injury this morning in a cave of ground. He was brought to this city and taken to a local hospital, where it was found the hurts he had sustained were not of a serious nature.

Meet With Council. Representatives of the company who are putting Williams Addition to Virginia on the market are meeting this afternoon with the streets and alleys committee of the city council for a conference on the streets and alleys in the new addition.

Sale of Fancywork. The ladies of the Finnish Unitarian church will give a sale of fancy work and luncheon at the church, corner of Beech street and Wyoming avenue at 8 o'clock tomorrow evening. Coffee and cake will be served for 10 cents.

Returns to University. Herman Maki (Nare), formerly employed at K. R. Sarell's barber shop is home from Valparaiso university, where he is taking a commercial course and is renewing acquaintances in Virginia today.

Making Improvements. The interior of Gearlds Bros., buffet is in the hands of painters and decorators. A new steel drop ceiling is being put in and the walls decorated, which when completed will make a decided improvement in the place.

From Tuesday's Daily. Publishing Florida Paper. The Progressive, a semi-weekly newspaper published at Tarpon Springs, Florida, reaches the Enterprise. It is well filled with local, county and state news as well as containing a goodly amount of live advertising matter showing that the people of that city are wise to the advertising game. The Progressive is published by Messrs. E. L. Zimmerman as editor and Frederick Mackey as business manager, both being at one time engaged in newspaper work in this city. Mr. Zimmerman was formerly city editor of the Weekly Virginian and went south about two years ago. He was succeeded on the Virginian by Mr. Mackey, who later became the editor of The Enterprise. About a year ago he also went south and became interested in the Progressive with Mr. Zimmerman. The many friends of both gentlemen will be pleased to know that they are meeting with success in the south and that their respective families are well and enjoying life in the land of oranges and flowers.

Degree Team Getting Ready. The degree team of the local camp of Modern Woodmen of America is being drilled regularly for the visit which it will make to Toledo, Ohio, when it will attend the annual convention of the order which opens on June 9. The members of the team are: Alderman E. F. Murray, V. I. Frasa, Fred Verville, Charles Krause, John W. Trimble, Claude Sprecker and Guy Golden. While in Toledo, Mr. Verville will also attend, as a delegate from Virginia, the annual convention of the International Clerks' Union of America, which will be held simultaneously with the Woodmen's convention.

City Band Elects Officers. The Virginia City band has elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: President, Vernon Keech; vice president, Frank Meehan; manager, James Sisel; assistant manager, Fred Leind; secretary and treasurer, Louis Stein. At a meeting to be held next Wednesday evening the band will engage a director. It will give open air concerts at the parks and in the downtown districts during the summer months.

Business is Good at Aurora. Editor E. H. Yarrick of the Aurora News, who was in the city last evening to attend the meeting of the range editors reports that business is good at his town this summer. "We have not materially felt the depression in the iron ore business," said Mr. Yarrick. "The mines near the village are working up to their usual capacity and Aurora is enjoying its usual prosperity."

An Attractive Program. An especially attractive program has been arranged by the Women's Missionary Society of the Cleveland Avenue Presbyterian church for their regular monthly meeting which will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. W. J. Bell, 902 Wyoming avenue. Miss Sorenson will sing, Miss Sieberger will give several violin selections and Miss Lily will entertain at the piano.

Brennan Draws 60 Days. Jack Brennan, the ungrateful mendicant who robbed B. Griffo' of his trousers, a watch and chain and $5 in cash Sunday night after the latter had invited him to share his bed over the Virginia restaurant Sunday evening, was taken to Duluth late yesterday afternoon to serve a 60-day sentence imposed by Municipal Judge Carey. He was in charge of Deputy Sheriff O'Dea.

Duluth Pastor to Preach. Rev. J. C. Reinertsen from West Duluth, will preach at the Norwegian Lutheran church tomorrow evening, May 27, at 8 o'clock. As the pastor probably will succeed Rev. J. I. Fadum, who has resigned as minister of the church, all members of the congregation are especially invited to be present at the meeting. Rev. Reinertsen will also be present at the meeting of the Ladies' Aid society at the church parlors at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. All are welcome.

Getting Along Nicely. Arthur Nelson of Duluth, who last Friday suffered a fracture of the jaw bone when he slipped from a ladder and fell about 15 feet to the ground in the pit of the Franklin mine, was in the city last night. The injury is healing rapidly and Mr. Nelson expects to be able to resume his position in the engineering department of the Franklin in a few days.

Stone-age Pictures Good. A story of the stone age as portrayed in motion pictures at the Royal theatre for the first half of this week is one of the best of its kind yet produced in the city. The other pictures are well presented and the vaudeville, which includes musical numbers, is excellent and being well received by the patrons of this popular show house.

Frank Parker's Father Dies. The many friends of Frank Parker, representative in this district for Rust-Parker-Martin, wholesale grocers of Duluth, will be grieved to learn that Mr. Parker's father died yesterday at his home in Duluth. The deceased was one of the oldest and best known residents of the Zenith City. For the remainder of the week C. R. Rust, head of the company, will take charge of the range territory, coming here last evening for that purpose.

Moose Show Their Patriotism. Out of respect to the old soldiers the members of the local Moose lodge will march in the Decoration day parade.

ade. This was decided upon at a recent meeting when the matter was brought up for discussion and the members decided by a unanimous vote to turn out and show their patriotism.

Cusson Will be Host. S. J. Cusson, general manager, and C. H. Rogers, general superintendent of the Virginia & Rainy Lake company, will give a week end house boat party on Lake Kabetogama. Among the guests will be Dr. Welcome and G. A. Bingenheimer of Minneapolis, Barney Burton of Little Falls, Capt. Wm. White, Supt. J. H. Elliott of the D. W. & P., Wm. Merrill of Superior, Edward Finch, Douglas Greeley, J. E. Hanson, E. Douglas, Dr. E. H. McIntyre, Frank Gilmor, Dr. W. T. Bailey, H. O. Johnson, Judge James P. Carey and Dr. J. H. Crowe.

School Employes Banquet. The engineers and janitors employed in the public schools gave a fish banquet at the Roosevelt last evening. Erwin Smith, who had spent the week end at Lake Vermilion supplied the fish and the other employes were furnished by other members of the force. The banquet was greatly enjoyed. The honorary guests were, Dr. and Mrs. Colgrove and daughter Helen and G. D. Lizer, chief clerk to the superintendent. Eighteen guests were present.

Dooley Family Coming. The Dooley Family Quintette of Brewton, Alabama, is expected to appear here in concert at the Roosevelt auditorium next Tuesday evening. The members of the family are students at the Southern N. I. College, and are making a tour of the country for the purpose of raising funds for the support of the institution. The quintette comes highly recommended.

Secures Honors Abroad. Little Miss Geraldine Crotteau, daughter of E. F. Crotteau, chief electrician for the Virginia Light & Power company, who, with her mother, is visiting relatives at Babcock, Wis., writes her father that she had taken part in a spelling contest among the pupils of the school there and "spelled 'em all down." Miss Geraldine is a pupil of the fifth grade at the Johnson school.

Ladies' Aid to Meet. The Ladies' Aid society of the First M. E. church, will meet tomorrow afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. D. E. Shea, 320 Cedar street.

Guild Meets Tomorrow. The Ladies of the St. Paul Guild will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Guild hall.

Graduates from Agricultural College. P. J. Johnsrud, who will have charge of the agricultural department of the public schools and who has been spending some time in the city giving lectures, left today for St. Anthony Park where on the 11th of June he will graduate from the agricultural college. He will return to Virginia shortly after the close of school to prepare his department for study and practice in the agricultural line.

Building Cottage at Sand. W. J. Schultz will have a summer home at Sand Lake and work on its construction will begin this week. Ten Virginia people will have summer homes at Sand Lake when the Schultz cottage is completed. There are besides a number of cottages there for rent and the local colony at the lake this summer will be the biggest ever.

Recovering from Pneumonia. The 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnson, who has been seriously ill of pneumonia is reported today as considerably improved. Miss Johnson is a student in the public schools and many friends of the family will be glad to learn that she is on the road to recovery.

Finnish Club to Have Big Night. The local Finnish Athletic club is planning a big program of athletic events for next Sunday evening at their club rooms. There will be wrestling matches and other athletic contests and much interest is being displayed by the membership.

Here for Ball Game. Aldermen Burrows and Geiselman of Hibbing, two of the most ardent baseball fans on the Mesaba range and members of the Hibbing baseball team, are here today to see Duluth and Virginia do battle.

Night Schools Close. The night sessions of the public schools have closed after a very successful year of activity and instruction. Several hundred have been attending this school during the past winter.

Will Deliver Baccalaureate Sermon. Rev. Henry E. Neff of the First Presbyterian church has accepted an invitation from the senior high school class to deliver the baccalaureate sermon at the Roosevelt auditorium on Sunday evening, June 7.

Tennis Courts Reserved. The school board has decided to allow the general public to use only the three north courts at the Roosevelt school, while the three south courts are to be used by pupils of the schools.

Confer Rank of Esquire. Northern Light Lodge Knights of Pythias confers the rank of esquire on the Messrs. Hanson and Torvinen this evening.

CITY BRIEFS

From Wednesday's Daily.

Northbound on Fishing Trip. Fred Whymant, Paul Maras and Joe Zant, a trio of Hibbing business men and range old-timers were in the city last night on their way to Ranier, where they will spend several days fishing with Alderman Geiselman of Hibbing. Whymant is being taken along for ballast. Fred seldom goes fishing that he doesn't fall in the lake. He has the reputation of being one of the most successful fishermen in Hibbing.

Western Range Prosjeorous. J. D. Lamont, F. W. and Chase Stevens motivated to Nashwauk yesterday to look over some work being done there by the Cole & MacDonald Exploration company. They found the roads in excellent condition and Chase Stevens says that the western end of the range seems to be prosperous.

Elks Postpone Initiation. The local lodge B. P. O. E. has postponed the initiation of a large class of candidates, originally arranged for this evening for one week. Twelve fawns will have the antlers affixed to them at the next regular meeting of the Elks. The work will be followed with a luncheon which will be served by J. P. Denyes and U. G. Holloway, positively the greatest chefs in the world.

Visited Steel Plant. G. F. Maudsley of the St. Louis Power company, returned yesterday from Duluth, where he has been on business. Mr. Maudsley visited the new steel plant and says he was much surprised by its proportions. Next Sunday Mr. Maudsley leaves for New York and Philadelphia and will spend two weeks in the east attending the national convention of the electric light men and visiting Niagara Falls before returning.

Hancock Banker Likes Virginia. J. H. Jansberg, banker and real estate man of Hancock, Mich., is looking Virginia over today and visiting with old friends. Mr. Jansberg annually for for some years past has paid a visit to the range. He is surprised at each succeeding visit to note the growth and development of Virginia and says it is the best town he knows of in the middle west.

Great Northern Officials Coming. General Manager J. H. Gruber and Vice President Kinney of the Great Northern, are expected to visit Virginia in a special train tomorrow. They left St. Paul this morning. This will be their second trip to the range this season for an inspection of the Great Northern's ore line.

Special Sale of Corsets. The Gossard Shop offers big savings on all corsets and brassieres. Gossard Shop, Lyric Bldg., phone 561.

Special Sale of Corsets. The Gossard Shop offers big savings on all corsets and brassieres. Lyric block, phone 561.

Mrs. L. Eekstrand and grandsons, Kenneth, Wilbur and Townsend, leave Friday for St. Paul, accompanied by their father. The boys will spend the summer with their grandparents in that city.

FOR SALE—Two houses and one lot corner Sage and Cleveland. Call at 401 Sage street.

PERSONALS

From Wednesday's Daily.

C. R. France was a business visitor at Aurora yesterday. James Lavick is at Ely on business today.

Adolph Keller is at the Head of the Lakes on business. J. Mesberg was an Eveleth visitor on business last evening. F. M. Stoner of St. Paul, represent-Edward Weiss of the sales force at the Mesaba Meat Market, is spending he week on a visit to his old home at Rice Lake, Wisconsin.

Attorney Charles Line is in Duluth today, where he is representing clients in two divorce actions before the district court. William Talkari, who owns a fine farm near Millde River, Minn., is a visitor in the city today and is looking over some farm lands in this section with F. W. Torvinen.

To Grow Quickly and coin egg-money next fall, give now Pratts Poultry Regulator. Phos. 25c, Soc., 60c, $1.00; 25 lb. quart $2.50 to the young birds. This great tonic and digestive aid insures rapid development. It also keeps the older birds in prime condition, laying eggs. Use Pratts Powdered Lice Killer. Refuse substitutes; insist on Pratts. Satisfaction Guaranteed or Money Back. Get Pratts 100 page Poultry Book. Sold and Guaranteed by MODEL PHARMACY