

CITY BRIEFS

From Saturday's Daily.
Baubles Festival Sunday.
The funeral of Ignace Baubles, who died yesterday morning will be held from the Slavonic Catholic church tomorrow afternoon at 5 o'clock, followed by interment in Calvary cemetery. Rev. Father Singer will officiate.

Building New Home.
The new residence being built by H. O. Johnson at the corner of Central avenue and Beech street is well under way and when completed will be one of the most modern homes in the city.

Porcupine for Park Zoo.
Carl R. Johnson of the Johnson Supply company of this city has presented the park board with a live porcupine, which will be added to the zoo at Olcott park. Mr. Johnson captured the animal near Gilbert the other day.

Secretary Ryan Here.
P. J. Ryan, secretary of the Superior Tax Commission, is over from Hibbing today looking after the affairs of the office here. He will remain here a greater part of the time during the absence of A. J. Wasgatt, who is in charge of the Virginia office, and who is away on a vacation.

Returns from Duluth.
Attorney D. D. Morgan returned last evening from a motor trip to Duluth. He was accompanied by the Misses Ruth and Myrtle Hobbs, the latter remaining in Duluth. Upon the return trip Mr. Morgan was accompanied by Mrs. J. H. Horan and children who will visit here for a time.

Meehan Funeral Tomorrow.
The funeral of John F. Meehan, who died suddenly at his home in North Mesaba avenue yesterday morning, will be held from the Slavonic Catholic church on Poplar street tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. Father Singer officiating. Interment will be in Calvary cemetery.

Big Night for Odd Fellows.
The local lodge I. O. O. F. will initiate a large class in the third degree next Thursday evening. Invitations have been sent to a number of the other range lodges and a banquet will follow the work of the evening. Dr. Van Dorn, Edward C. A. Johnson and the Messrs. McKenzie and Trimble, who have been attending the grand lodge at Northfield are expected to return to the city today.

Miss Lundmark Improved.
Miss Agnes Lundmark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claus Lundmark of Hemlock street, returned last night from Eveleth where she has been receiving treatment for rheumatism at the More hospital. Miss Lundmark, who has taught in the Virginia public schools for a number of years, was obliged to give up her work last December on account of illness. Her condition is much improved and it is thought that she will be able to resume her duties at the opening of school in the fall.

Greasy a Good Loser.
Patrick J. Greaney of Greaney is in the city today. Mr. Greaney was in the race for the nomination for the legislature in the Sixtieth district. He made the run against six other candidates and came out fifth in the contest. He made a good campaign but the voters failed to appreciate his efforts. Fred Besette of Orr, J. H. McNiven of Chisholm and Attorneys Collins and Scott of Hibbing were the successful nominees. Mr. Greaney, H. K. Chance of Gheen and Charles Woods of Chisholm were eliminated from the race.

PERSONALS

From Saturday's Daily.
City Clerk A. E. Bickford is in Duluth today on business for the city.
Edward Finch and William Merrill are enjoying an outing at Pelican lake.
Supt. B. O. Greening of the Eveleth schools was in the city last evening.

Attorney Charles Murphy of Aurora was in the city today on business.
R. W. Johnson, the insurance man of Biwabik, is in the city today on business.

Mayor Joseph Austin of Chisholm was in the city today on legal business.
R. J. Burrows, a member of the Hibbing council, was in the city last night.

Thomas Carey and Edward Hatch of Eveleth were in Virginia yesterday on business.
A. J. Hubin of the Model Pharmacy will spend Sunday at his home at Chisholm.

Miss Garnet Chapman of Paris, Minn., is a guest of her sister, Mrs. R. K. Peck.
Wm. Erickman of Minneapolis, a cigar salesman, is in the city calling on the trade.

Miss Rose Anderson left today for a week's visit with relatives at Ishpeming, Mich.
J. C. Poole, G. A. Whitman and James Robb of Eveleth were Virginia visitors yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ross of Aurora are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Witte, 418 Locust street.
Miss Mildred Dixon went to Hibbing today for a Sunday visit with her sister, Mrs. Kieffman.

Ellis Walsh has gone to International Falls where he will remain for several days on business.
Prof. and Mrs. H. J. Scharr, 229 Beech street, were presented with a baby daughter this morning.

Wilhelm Kellogg of the Virginia & Rainy Lake Lumber Co. returned last evening from a visit to Duluth.
Alderman Robert Geiselman of Hibbing attended the Fargo-Moorhead-Virginia ball game yesterday.

H. M. Aitkin of the Runions Brokerage office in the Finch block was a business visitor at Gilbert yesterday.
Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Toeller leave today for Grand Forks, North Dakota, where Mr. Toeller has business interests.

ers who will serve sentences in the country jail.
August DeNoble of the Fitzsimmons-Palmer company left this morning for Duluth on business for the company.
Mr. and Mrs. Eugene LaPointe and Miss Mildred Mitchell will spend Sunday at Sand Lake, going up in Mr. LaPointe's car.

CITY BRIEFS

From Monday's Daily.
Business Active at Falls.
Ellis Walsh has returned from International Falls where he has been for several days on business. He says there is a great deal of activity in labor circles near the boundary and that there will be a great deal of logging done there the coming fall and winter.

Says Alpha Is Busy Town.
J. M. Langman is in the city a few days from Alpha, Mich., where he recently opened a fine new hotel. Mr. Langman says business is fine and that Alpha is a busy town, owing to the large amount of development work going on in that vicinity. His new house is doing a big business.

Game Violators Jailed.
Mike Ronta and Matt Smith were taken to Duluth today to serve sentences of 15 and 10 days respectively in the county jail, having been rounded up by Game Warden Wood for violating the game and fish laws. They are residents of Gilbert and were caught fishing in one of the streams near that village.

Moilan and Family Return.
Alderman and Mrs. Fred J. Moilan and children have returned from a visit of several weeks at the home of Mrs. Moilan's parents at New York Mills. Mr. Moilan made the trip in his automobile with the intention of bringing back his family in the vehicle, but found the roads in such bad shape that he was obliged to freight his car back to Virginia.

Guest of Virginian.
A. L. Raymond of St. Paul, representing the National Tool company, spent yesterday and today in the city, a guest of D. E. Charlton of the engineering force of the Oliver Iron Mining company. Mr. Raymond and Mr. Charlton were schoolmates at the Delafield Military school in Wisconsin, and this was their first meeting during a period of ten years.

Sells Saloon Business.
O. C. Nelson, who for some time past has conducted a saloon in the Fitzer block, next door to the clothing store of Reinertson & Gamble, has disposed of his business to V. Nelson, formerly in partnership with Alford S. Solberg. Mr. Nelson's plans for the future are not definitely settled, but he will probably go to his farm near Cook to make his home after closing up his business affairs in Virginia.

Fished at Vermilion.
Superintendent Henry S. Newton of the Mesaba Electric railway, and Attorney E. B. Mills returned Saturday night from a several days' fishing trip to Vermilion lake. They were accompanied by Messrs. Jurgensen and Kertan of St. Paul, the former engineer and the latter signal engineer for the state railroad and warehouse commission. The party had an enjoyable time and caught many fish.

Return from Outing.
Dr. P. J. Colgrove, superintendent of the city schools, and the janitors and engineers of the several school buildings of the district, returned this morning from a two days fishing trip on Pelican lake. They had a most enjoyable time, but say that the fish did not respond to the baited hooks as lively as they wished for. Besides Dr. Colgrove the party consisted of C. P. Crawford, Louis Brisson, Peter Lundeen, Martin Mhyrie, Walter Fitzgerald, Edwin Smith, Frank Broughton, Henry Geske, H. J. Eaton of the school force and F. Haller, the Central avenue shoeman and Lawrence Geske.

Motored from Chicago Here.
Mr. and Mrs. Emil J. Kraft of Chicago are guests at the home of Prof. and Mrs. H. A. Kraft of Hickory street. They motored up from Chicago, starting from that city on May 3 and enroute visited the principal cities in Wisconsin. They will return by the way of St. Paul and Minneapolis.

Leaf for Menahga.
Oscar Anderson, of the firm of Ala & Anderson, the Mesaba avenue furniture dealers, and little son, Fritz, left today for a visit to relatives at Menahga. They were accompanied by Mrs. Louis Olson of Superior and Mrs. Emil Johnson of Duluth, who have been in Virginia for several days as guests at the Ala & Anderson home.

Returns to Work.
Edward Lauri, who was injured in the head-on collision between his motor cycle and Dr. W. T. Bailey's car about two weeks ago, has recovered sufficiently to enable him to resume his duties at the Ketola & Co. store of Mesaba avenue. John Nelson, who was riding on the cycle with Mr. Lauri, and who was badly shaken up, is still confined to his home.

Dacey Out of Politics.
Attorney Walter Dacey of Duluth was in Virginia yesterday on business, leaving this morning for Biwabik. He denied that he was here on any political mission. Mr. Dacey was, several years ago, assistant city attorney of Duluth under Coryate S. Wilson and was a candidate for county attorney at the last general election. I am out of politics forever, said Mr. Dacey. "There's nothing in the game but censure and abuse. I am enjoying a lucrative practice and intend to plug away at law and leave the politics to the other fellows."

Looking Over Range.
P. B. Skilling of Duluth, son of Charles Skilling, the veteran Duluth newspaper man, and who, associated with his father in the publication of Skillings Mining and Market Letter is spending a few days on the range looking over the mines and gathering news for his newspaper. Mr. Skilling expects to visit most of the big open pit properties as well as the larger of the range undergrounds before returning to his home at Duluth. The Mining and Market Letter has an enviable reputation among mining men for its accuracy and is growing to be a fine business venture.

Entertained for Miss Flannagan.
Mrs. Fred Desonia entertained last evening at her home at 514 Hemlock street, for Miss Ada Flannagan, who leaves Thursday of this week for her home at Albert Lea after having spent the past year with Mr. and Mrs. John Knapp.

Decorator Is Here.
Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Horwitz of Texas are spending a few days in the city. Mr. Horwitz has the contract for decorating the streets and public buildings for the Fourth of July celebration and will have a crew of men on the job some time next week. He will also do the decorating for a number of the private business houses of the city.

Wants Log Rolling Match.
Elmer Parks of Cloquet, log roller, wants a match with some nimble timber spinner in Virginia next Fourth of July. He is sure such a match would prove a big drawing card for a lot of Virginia's guests on the National holiday. Parks gave an exhibition in Virginia five years ago. Billy Medaglia. He says he is better than ever.

Motored From Tower.
Editor Frank Burgess of the Tower News, Dr. Burns, Nick Nelson and Matt Mahalik made up a party of well known Tower citizens who motored to Virginia from Tower yesterday afternoon. Mr. Burgess states that the roads between Tower and Virginia are in fine condition and that the fishing at Vermilion has never been better, which is one way of boosting for your home town.

PERSONALS

From Monday's Daily.
A. M. Brist is at Hibbing on business today.
Miss Delia Desonia spent Sunday at Mountain Iron.

Joe Karl is on the job at the Iron Range Meat Market recently purchased by C. L. Beiderman. Mr. Karl is well known to the trade in Virginia. D. L. Cummings, cashier of the St. Paul branch of the New York Life Insurance company, is a Virginia visitor today to meet F. L. Whiting, local representative of the company.

Mrs. Henry Horneman is visiting her parents at Twoig.
The Messrs. Michelson and Rogers of the Virginia & Rainy Lake company, this afternoon motored to Tower in Mr. Rogers new Chalmers to look over the Cook & Ketcham sawmill plant.

Mrs. Margaret Sullivan of Chisholm visited with friends in the city yesterday.
Miss Jennie Niemie visited with friends at Aurora yesterday.
A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Morris Soloski yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Archer was a business visitor in Duluth today.
Miss Eva Paul is visiting at the home of her brother at Marble.
Thomas Murphy of the Northside was a visitor in Eveleth yesterday.

Mr. Bert Ross and children of Cloquet are visiting relatives in the city.
Miss Margaret Sullivan of Chisholm visited with friends in the city yesterday.
A. J. Hubin of the Model Pharmacy spent Sunday at his former home in Chisholm.

Mrs. C. Richer of Ray, was a Virginia visitor this morning, on her way to Hibbing.
H. Finjord of Minneapolis will give a free lecture at the Finnish Temperance hall tonight, commencing at 8 o'clock. His subject will be "Our Hope of the Great Hereafter Beyond the Grave." Mr. Finjord has the reputation of being one of the most inspiring Norwegian speakers in the country and it is expected that a large crowd will go to hear him.

Boosts for Virginia.
G. B. Clark of Duluth spent yesterday and today in Virginia and the surrounding territory in the interests of the Dupont Powder company for which he is the range representative. Mr. Clark formerly resided in Virginia and he takes a great deal of interest in the welfare of the range metropolis and says that there is no city in the country that has it on Virginia.

Jurors Excused at Hibbing.
Petit jurors serving at the present term of the district court at Hibbing, with the exception of those drawn in the case being tried today, were excused yesterday by Judge Martin Hughes until July 27, when two jury cases are to be tried there before one of the judges of the district court of Duluth. Judge Hughes is disappointed in not presiding in either owing to past knowledge of the matters at issue.

Busy on Rossum Estate.
Otto Gafvert, formerly deputy revenue collector for this district, came up from Duluth last night and is spending the day in the city. Mr. Gafvert is now in charge of the Rossum estate business in Duluth. Besides looking after his real estate affairs Mr. Gafvert is engaged in settling up the estate of the late F. B. Rossum, a former resident of this city, who died at his home in Duluth several months ago.

Cook Is Prospering.
Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wann of Cook were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Vanderpool. Mr. Wann is engaged in the mercantile business at Cook and says that his firm is enjoying a good trade. He also says that crops are fine in this section and that the farmers are looking forward to one of the biggest yields ever harvested in the north country. Cook is steadily growing and is already classed as one of the busiest farming communities in St. Louis county.

Holdes Services Here.
Rev. Gustav Olsson, pastor of the Norwegian Danish M. E. church, will hold services at the Norwegian M. E. church at 320 Spruce street in this city on Thursday and Friday evenings of this week and again on Sunday evening next.

Reported Improved.
Harry Erickson, representative of the Duluth & Iron Range Land company, and Gordon Perrot, clerk at the Ormonde hotel, who have been at Shakopee for several weeks taking treatment for rheumatism, are reported as being much improved. They are expected to return to the city some time next week.

Building Committee Meets Tonight.
The building committee of the Swedish Lutheran church, corner Cleveland avenue and Poplar street, meets tonight to decide on improvements to the church grounds, contemplated as part of the extensive improvement campaign now being made on the church property. The society is spending about $6,000 and is entirely remodeling the present church home as well as considerably increasing its capacity.

Remodeling Plant.
Edward Erickson, vice president of the Gopher Heating company, has returned from Cook where he had been looking after the shipments of timber into the company's plant at that place. The remodeling of the plant is nearly completed and it is anticipated that the factory will begin the manufacture of heating stoves in a short time. Several thousand feet of timber is already on the ground and more is being received daily. About 30 men will be employed at this plant when in operation.

New Train in Service Soon.
The Sunday Fishermen's Special of the Duluth, Winnepig and Pacific will go into service, according to present arrangements, Sunday, July 5. As at present carded, the train will leave Duluth at 7:30, reach Virginia at 10:50, depart at 10:55 and arrive at Fort Frances at 3 o'clock. The returning train will leave Fort Frances at 2:30, arrive at Virginia at 6:30, depart at 6:35 and reach Duluth at 9:55. It will make available to sportsmen the fine bass fishing in Pelican lake and will give Duluth trout fishermen an opportunity to spend an entire day at the several fine trout runs between this city and the head of the lakes.

Kinney Is Quiet.
Al Sabin, Justice of the peace of Kinney, in the city on business today. Mr. Sabin says that business is not booming in that village just at present and it is expected that the mine in that district will be working within a short time.

Mine Owners to Duluth.
J. M. Landrigan, C. L. Eaton and John Mesberg of this city, and George Mesberg of Eveleth, officers and directors of the Robertson-Hoar Iron Mining company, left this morning for Duluth in the interests of the mine and mine located near Kinney, of which they are the lessees.

Postmaster Turppa Visitor.
Postmaster Turppa of Kinney is a Virginia visitor this afternoon. Mr. Turppa states that his town is enjoying a prosperous summer, while the mining activity is somewhat below that of last season. Plans have been prepared for a new village hall costing $10,000 and bids will be called for it by the Kinney council shortly.

Will Marry at Orr.
The marriage of Victor Vanhala, formerly engaged in the real estate business in this city, but who is now in the mercantile business at Orr, and Miss Ada D. Wikman, a former teacher at Orr tomorrow evening. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Moilan, Miss Lucy Pakkala and Messrs. Arvid Hyvari and John Rivers of this city will go up to Orr tomorrow to be present at the wedding.

Goes Back to Old Home.
Wm. Bernard, for some time past employed at Landrigan & Darcy's, and Paul Napoleon Sainonje, started yesterday a trip that both have been anticipating for some time with a lot of pleasure. They will travel down the Great Lakes to their old home in Quebec. Near there Mr. Bernard will meet brothers and sisters whom he has not seen in 23 years and there Mr. Sainonje, who has been employed by the Virginia & Rainy Lake company for several years, returns to permanent residence. They go to the little town of San Bonaventura, where Mr. Bernard will spend about six weeks and where on July 8 he will celebrate a joint birthday anniversary with his sister. He will return to Virginia in September.

D. M. Cole in City.
D. M. Cole of the land department of the Duluth & Iron Range, is a Virginia visitor today. Mr. Cole reports a very satisfactory business for the year on the iron range. He is a firm believer in the future of all this section in an agricultural way and is perhaps as well familiar with what has been done in an agricultural way in the newly-settled sections of St. Louis county as any resident of this region. Mr. Cole does not believe it will be possible to buy any kind of farming land in this section in two more decades for less than $100 an acre.

Surprise for Miss Flannagan.
A surprise party was given last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Knapp, 512 Hemlock, in honor of Mrs. Knapp's niece, Miss Ada Flannagan of Albert Lea, Minn. Games were played and a delightful luncheon was served by Mrs. Knapp. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Knapp, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Desonia, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kane, Miss Margaret Sullivan, Della Desonia, Ada Flannagan, Anna Schneider, Helia Abrahamson, Amelia Ramus, Hazel Luke, Joseph Kane and William Desonia. Miss Flannagan leaves this week for her home at Albert Lea, after having spent a year with Mr. and Mrs. Knapp.

PERSONALS

From Tuesday's Daily.
Miss Mildred Stevens of Gilbert is visiting in the city today.
Luther Tillisher of Eveleth is in the city today on business.

Deputy Sheriff O'Dea was at Chisholm yesterday on business.
R. O. Wilston of Duluth was a guest of Barney Arnold yesterday.

George B. Mathey of International Falls is in Virginia today on business.
Miss Elna Jacobson of Shandelling Bay, store, spent the afternoon with friends at Eveleth.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lavick and Sam Cohen have returned from a week end visit at Lake Vermilion.
Dr. Tupper of the McIntyre hospital staff, leaves tomorrow for Chicago, where he will visit for a week.

Henry G. Lavick of Duluth was in the city last night, a guest at the home of his brother, James Lavick.
Miss Enid Wilcox has returned home from Minneapolis where she has been attending the state university.

R. O. Durham of Duluth, representing the Royal Typewriter company, is in the city in the interests of his company.
The Misses Stebbins and Wright of the public library have returned from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Fanning at Vermilion lake.

Martin Nelson and James L. Keeley spent the day in the vicinity of Buhl looking over some farm lands.
Miss Grace Banderbloom of Locust street left for Duluth this morning where she will visit before going to St. Paul to remain for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Bauchamp of Hurley, Wis., who are on their wedding trip, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Lund, 115 Spruce street.
Harry Wilke has gone to Minneapolis where he will have charge of the work of getting out a special football edition for the Minnesota Alumni Weekly.

Jack Burns of Eveleth, a former well known baseball player, who is now superintendent of the Adams mine at Eveleth was in the city today on business.
Wm. Clark, who resides on a homestead near Cook, is in the city today on business.

Edward T. Ziel has returned from Keshewa, Wis., where he has been employed for several weeks. While there he was taken ill with an attack of stomach trouble and was obliged to give up work for some time.
Captain and Mrs. A. J. Brown have returned from Solon Springs, Wis., where they spent Sunday and Monday as guests of Captain and Mrs. Harry Roberts at their summer home there.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Heritage have returned from Cloquet where they motored Sunday. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Heritage's mother, Mrs. A. Smith, who will spend some time in Virginia as the guest of her daughter.

CITY BRIEFS

From Wednesday's Daily.
Returns from Vermilion.
E. D. McNeil, superintendent of the Commodore mine, returned last evening from Lake Vermilion, where he spent three days enjoying an outing and in fishing. Mr. McNeil was successful in securing a nice catch.

Mattresses On Fire.
The fire department was called to the Northside of the city about 1 o'clock this afternoon in response to a call from George Brokaw's residence, 824 Fifth street, where some mattresses were burning. Little damage was done.

Twenty June Brides.
Dan Cupid is laying off on the job and unless he shows more speed during the closing days of June than he has to date, June is going on record as falling considerably below its last year's record in the matter of brides. Up to date only 20 marriage licenses have been granted by Deputy Clerk of Court Holloway at the county building.

St. John Taken to Duluth.
Amos St. John, accused of complicity in the stealing of a $400 diamond ring from Mrs. N. J. Nathanson and who was bound over to await the action of the grand jury, was taken to Duluth yesterday where he was placed in the county jail. The young girl who is mixed up in the deal and whose case will go before the grand jury, is now out on bail.

Girls Use Central Playgrounds.
The Central school playgrounds, which have been reserved during the summer months for the use of Virginia girls, under the direction of Miss Gladys Barclay, domestic science teacher in the high school are demonstrating their popularity and are being liberally used. Playground baseball, use of the apparatus and other athletic pastimes are being enjoyed.

Netted Fish; Goes to Jail.
John Koki, arrested yesterday near Wolf by Game Warden George Wood will serve 15 days in the county jail for netting fish in East Two River, near Mountain Iron. He is hearing last evening and was unable to pay a fine of $16 and costs. Oscar Johnson, convicted yesterday on the same charge at Mountain Iron will serve a similar sentence. Both are in the county jail in Virginia today.

Looking Over County Roads.
County Commissioner Ralph O'Neil and County Surveyor Al Dyer were in Virginia yesterday on business, returning from a trip to Cook and Angora, where they had been to look over some new county roads. Mr. O'Neil is proving one of the best county commissioners his district ever had and since his election two years ago he has taken much interest in road extensions and improvements and particularly in the country in the northern end of his district.

Demonstrating Saxon Auto.
S. S. Miller, representing the Northern Motor Car company of Duluth, is demonstrating a new Saxon automobile for the benefit of prospective purchasers in Virginia today. The Saxon sells for $395 and is a neat appearing machine. Mr. Miller drove from Duluth to Virginia yesterday in two hours and used only two gallons of gasoline. He will spend some time on the range. He says the roads between this city and the Head of the Lakes are in good condition.

McEachin a Visitor.
D. D. McEachin of Hibbing, one of the pioneer residents of the range and village treasurer at Hibbing, was a Virginia visitor on business yesterday. Mr. McEachin is prominently connected with the St. Louis County Fair association and says this year's show is going to outshine any that has been held to date. He says business is good at Hibbing and the prospects for the future are bright. Mr. McEachin is one of Hibbing's most liberal and progressive citizens, the foremost optimist on the range and always has a good word to say for his home town.

Elks Arrange for Show.
Arrangements will be perfected at the regular meeting of the local lodge B. P. O. E. this evening for the staging of the big Elks carnival which will open for a week's engagement July 6. Jack Kline and George Lohmar, representing the General Amusement company, whose shows will make up the carnival are in the city. The local committees will be appointed this evening and arrangements will be made for special features. It has practically been decided to give away an automobile on the night before the big shows close. The carnival is made up of 21 shows and is one of the biggest in the business.

TIME TO MAKE HAY

The place to make it is here when it comes to buying

HAYING TOOLS

McCormick Mowers and Hay Rakes

Everything in Haying Tools

Everything in Garden Tools

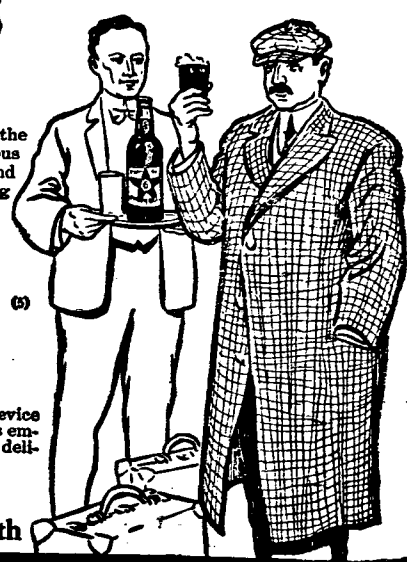

Everything in Hardware

FINNISH HARDWARE CO.

Mesaba Avenue, Virginia, Minnesota.

TRAVELERS SAY:-

Fitger's Beer

Cannot be better brewed. Every modern device... Fitger Brewing Co., Duluth