An apple catching contest in which Master Floyd Erwin was the prize winner furnished a great deal of amusement for the little guests. Those present were the Misses Helen Polan, Mary Schenk, Anna Marquis, Fern Nelson, Mary Polan, Mabel McCall and Margaret Polan; Masters Floyd Erwin, Rueben Nelson and James Sullivan.

At Atlantic City. Trainmaster J. A. Clayton of the Canadian Northern, who with his family is enjoying his annual vacation on an eastern trip writes the Enterprise from New York to say that he is having a fine time and sends a picture of the Metropolitan Life Insurance building by night. Mr. and Mrs. Clayton left New York Thursday to spend a few days at Atlantic City.

The Troubadour Orchestra troupe, accompanied by Ruth Pancost, instrumental soloist, will appear at Moose hall Monday evening under the auspices of Virginia Aerie, Fraternal Order of Eagles. They will give a concert at 8 o'clock which will be followed by dancing. Had Fine Shooting. Chief of Police David Foley returned yesterday from Crookston, where he accompanied President Olcott of the Oliver Iron Mining company on a prairie chicken hunting trip. The party had excellent success and Wednesday secured 43 birds. Mr. Foley is delighted with his new Llewellyn setter dog and shot 16 birds over him from one covey on the trip.

Teachers on Picnic. The greater part of the teaching staff of the Virginia schools are enjoying a picnic today at Ely lake park. The teachers left the city at 9:20. The weather is ideal for the outing and a program of amusements and a picnic dinner have been arranged for the occasion.

Planting Acre Tracts. L. M. Osborn is practicing a new addition to the city of Virginia on the South Side which will be divided into acre tracts and which will soon be put on the market.

Farm Lands in Demand. Many inquiries for farm lands are being received by the Gardner-Macdonald agency, principally from miners and other laboring men, who have found themselves without work since the European struggle began. "We have several farm land deals that will be closed this month," said Alex Macdonald this morning, "and we are kept busy answering inquiries for lands. We recently acquired about 1,000 acres of the finest farm land in the county in the vicinity of Wolf, Iron Junction and Mountain Iron, which is being rapidly settled and expected to have the entire acreage sold by the first of the year. Deals in city property are not so numerous, but during the past week we have closed three deals in Fairview addition. All of the purchasers were laboring men. Two lots were sold to Janso Torrellini, a house and lot to A. Lundstrom and a house and lot to W. H. Rogers.

This Was a Good Cow. Two hundred dollars is named as the value of a cow that in a suit brought against the Duluth, Winnipeg & Pacific Railway by Mrs. Minnie Jarvinen in district court today. The cow and her offspring were participants in a collision with a D. W. & P. freight train at Milepost 85 in June and efforts to settle with the plaintiff have so far had no result. The complaint alleges the cow was thoroughly bred Jersey and the sire of the calf was not without distinction in the registry books of the American Jersey Breeders association, also that the right-of-way was not fenced and the engineer failed to blow the whistle and ring the bell. Apparently the D. W. & P. is "up against it."

Fire Hall for Mesaba. C. K. Shand has prepared plans for a new fire hall at the village of Old Mesaba. It is estimated to cost about $6,000 and bids for its construction will be opened at a meeting of the village council next Monday evening.

He is in the city today. Mr. Savage spoke yesterday at Virginia churches in the interests of the work of the Children's Home Society of Minnesota. During its life the society has cared for 3,600 children, most of whom have been placed in good homes. No one has been more active in its work than the man whose name it bears. His wide acquaintance over the state and is universally loved and respected by all who knew him. The best years of his life have been devoted to the work and although past the allotted three-score and ten years he is still active and finds pleasure in the work. A number of the inmates of the home are from Virginia and other towns on the range.

Sea Serpent Seen. Ed Osterberg rounds out the season with the following fish story that listens interestingly. He states that last Saturday afternoon as he was landing at the wharf at the Olive and while in latitude 66, longitude 47 and six minutes; or rather while he was passing through the Narrows at the Charles Govin place some 10 miles up the lake, he noticed a deadhead or what appeared to be one, directly ahead. He was alone at the time but his affidavit is on file, that instead of a deadhead, the object was a fish swimming half awash. It was a monster and but for a turn of the wheel, the Olive would now be in the hands of the salvage corps. Mr. Osterberg states that it was a fish and that evidently something was the matter with it. Whether it had been to some fish boys and was returning home, will of course never be known. Lake Vermilion has no sea-serpent as yet but unless something shows up later Mr. Osterberg will stand sponsor for this one.—Tower News.

Deer Domesticated. The deer at the Ole Gruben home is growing nicely and is becoming quite a pet. This deer was found when small and starving, as some one had perhaps killed the mother. The little animal has the run of the place and regularly, as if carrying a watch, appears at the kitchen for its meals. During the hunting season it will probably be protected by restraining it from running at large. It has been wearing a bell all summer that any hunter might know at once that it was a pet. The state game warden and his men have given their approval to its capture.—Tower News.

From Monday's Daily. Baudette Mill Closed. Former Chief of Police Richard Rice returned yesterday morning from Baudette, where he has been employed during the summer as sawyer at one of the big mills. The mill has been closed for the season. Mr. Rice says the Northern Beltrami county fair held at Baudette last week brought out a great display of produce and that there is much interest in farm lands about Baudette, which are being reclaimed by state ditches.

Live Fish at The Mesaba. Among a consignment of German carp and goldeyes received at the Mesaba market this morning from Ward road on the Lake of the Woods was a six pound carp that flopped vigorously when taken out of the box in which he had been packed in ice. The fish were probably caught and shipped Saturday being packed in ice at once. It had been out of water at least 48 hours.

Hunting at Bowstring. M. P. Kingston of Virginia and A. G. Kingston, S. J. Webb, Dr. Harwood and G. A. Whitman of Eveleth, make up a party who left the range today and will spend several days hunting Jucks at Bowstring lake in Itasca county, where are located some of the most mossy rice beds in northern Minnesota. Ducks are reported plentiful at Bowstring at present.

Must Provide Mail Receptacles. Circulars recently received by Postmaster Fleming are being distributed to patrons of the city delivery service, calling their attention to Section 676 of the Postal Laws and Regulations, which informs them that suitable receptacles for mail must be provided for patrons of the delivery service. Either a slot must be provided in the front door or some sort of mail box must be placed in an easily accessible place. This will help the carriers in several ways as well as the patron. It obviates the necessity of responding to the carriers call, inures safe delivery, prevents the return of mail to the postoffice which otherwise could be left in the receptacle when the patron is not at home, saves many steps for the obliging carrier, who often is forced to walk around to the rear door and contributes materially to the efficiency of the service.

Sammy Slope in Money. Dr. Floyd G. Mason, V. S., of Hibbing, was a Virginia visitor yesterday. Dr. Mason has just received a message from Spooner, Wis., stating that Jim Henderson and Sammy Slope, harness horses, who are being campaigned through Wisconsin by his father and William Henderson, are in the money at Spooner Saturday. Jim Henderson going first and Sammy Slope third in the feature event of Saturday's card at the county fair at Spooner.

The Game of Football. Most of the members of the Virginia high school football team journeyed to Eveleth Saturday afternoon to witness the annual High School Alumni football game. The two teams played a spirited game. The score stood 0 to 0 at its conclusion. Eveleth has practically the same team as last year, and the Virginia-Eveleth game should be a good drawing card this year.

Elks to Entertain. The Philharmonic Orchestra will be the first offering in a series of entertainments to be given by the local lodge Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks at Elk Temple during the fall and winter months. The orchestra has a well established reputation, composed of 15 pieces and is one of the best that has ever visited the range.
