

LAKE BREEZES

Don't forget the exhibition drill and dance at the armory Thursday evening, Jan. 15. Admission 25 cents. Everybody welcome.

Big Annual Picture Sale.

Now going on at Engels' Art Store.

Building Committee Reports.

The final report of the building committee of the Kitchi Gammi club was made at a special meeting of the board of directors last night.

Will Stand Trial.

Abraham Levine and Abraham Davis, arrested Monday night for fighting, pleaded not guilty when arraigned in police court yesterday. Trial was set for 2 p. m. today.

Trainmen Will Dance Tonight.

The Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen ball, given by Duluth switchmen will be held at the Armory tonight. Flaaten's orchestra will furnish the music for the evening.

Picture Sale.

How about that empty space on your wall? Think of it. Hundreds of our beautiful and artistically framed pictures going on this sale at less than cost. Engels' Art Store. First avenue West.

Miller Home Soon.

Representative C. B. Miller will be in Duluth Jan. 31, according to a letter from him to R. M. Hughes. Miller will be speaker of the day at a Republican gathering to be held in Lansing, Mich., Jan. 30.

Duluth Port Has Record.

Duluth-Superior harbor handled more freight by water than any other port in the world with Buffalo second, according to Harvey D. Goulder, in an address at the annual dinner of the Buffalo Chamber of Commerce.

Fire in Clothing Store.

A lighted cigar started a fire in two boxes of excelsior in the clothing store of J. Altman, 517 West Superior street, last night which caused damage estimated at $100. The building is owned by H. C. Ribenack of the Lenox hotel.