

ACTIVITIES OF DULUTH CLUBS

Apollo Club.

Richard Czerwonky, the eminent violinist of the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra, will be the soloist of the Apollo club's first concert Tuesday evening, Dec. 1.

St. James Guild.

The Guild of St. James will meet Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Bishop's clubrooms.

Collegiate Alumnae.

The Collegiate Alumnae association will meet at the home of Mrs. Carroll Graff, 1601 East First street, tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The subject will be: "Present Tendencies in Women's Education," to be discussed by Mrs. L. W. Kline and Mrs. T. J. Davis.

The first lecture in the course of the Collegiate Alumnae will be given by Dr. Joseph Jastrow, professor of psychology at the University of Wisconsin, Tuesday, Dec. 1. The subject will be one of the new and interesting developments in the field of psychology.

Dr. Frederick Starr will speak on "Mexico up to the Present Time" on Tuesday, Jan. 5. Dr. Starr is one of the foremost scientists of today. His original research in anthropology, ethnology, and archaeology has brought him an international reputation. As recognition of his achievements he has received decorations from France, Holland, Belgium, Congo and Italy.

John Kendrick Bangs, the best known American humorist, will deliver his lecture, "Salubrities I Have Met," being personal recollections of more or less distinguished people, on Wednesday, Feb. 10.

Alfred Noyes, the young English poet, will give a reading of his poems on Tuesday, April 6.

All these lectures will be given at Pilgrim Congregational church.

Lester Park Literary Club.

The Lester Park Literary club will meet on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. W. Palmer, 6001 East Superior street. The leader for the afternoon will be Mrs. M. W. Goodrich, and the subject will be "Home Economics." Mrs. Goodrich will speak on "Public Health and Sanitation."

Mrs. A. L. Giles will discuss "Pure

Food," and Mrs. H. T. Hare will tell of "Better Babies." Roll call will be answered by a current event.

Twentieth Century Club.

The Hudson River School of Artists will be considered at the meeting of the Art History class of the Twentieth Century club to be held at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the clubroom of the library.

The reading and study of "Julius Caesar" will be continued at the meeting tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock of the Shakespeare class in the library clubroom.

The drama class of the department of literature will meet at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon in the clubroom of the library. A paper on "The Mystery and Morality Plays and Chronicles," will be read by Mrs. W. D. Burkes and readings, illustrative of that division of literature, will be given by Mrs. Walter Schwedes.

The department of Education and the Home of the Twentieth Century club will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the clubroom of the library. The subject, "Evolution of Household Furniture," will be taken up by Mrs. E. J. Bardwell and Mrs. F. Mondschine.

Trinity Woman's Auxillary.

Trinity pro-cathedral branch of the Woman's Auxillary will meet at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Edwin Hobbs, 1410 East Fifth street. The leader of the study class will be Mrs. M. F. Jamar Sr., assisted by Mrs. Page Morris and Mrs. A. H. Brocklehurst. The subject of the year's study will be Alaska. Its geography, history and the habits of the natives will be discussed.

Interdenominational Meeting.

The Interdenominational Missionary union will meet Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the assembly hall of the Y. W. C. A. This will be the annual meeting and there will be an election of officers, reports by the presidents of the various denominations and by other officers. Other business of discussion will come up. There will be special music and a talk on "Mission Neighbors" will be given by Dr. F. C. Coolbaugh of Hibbing.

Bishop's Afternoon Class.

The afternoon class of the Bishop's club will meet at the Bishop's clubrooms Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Miss Eunice Brotherton will be leader and will speak on "Catholic Home Missions," dwelling on city parishes that deal with social center work. The Scripture reading will be given by Mrs. L. B. Dorrity and Miss Florence Denny will give a piano selection, "Impromptu Fantasie," by Chopin. Miss Mary Shesgreen will be in charge of current events and "Espiritu Santo," by Henrietta Dana Skinner, will be reviewed by Miss Elizabeth Halley. Mrs. C. F. Haley will be hostess of the afternoon.

Duluth Drama Study Club.

Mrs. M. Cook, 1021 East Second street, will entertain the Duluth Drama Study club at its first causerie on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The subject will be, "The European Situation," with Mrs. R. Spiegel in charge. Volunteer talks will be given informally and there will be a social hour.

Black velvet ribbon is one of the minor features of the autumn fashions. Sometimes it is worn about the throat, tied in a bow, with a long end or loop reaching to be caught in another bow on the front of the bodice.