

POSTAL EMPLOYEES HAVE MERRY PARTY.

Duluth postoffice employes and their wives had a royal good time last evening at the Y. M. C. A. building, at their third annual party.

Mayor Prince opened the program with a witty speech of welcome, after which the carriers and their wives engaged in a series of games of skill, having as their opponents the clerks and their wives. The climax of the evening, an indoor baseball game between the carriers and the clerks, with the wives "rooting" enthusiastically, was called on account of darkness.

In the tug-of-war, the carriers were the winners; in the peanut race the clerks were victorious; in the Indian club contest—these were squaw Indian clubs—the carriers' wives were the conquerors. In the obstacle relay race, a contest not without its humorous moments, the clerks were again the winners.

The 90 persons present were served refreshments in cafeteria style, forming in line and keeping in step while being served, although an effort was noted on the part of some to mark time for a considerable period directly opposite the pile of edibles.

An exhibition of walking on the slack wire was given by Axel Lavin, a clerk. It was suggested that Mr. Lavin's work be changed to carrier's duty, with his route immediately over the Inclined Railway.

J. E. Hauter had the program in charge, working with the able assistance of a committee of which J. D'Arcy was chairman, with Robert Edwards and Will Honigman as the other members.

The executive board of the Twentieth Century club will hold its regular meeting this morning at 10 o'clock at the library.

The first division of the Women's Aid society of Lakeside Presbyterian church will give a social in the church parlors tomorrow evening, to which the people of the community are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lavick, 315 East Fifth street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Sara, to A. J. Evans.

The women of Trinity pro-cathedral will hold a rummage sale at 312 West First street tomorrow and Saturday.

Miss Esther Tischer, 612 Twentieth avenue East, will entertain the Girls' Mission circle of the First Christian church tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock, assisted by Miss Monsen. A study on the life of Bishop Whipple will be the subject of the lesson. The meeting is open to all girls of the church, whether members of the circle or not.

The following Scotch program has been arranged to be given at the entertainment at Lester Park M. E. church tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock: Bagpipe solo, Robert Mowbray; vocal solo, "March of Cameron Men," J. C. Myron; vocal solo, "Loch Lomond," Willis Peer; reading, "The Cotter's Saturday Night," Alexander McKnight; vocal solo, "Bonnie Sweet Bessie," Dr. J. G. Annand; humorous reading, "Billie Brad and the Big Lie," by Ellis Parker Butler, Mrs. George Reifsteck; group of songs, selected, Mrs. Edgar G. Smith; vocal solo, "My Ain Folk," J. C. Myron; sketches by Robert Burns, Alexander McKnight; vocal solo, "Jessie's Dream," Willis Peer; French-Canadian dialect reading, "Keep Out of the Weed," by Henry Drummond, Mrs. George Reifsteck; vocal solo, "Down the Burn, Davie Love," Dr. J. G. Annand; bagpipe solo, Robert Mowbray; song, "Auld Lang Syne," audience.

You Can't Help It.

Liking Annette Kellermann in "Neptune's Daughter" is a national habit. She's at the Lyric today.

The wedding of Miss Sara Wesenberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Wesenberg, 5144 London road, and Dr. Frank B. Fiske of Indianapolis, Ind., took place last evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents. The ceremony was read by Rev. U. S. Villars of Lester Park M. E. church in the presence of the immediate friends and relatives of the bride and bridegroom.

The bride wore a gown of white crepe de meteor with an overdrape of shadow lace and carried bride roses. The attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Harry P. Steinbach, at whose wedding at Houghton, Mich., four years ago the bride and bridegroom of last evening were the attendants. Mrs. Steinbach's gown was of an apricot shade of satin trimmed with Irish lace. The little ring-bearer was Marian Ferguson, 3-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Ferguson.

The wedding was solemnized in the drawing room in a bower of palms and ground pine, with which chrysanthemums were combined. Miss Jessie Todd played the Bridal chorus from "Lohengrin." Richard Lee Mallman sang "O Promise Me" before the ceremony, and "I Love You Truly" afterwards.

An informal reception followed.

The dining room was attractively decorated with pink roses and ferns.

Dr. Fiske and his bride left immediately on a wedding trip, and will make their home at Indianapolis. The bride formerly attended the University of Chicago, and it was in Chicago that her first meeting with Dr. Fiske took place.
