

CITY BRIEFS

From Monday's Daily.

Dr. Pengilly Leaves Range.
Dr. Pengilly, for a number of years connected with the staff of the Rood hospital at Hibbing, has severed his connection with that institution and leaves today for Crosby, on the Cuyuna range, where he will be associated with a Crosby physician in conducting a new hospital to be opened shortly. Dr. Pengilly has a host of friends on the Mesaba range who will regret his departure. He is known as one of the best diagnosticians in this section of the state, is a constant student and a tireless worker with high ideals of his chosen profession which command for him the respect of all who know him.

Visiting Farmers.
County Agricultural Agent H. G. Larson, spent Tuesday in the Gheen district. Mr. Larson has been getting acquainted with the farmers and farmers' clubs all through this section of the county, and was much pleased to note the advancement made by the farmers of these new farming districts. Good roads and cooperation are two of the things lacking to make these districts successful farming districts.—Gheen Record.

Lusk & Sigel Gave Scores.
Pigskin rosters who were unable to attend the Minnesota-Wisconsin game at Minneapolis Saturday assembled at Lusk & Sigel's billiard hall Saturday afternoon and watched the miniature footballs representing the two teams as they traveled back and forth over the improvised field registering each play. A good service was maintained and the crowd at times broke into cheers as some exciting play was made.

Hunting Near Wolfe.
F. R. Holdridge is spending today hunting deer in the woods near Wolfe. He expects to fill his hunting license before night. A week ago while hunting near Wolfe Mr. Holdridge came on the carcass of a deer that had been shot out of season and in a wounded condition had hidden in a thicket where it died. Henry Isaacson and Mr. Holdridge were hunting yesterday and Mr. Isaacson killed a deer.

Home With "Big Bucks."
Nels Anderson and John Rivers returned this morning from Pelican lake, where they have spent the past three days hunting big game, with two "big bucks." Mr. Anderson's buck is entitled to more than ordinary notice in a time when "big bucks" are being brought in as he refers to it as the "biggest buck of the year."

Christening at Williams Home.
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Williams will christen their little daughter at their home at 507 Cook street this evening. Rev. Mr. Porter will confer the baptismal rite and the child will be christened Ruth Audrey. The christening will also be made the occasion of a family reunion, while a few of the near friends of Mr. and Mrs. Williams are invited.

Pythians Meet Tomorrow.
A regular meeting of Northern Light Lodge No. 127, Knights Pythias will be held tomorrow evening at the Castle hall in the Lyric block. The ceremonies of conferring the rank of knight will take place and final plans for the big K. P. entertainment will be completed.

Progressive Women's Club Meet.
The Progressive Women's club will meet this evening at the public library at 7:30. The topic of study will be "Paris Under Louis XIV." Mrs. I. G. Reese will be the leader assisted by Miss Gertrude Schaub, Dr. Ruth Watson, Mrs. H. Wolner and Mrs. James Tretheway.

Hunting at Cusson.
Pete Greenwood, C. E. Chatfield and George Van Pelt of the Mesaba Electric railway force are a party of big game hunters, who left Sunday for the country about Cussons, where they will spend several days hunting deer and moose.

New Pastor Arrives Tonight.
Rev. Mr. Gade, D. D., recently called to the pastorate of the First Presbyterian church of Virginia, is expected to arrive in the city this evening from Willmar, Minn., where he has been pastor of the First Presbyterian church. Mr. Gade's household goods arrived in the city this morning.

Oliver Not Involved.
The Oliver Iron Mining company is not trying to collect 90 cents each from a number of men and boys who have been reported as overturning and destroying a shed belonging to it on Hallowe'en. The shed was located on Sage street and was the personal property of E. G. F. Chase, who is an employe of the Oliver. Mr. Chase has instituted proceedings on his own behalf to be reimbursed for the damage done. He says he has the names of 27 men and boys who had a hand in the affair and will swear out warrants for their arrest unless the matter is settled.

Was a Famous Victory.
The Virginia contingent who attended the home-coming and Wisconsin-Minnesota football game at Minneapolis, for the most part returned to the city last night. They say the football game was one of the greatest contests ever staged on a Minnesota gridiron and Minnesota alumniing a well.

Applies for Second Papers.
Peter Santinelli, employed at the city pumping station in Hibbing, was a Virginia visitor this morning to make application for second papers in citizenship before Clerk of the District Court U. G. Holloway. He was accompanied by Herman Antonelli and J. Bechetti, prominent Hibbing business men as witnesses.

Keller Got a "Big Buck."
Adolph Keller, Hugo Hendrick and James Lavick returned this morning from a hunting trip to Lavick's on at Lake Vermilion. Mr. Keller killed a "big buck" Saturday, while Mr. Hendrick and Mr. Lavick hired a couple of Indians and instructed them to secure a "big buck" for them and to send up a red rocket when they had been able to do so.

Mrs. Schoening Improving.
The many friends of Mrs. F. L. Schoening, who has been a patient at St. Luke's hospital, Duluth, for several weeks, were she recently underwent a surgical operation, will be pleased to learn that she is recovering nicely and will probably be able to return to her home in Virginia the latter part of this week.

New Barns Completed.
The new car barns of the Mesaba allway at Olcott park, fireproof in every detail, have been completed and are in use today. The finishing touches were put on the building Saturday. It is equipped with safety appliances and is modern throughout.

Injured on City Sewer.
Oscar Lapoli, employed as a laborer in the construction of the six-foot sewer for the city of Virginia, was seriously injured in a cave-in late Saturday afternoon. Two other laborers narrowly escaped injury. Lapoli is a patient at the Lenont hospital.

Catholic Church For Cook.
Rev. Father Powers of Virginia was at Cook Tuesday, saying mass in the morning and attending a meeting of the Catholics of the neighborhood during the day, at which it was agreed to commence building a church at Cook in the near future.—Gheen Record.

Will Build a Home.
Telephoir Chevalier, an employe of the Virginia & Rainy Lake company has purchased a lot in Williams addition to Virginia and in a short time will begin the construction of a new residence there which will cost in the neighborhood of $1,000.

Bring Home a "Big Buck."
John Lackery and Arthur Eddy returned this morning from a hunting trip to the country about Cook. They had headquarters at Riverside farm and brought home with them a fine "big buck."

Eagles Session Tonight.
Virginia Aerie Fraternal Order of Eagles held a regular meeting tonight when officers will be nominated for the coming year. A social session will follow the business of the evening.

Two "Big Bucks."
Fred and John Verville returned today from a hunting trip to the country south of Virginia on the Mesaba. Both filled their hunting licenses and brought in "big bucks."

PERSONALS

From Monday's Daily.
J. A. McDonald returned this noon from an extended business trip.
Dr. Nelson of Chisholm, was the guest of Virginia friends yesterday.
Clement Quinn left at noon today for a business trip to the Cuyuna range.

Miss Lucille Glode of Eveleth, is the guest of Virginia friends this afternoon.
Miss Sheehan of Virginia, was the guest of Mrs. John Fry of Chisholm yesterday.
J. D. Lamont is a visitor at the head of the lakes this afternoon on business.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Price go to Duluth tomorrow for a week's visit with friends.
Frank Cusson of Superior, was among yesterday's guests at the New Fay hotel.
M. E. Talboys, poor commissioner of the village of Chisholm, spent Sunday in Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wood of Hibbing, were among last night's guests at the Ormonde hotel.
Adolph Braa returned this morning from a hunting trip in the north country bringing in a "big buck."

R. E. Sampson left yesterday for Rochester where he will manage a big newspaper circulation campaign.
H. S. Gillespie and Edward Johnson returned this morning from a hunting trip in the north country.
P. L. Buchanan and Bert Kane returned today from a hunting trip, bringing in two fine "big bucks."

F. R. Stephan returned this morning from Cussons, where he has been hunting big game for several days.
J. P. Denyes was among a party of hunters that left for the north country this afternoon in quest of deer.
Thomas Moe is at his farm near Wolfe this afternoon, where he is doing a good deal of clearing and sink-holing.
H. J. Darling returned today from a hunting trip in the Whiteface district and brought home with him a fine "big buck."

H. S. Newton of the Mesaba Electric railway and Dr. McIntyre were Hibbing visitors on business this morning.

Jack Pasternacki returned today from Minneapolis, where he went to witness the Gopher-Badger gridiron battle.

James Denyes left this afternoon for Lavick's inn, near Lake Vermilion, where he will spend several days hunting big game.
Miss Cora Hearn, instructor in music in the Biwabik schools, was the Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hearn, 324 Hemlock street.

William Morrell returned last night from a several days' hunting trip in the country about Culver and brought home with him a "big buck."
Miss Lillian Strecht of Cook, was the guest yesterday of Miss Hattie Lipke, of Locust street. Miss Strecht is teaching school near Cook.

Attorney James Perigrine and a friend are hunting big game in the Namakin lake country, where they plan to spend all of this week.
William Trichter, Andrew Skumatz and the Lambert brothers returned today from a deer hunting trip to the south along the Canadian Northern.
F. J. Hughes, who now has charge of the Hibbing office of the Minnesota Adjustment company, spent Sunday at his home on Lake boulevard.

A. G. Strong, auditor of the Miller cafeteria, was in the city this morning checking up the local cafeteria and returned to his home at Duluth at noon.
Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Heritage of 621 Poplar street entertained for a number of their friends Saturday evening in honor of their ninth wedding anniversary.

Donald Young of the firm of Alexander Reid & Co., is spending the day in the north woods near Kinross hunting deer. He is anxious to bring home a "big buck."
Eli Williamson of the Gately store sales force left yesterday with a party of friends for Lake Kabetogama, where a few days will be spent in search of the antlered denizens of the forest.

Samuel Kasper returned to Duluth at noon today after a brief visit in Virginia on business. He was formerly employed at the Woolfand clothing store in Hibbing and also worked in Virginia.
J. H. McNiven, alderman and Flip Harrington, street commissioner of Chisholm, passed through Virginia this morning on their way to Cook, where they will spend several days hunting deer.

Superintendent of Schools Newberry of Gilbert and son returned this morning from a hunting trip to the north country. They were not fortunate enough to fill their hunting licenses.
Misses Pauline and Esther Rabinowitz and Attorney Abe Feldman of Eveleth and Miss Esther and Abe Sappo of Chisholm, were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Milavetz, 311 Maple street.

CITY BRIEFS

From Tuesday's Daily.
Rev. Mr. Reinertsen Surprised.
Rev. Mr. Reinertsen, pastor of the Norwegian Lutheran church was surprised by the people of his congregation at his home at 404 Wyoming avenue Saturday night and presented with a purse containing a large sum of money. The good people of the congregation repaired from the Reinertsen home to the church, where there was given a program and a social evening followed which was very enjoyable to all. Mr. Reinertsen is in Duluth today where he went to look after some ministerial work in connection with his old parish in West Duluth.

Will Hunt in Cook County.
R. C. Pickering leaves this afternoon for Duluth where he will join his father W. E. Pickering in a hunting trip to the northern part of Cook county. The country where the Messrs. Pickering will hunt is some distance from the end of the Alger-Smith line and moose are reported to be numerous there. Mr. Pickering will be absent from Virginia a week or ten days.

Wenzel on Eastern Trip.
Edward Wenzel, accountant at the city water and light office left today for a trip to Milwaukee, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Duluth, where he goes to look over the systems of accounting used by various gas plants with a view of determining the system which shall be put in here by the water and light commission when the new plant opens.

Will Spend Christmas in Norway.
C. E. Christopherson, who for the last three years has been employed at the store of Savolainen Bros., expects to leave in a short time to visit his parents and spend Christmas with them at his old home in Norway. Mr. Christopherson has not seen his people for eight years. Martin Bergerson may decide to accompany him.

Reeves Visits Ely.
Charles Reeves, in charge of the range bureau of the News-Tribune was a visitor on the Vermilion range yesterday at Ely and Tower. Mr. Reeves has considerably improved the range page of the News-Tribune and his disposition to handle the news with fairness and accuracy is making him many friends on the Mesaba.

Savolainen Co. Improving.
The Savolainen company are making some improvements to the interior of their handsome Chestnut street jewelry store, installing new wall cases and rearranging. They have one of the finest jewelry stores in the state and are doing a large and constantly increasing business.

Good Show at Lyric.
The St. Clair Stock company pleased a large audience at the Lyric theatre last evening in its opening bill for the week "Woman Against Woman." The piece is a wholesome comedy drama, that sustains interest throughout tells a pretty story that is full of human interest and teaches a moral lesson worth while. The entire company appeared to excellent advantage in it.

Honored By Friends.
Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Heddican of the Higgins location were pleasantly surprised last night by a party of friends on the occasion of Mrs. Heddican's birthday. About twenty people from the north side were present. A pleasant evening of social diversion resulted and Mrs. Heddican was made the recipient of numerous gifts.

Didn't Get a "Big Buck."
City Clerk Albert Bickford returned this morning from a hunting trip to Alger. He brought home a small buck and is distinguished as the only hunter returning to the city since the hunting season opened who didn't get a "big buck." Mr. Bickford was accompanied by Stewart Murray and W. E. Lawrence.

Eagles Had Social.
Virginia Aerie Fraternal Order of Eagles nominated officers at a regular meeting held at Moose hall last night which was followed by a smoker and luncheon. The Eagles will have a class for initiation at one of their meetings in the near future and will make an aggressive campaign for members during the winter.

Have Neat Drug Store.
Kopp & Morris have just completed the remodeling of the interior of their Chestnut street drug store. An entire new set of fixtures has been put in place and new showcases are yet to be installed. The store presents a very neat interior appearance and is one of the best arranged on the Mesaba range.

A "Big Buck" Apiece.
City Treasurer F. J. Verville and his brother Joseph, Alfred and Jack Levine and Julius Thibaut returned yesterday from the North Shore country near Two Harbors, where they spent a few days hunting. Each one was successful in getting the law's limit, five "big bucks" having met their doom.

Broken Wire Delays Cars.
A broken wire on the high tension power transmission line of the Mesaba Electric railway between Mountain Iron and Buhl set the schedule of the range trolley line awry for a short time this morning. Linemen from Virginia repaired the break and the cars are running on time this afternoon.

Much Venison Arrives.
That Virginia sportsmen are getting their share of big game is indicated by the great number of deer coming in each day over the Duluth, Winnipeg & Pacific from the north country. Last night's train brought in 16 deer establishing a record for the season so far.

Will Go to Helena.
J. F. Toeller, secretary of the Virginia Commercial club, returned yesterday from a business trip to the twin cities and will leave in a short time for Helena, Mont., on business.

Will Entertain Ladies' Aid.
Mesdames Henning Erickson and John Wicklund will entertain the members of the Swedish Lutheran Ladies' Aid tomorrow afternoon at the church parlors.

Ladies' Aid Meet.
The Norwegian M. E. Ladies' Aid will meet at the church Thursday night, this week, Nov. 19. Coffee and cake will be served. All are cordially invited to attend.

Ladies' Aid Meeting.
The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with Mrs. M. L. Matheson, 420 Walnut street.

PERSONALS

From Tuesday's Daily.
M. S. Kingston is a visitor at Duluth on business today.
Game Warden George Wood is a visitor at the Zenith City.
William Montague was a Duluth visitor on business yesterday.

W. E. Harwood returned today from a brief business visit to Duluth.
J. G. Mattala of Cloquet is among today's guests at the Ormonde hotel.
Attorney Otto A. Poirier is at the head of the lakes city on business today.
Sid Berdie of Duluth, was among last night's guests at the Ormonde hotel.

Mrs. R. L. Griggs returned last evening from a visit of a month with relatives in the east.
Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Champlin went to Duluth this morning for a visit of a week with friends.
Andrew Hawkison went to Duluth this morning to attend a meeting of the county poor commission.
W. Jacobson of Chisholm, where he is manager for the Wear-U-Well shoe store, is a Virginia visitor today.

Dr. Axel A. Pesonen left this afternoon over the Canadian Northern for Angora on professional matters.

Harry Nelson and Evor Hawkinson left this afternoon for the Sand lake country on a deer hunting expedition.
Mrs. Harry Gillham, daughter Ruth and son Harry, are confined to their home with a severe attack of tonsillitis.
Miss Emma Aune of Duluth, who has been the guest of Mrs. H. S. Gillespie, returned yesterday to her home.

Ernest Krause returned yesterday from Ellsmere, where he has been hunting for several days and brought in a fine large doe.
Mr. and Mrs. Alex Di Moyses of Cook, were guests at the New Fay yesterday. Mr. Di Moyses is in the drug business at Cook.

Attorney D. D. Morgan is at Hibbing this afternoon, where he is trying a case in district court before Judge Martin Hughes.
F. L. Schoening went to Duluth this morning to visit Mrs. Schoening, who is a patient at St. Luke's hospital, where she recently underwent a surgical operation.

Miss Jane McElroy of Duluth and sister, Miss Pauline McElroy of Hibbing, are week end guests of their sister, Mrs. E. L. Kennedy of Larch street.
Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Rutherford went to Duluth this morning. Mr. Rutherford goes to Kansas City, Mo., tomorrow, where he will remain for about two weeks on business. Mrs. Rutherford returns to Virginia tonight.

Rev. Mr. Waldeland of St. Ansgar, Iowa, who is a guest at the home of Attorney and Mrs. E. J. Larsen, 506 Locust street is threatened with an attack of pneumonia. Mr. Waldeland is the traveling representative of the Norwegian Lutheran church and was on his way to Winnipeg, when he stopped here to visit Mr. and Mrs. Larsen and was taken ill.

CITY BRIEFS

Monthly Meeting Ladies' Aid.
The Ladies' Aid Society of the Swedish M. E. church will hold its monthly meeting Thursday evening, November 19th, at the church, corner of Spruce street and Wyoming avenue. A good program has been prepared. Rev. Andrew Anderson, superintendent of the Lake Superior district, Rev. F. Lund of Superior, will be present to take part in the program. Although this is a meeting of the Ladies' Aid, the men of the church have consented to serve the refreshments. Admission free to all.

Will Show Fancy Chickens.
W. T. Irwin of the Elmwood Farm Dairy, who is one of the foremost poultry fanciers of the range, is making arrangements to show his thoroughbred Buff Orpingtons at several of the northwestern poultry shows to be held in the near future. He will probably exhibit pens of his birds at Two Harbors, Winnipeg and Minneapolis and has several that have won ribbons in the poultry shows of last season and the year before.

Maccabees to Dance.
The entertainment committee of the local tent Knights of the Maccabees is making all arrangements for its dancing party which will be held on Thanksgiving eve, Nov. 25 at the Finnish temperance hall and will be one of the big affairs of the season. The Maccabees have arranged for an excellent orchestra and will leave nothing undone that will add to the enjoyment of the occasion.

Bowers to Get Busy.
Virginia bowlers will open the season this week with a game at the Rivers & Nurmi alleys between a Hibbing club and George Massey's pinpillers. Whether or not a range league will be organized this winter is not yet definitely decided but the organization of a city league is under discussion and will probably be perfected at a meeting of bowling enthusiasts to be held in the near future.

High School Dance.
The students of the Virginia High school will give a dancing party at the high school gymnasium on the evening of November 25. The affair is given under the auspices of the High School Athletic association and the proceeds will be used to purchase sweaters for the football team which recently finished the season as champions of northern Minnesota and Wisconsin.

Await Advice from Relatives.
The body of George McQuinn, woodsman, who was found dead by the roadside a week ago today near Angora is still at Gillespie's morgue. Old friends of McQuinn declare he has a brother in Duluth who is in comfortable circumstances, but efforts to locate him have so far been unsuccessful. Unless the authorities are able to get in touch with his relatives soon the body will be buried as a county charge.

Jenkins Funeral.
The funeral of John Jenkins, who died at his home at 301 Locust street last Saturday night after a short illness was held this afternoon from the First M. E. church at 2:30 o'clock, the Reverend Mr. Foster officiating. It was attended by many old friends anxious to pay a last tribute of respect to the deceased, who was well respected by all who knew him. Interment was made at Greenwood cemetery.

Christened Twin Sons.
A large number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Jankopic enjoyed their hospitality this morning at the christening of their twin sons Nicholas and Matt, who arrived at the Jankopic home on Ash street last Sunday. The christening was made the occasion for much merry-making. Mr. Jankopic is an employe of the Franklin mine.

Thirteen Lodgers.
Thirteen lodgers were sheltered at the city jail last night, breaking all records for several weeks. Despite the general business conditions and the fact that a large number of men are unemployed in this section the records at the police station show that the number of unfortunates applying for lodging at this time is much lower than for a number of years past.

Goes Back to Old Trade.
Joe Vukelic, who for the past year has been employed at the law office of S. S. Dahl, has accepted a position at his trade at the Knife River barber shop, which he formerly managed. Joe has a good many friends over the city and is known as a handy wielder of "the hook."

Got a "Big Buck."
Jack Brown, who was a member of a hunting party including City Clerk Bickford, which returned yesterday from the country in the vicinity of Alger, brought home a "big buck," which the Enterprise failed to mention in its issue of yesterday.

Ban Raised on Parcel Post.
The Virginia postoffice has been notified by the department at Washington that hereafter parcel post packages may be accepted for delivery at points in France. For some time the postoffice has declined to accept parcels sent to destinations in France. There has been a noticeable falling off in the foreign money order business at the Virginia postoffice since the outbreak of the war, but the postal savings bank deposits show a substantial increase.

First Meeting Tomorrow.
The first regular meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Northside Presbyterian mission, which was recently organized by several of the Northside residents for the purpose of raising money for the establishment of a Sunday school, will be held tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. D. W. Monroe, 1201 Central avenue north. All who are interested in the work are urged to attend.

A. O. U. W. Meet Tomorrow.
A regular meeting of Virginia Lodge No. 224, Ancient Order of United Workmen, will be held tomorrow night in the K. P. hall in the Lyric building. Several candidates will be on hand for initiation and applications will be acted upon. The election of two officers will also take place.

Buhl Men Buy Farms.
Martin Nelson was a Buhl visitor on business yesterday and while there closed deals for the sale of three St. Louis county farms. The purchasers are Charles Lover, Nels Peterson and John Olson. All plan to begin the work of developing their properties at once.

Sale of Fancy Work.
The young ladies of the Scandinavian Mission church will hold a sale of fancy work Thursday evening at the church, corner Locust and Wyoming avenue. Refreshments will be served. Everybody welcome.

Visited Mother.
J. G. Pasternacki of the Model pharmacy, returned yesterday from a short visit to his mother at his old home at Stevens Point, Mrs. Pasternacki, Sr., has been ill for some time, but her condition is now improved.

Will Entertain Ladies' Aid.
Mrs. Fred Brooks of 209 Cedar street will entertain the Ladies' Aid society of the German Lutheran church at her home at 2:30 tomorrow afternoon.

Injured in Fall to Sidewalk.
Assistant City Engineer Keith Maitland is nursing a sprained ankle as the result of a fall to the sidewalk near the Fay hotel Sunday. The city is having the sidewalks sprinkled with sand, following the usual winter custom and Virginia mothers who have babies to take out for an airing and are compelled to take the middle of the street with perambulators are preparing a vigorous protest.

Interclass Basketball.
The interclass basketball tournament at the Virginia high school will begin next Monday evening and games will also be played in the first series Tuesday evening. There will also be games the following Monday and Tuesday evenings. The outlook is fine for a strong basketball quint at the local school.

Convicted of Theft.
Lalyi Menonen was convicted in Judge McMahon's court at Mountain Iron this morning for the theft of $20 from Paperina Bianchi in a Mountain Iron saloon last week and was sentenced to pay a fine of $15 and costs. County Attorney Green appeared for the state. Menonen was made to refund the stolen money.

Mike Rooney Improving.
Mike Rooney, driver of the chemical and hose truck of the Virginia fire department, who was painfully injured yesterday when the apparatus skidded on glare ice and capsized, is reported as doing nicely at the McIntyre hospital. He passed a somewhat restless night but is in no danger.

Invited to Banquet.
Postmaster Fleming and other prominent Virginia democrats today received invitations to a banquet to be held at St. Paul Saturday night at which the members of the democratic state central committee and Governor-elect Hammond will be guests. Mr. Fleming may be unable to attend, but several other Virginians plan to be present.

Odd Fellows Have Class of Five.
The local lodge of Odd Fellows have a class of five for initiation in the third degree at their regular meeting tomorrow night.

PERSONALS

From Wednesday's Daily.
Mrs. B. N. Jereissati is a visitor at Duluth today.

Carl R. Johnson is a business visitor at Duluth this afternoon.
Ewald Hubin of Chisholm, was the guest of Virginia friends yesterday.

N. J. Smith of the Virginia Store company is at Duluth on business today.
Arthur Howe, Chisholm pharmacist, was the guest of Virginia friends yesterday.
Attorney Abe Feldman of Eveleth, is a Virginia visitor on business this afternoon.

Mrs. Arthur Dooms of International Falls is the guest of Mrs. Robert Rutherford.
Attorney Otto A. Poirier returned last evening from a brief business visit at Duluth.
Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Booth of Wyoming avenue are visitors at Duluth and Superior today.

Deputy Sheriff Fred Witte is a visitor at the head of the lakes on official business today.
G. L. Humphreys of Duluth is the guest for a few days of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Pasternacki.

J. B. Michela, secretary of Chief of the Oliver Police D. F. Foley, is a Buhl visitor on business today.
J. H. Sheeran, traveling passenger agent for the Soo Line, is in Virginia today on one of his regular visits.
Mrs. Edwin Ambrose is the guest of her sister, Mrs. George J. Vandenberg, 107 1-2 Mesaba avenue north.
S. R. Kirby, vice president of the First National bank, was a business visitor in Virginia from Duluth yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Trimble plan to leave next week to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. Trimble's parents at South Range, Michigan.
M. H. Godfrey, superintendent for the Oliver Iron Mining company in the Virginia district is a visitor at Duluth today on official business.
Mr. and Mrs. H. O. White, returning from their wedding trip to the home of Mr. White's parents at Amsberg, Wis., were in the city yesterday on their way to Old Mesaba.

The Misses Helen and Selma Peterson and Edwin Peterson of Bennett, Wis., are guests of the family of their brother Assistant Postmaster C. O. Peterson, of 511 Hickory street.

PERSONALS

From Saturday's Daily.
Al Rough was a Chisholm visitor yesterday.

F. B. Getchell of Bemidji, is among today's guests at the Ormonde.
Miss Pauline Markham of Bemidji, is the guest of friends at the New Fay hotel.

Henry Hanes is among the hunters who left for the vicinity of Cook this afternoon.
Roy Taylor and D. A. Caza are on a deer hunting trip in the vicinity of Kimnott.
Miss Cora Schiltzberg of Fox Lake, Wis., is the guest of Mrs. George F. Shea at the Webber flats.

Assistant County Superintendent of Schools L. A. Ink was a guest at the Ormonde last evening.
Mrs. J. C. Richards and little daughter returned this evening from a visit of a week with friends in Duluth.
The Misses Mary McDougall and Ottilie Lindquist of Cook, were among last night's guests at the Ormonde hotel.

James Perigrine and his guest, Mr. Husted of Colorado, left last night for the country about Cusson, where they will spend several days hunting big game.
Superintendent M. Helston of the Duluth, Winnipeg & Pacific left yesterday for Winnipeg on matters of business.

Ralph Denyes and Walter McGraw left this afternoon over the Duluth, Winnipeg & Pacific for the north country after venison.
H. V. Peterson, cashier at the State bank, attends the meeting of the Eveleth Elks last evening at which Deputy Grand Exalted Euler Rawson was present.

W. P. Rutherford, chief clerk for the Pickands-Mather company and E. T. Apt, auditor from the Cleveland office, are making a trip over the range visiting the various holdings of the company.
Deputy Sheriff Andrew Moilan is at Orr today on official business.
Frank Kovachik and Carl Laurentzen, of Chisholm, are Virginia visitors on business this afternoon.