Plans are being made for a larger event of the same nature.

The Week That's Gone

And the One That Is to Come.

Musical affairs have marked the past week and musical affairs will mark the week to come. Monday started the sunlight with the Normanna concert. The most lasting impression carried away was that of the humming arrangement made by Arthur F. M. Cuestance for "Drink to Me Only with Thine Eyes," the Normanna chorus forming the background against which rang out the clear, sweet tones of Mrs. Donna Ribble Elaston, who sang the air. It is safe to predict that this will be a request number much in demand hereafter.

The Moseberg concert given by the Orpheus Singing society Friday night was another interesting affair. The principal feature to remain in the memory being Wennerberg's noble "Her Osa! Svea." This is another number likely to be requested again. It brought out the best work of the chorus.

The Mothers' clubs of the various schools had interesting activities all week. Duluth is wisely following the example of a few other cities in sending teachers and parents together to their mutual benefit and understanding.

In the days soon to come there will be many St. Patrick's day affairs, particularly in the line of amateur theatricals. Of course a great deal of the cleverest talent in Duluth has already been put to the test in Mrs. Wiley's Duluth lecture, which will be given Saturday evening at the First Methodist church under the auspices of the Housewife's league.

All the state university alumni are interested in the U. of M. Glee club concert next Friday evening at Michigan Congregational church. The club is said to be the best that has gone west from our beloved Kilt-Tartan college, so everybody will be on hand to see whether the advance report has been correct. On the same evening the university extension lecture, "Minnesota the Heart of Our Continent" will be given at Central high school.

One of the most charming events of the coming week is sure to be the Twentieth Century club's Spanish affair, given at the Masonic temple. Some of the cleverest talent in Duluth has been promised to the present, and Mr. Frank Barker has arranged a fascinating program. Truth to tell, there are many high lights on the picture of the future.

British Vice-consul Here.

Mr. and Mrs. David Quall, who have recently come to Duluth, are at present making their home at 6029 Grand street. Mr. Quall has been appointed to the position of vice-consul in this city, a position which he will occupy until the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Quall will be at home Thursday and Friday afternoons from 2 to 5 o'clock and in the evenings from 8 to 10:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Ekblad Entertains.

A Charming Bridge Luncheon. Mrs. J. W. Ekblad, 2301 West Third street, was hostess at a charmingly arranged bridge luncheon yesterday afternoon. The tables were set in yellow and white, and clusters of jonquils and ferns were placed about the bridge. The party consisted of seven tables, and favors were won by Mrs. Dallas C. Wakeman, Mrs. S. J. Nygren and Mrs. C. A. Baxter.

Y. W. C. A. Annual Banquet.

Judge Cant as Toastmaster. Judge W. A. Cant will act as toastmaster at the annual banquet to be given Tuesday evening at the Young Woman's Christian association. Julius Barnes and Miss Frances Crittendon, secretary of the national held territorial committee, of Minneapolis, will be the speakers. The hostesses will be Mrs. T. W. Hoodson, Mrs. Olin W. Roe, Mrs. F. I. Atkins, Mrs. V. C. Sherwood, Mrs. F. C. Bowman, Mrs. F. H. Hilde, Mrs. F. DeWey, Mrs. David Davis, Mrs. T. J. Chapman, Mrs. J. H. McLean, Mrs. W. A. McGonigal, Miss Helen Congdon, Miss Moody and Miss Necham.

Affairs for Visitor.

Mrs. Dreher of St. Paul a Guest. Mrs. Edwin Dreher of St. Paul, who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. F. H. Small, 928 East Sixth street, has been the guest of honor at many pretty affairs during the week.
