

FIRST OF TWO CONCERTS GIVEN

Mrs. Wally Heymar George's Return Is Greeted With Enthusiasm.

JANISCH-M'LEAN AND SHARK-YESSNE NUPTIALS

Request Program at Pro-Cathedral Miss Pearson's Last Concert.

The first of two concerts was given last evening at the First Presbyterian church, under the auspices of the Sunday school and the Philathea class. There was a good attendance in the Sunday school rooms, where the program was given on a fern and palm-banked stage.

The return of Wally Heymar George was the magnet for a large number of those present. All her numbers, as well as her initial appearance, were enthusiastically received. Mrs. George looked charming in a dainty summer gown, and handled her violin with poise and sureness. Her solo numbers were a romance and rondo by Wieniawski, a melodie by Vieuxtemps and Rondo Capriccioso by Rehfeld. As a fact of special interest it may be mentioned that Mrs. George's husband made the violin upon which she does such clever work.

Numbers Appreciated.
In her trio numbers Mrs. George was assisted by Mrs. Florence Ter Bush, cellist, and Miss Ruth Alta Rogers, at the piano, also in Meyerbeer's inspiring "Coronation March" by Miss Madeline Miller. A "Love Song" by Flegier, "Kamenoi Ostrow," by Rubinstein, and a waltz, "A la Bien Aimee," by Edward Schutt were given with excellent effect.

Miss Agnes Mae Johnson carried away many of the honors of the occasion by her very clever rendition of Will Carleton's "Second Settler's Story," "My Ships," by Ella Wheeler Wilcox, and a little Swedish dialect number.

Shows Versatility.
In the last named Miss Johnson moved her hearers very near to tears; in the Wilcox number she showed tenderness, and in the Carleton narrative she showed dramatic promise. A part of the dialect number demonstrated that Miss Johnson is thoroughly at home in comedy as well. She is a charming reader.

Two choruses, "Praise His Name," and "Blessing and Honor," by Spohr, were well sung under the direction of Miss Ruth Alta Rogers. The solos and obligatos incidental to these were sung by Miss Elizabeth Maddox, Philip Gordon Brown and John R. Batchelor, and cleverly handled by all. Mr. Batchelor's tenor is of a rich quality. The program will be repeated this evening.

The request organ and choir recital at Trinity pro-cathedral on Sunday afternoon will be the last at which Miss Isabel Pearson, organist and choir director, will appear. Miss Pearson's marriage will take place in September, and she will leave her position at Trinity in August.

All the numbers on this program have been a part of the year's work, and have been requested on account of their success. Mrs. Wally Heymar George, the assisting soloist of the occasion, will give the violin numbers that have been requested from her part in the musical programs of the year.

The organ recital at 4:30 o'clock is as follows: "Evensong," Johnston; Andantino in D flat, Lamara; violin solo, "Adoration," Borowski, Wally Heymar George; "Serenade," Gounod; Marche religieuse (on a Theme of Handel), Gullman.

Special final monthly service, 5 o'clock; processional, "Onward Christian Soldiers," Sullivan; introtit, "Send Out Thy Light," Gounod; Hutchin's Cathedral choral service; canticles (chanted); office hymn, "Softly Now the Light of Day," Weber; violin solo, "Romance," Franz Dies, Wally Heymar George; anthem, "O How Lovely," Maker; offertory anthem, "Lovely Apear" from "The Redemption," Gounod, Miss Myrtle Hobbs and chorus; sevenfold amen, Stainer; "Stand Up for Jesus," Webb; organ postlude, "Jubilate Deo," Silver.

Miss Cordella A. Paine and Madame Blondin of Carlton and Miss Thomas of Minneapolis, who were in the city yesterday were entertained at luncheon by Mrs. Stephen H. Jones.

Apple Blossom Fete
Without the Apple Blossoms.
The annual lawn fete of Glen Avon church will be given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hunter Thursday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock. Everybody is invited to attend. The women have decided to wait no longer for the apple blossoms, which usually adorn this festival.

"A Southern Cinderella"
Well Played By Azordelyn Girls.
The three-act comedy, "A Southern Cinderella," was presented in a most clever manner at the Y. W. C. A. building last evening by the Azordelyn society. The stage setting represented a southern home. The young women acquitted themselves remarkably well, part of the credit for which must be given Mrs. Harold B. Weinstein, who had charge of the coaching.

Following the first act Miss Jessie McGhie delighted the audience with a vocal solo and also responded to an encore, with Miss Fanny Karon at the piano. The Duluth mandolin trio furnished the music for the entertainment, which included selections during the intermissions.

The cast of characters was as follows: Caroline Hawke, an adventuress, Miss Mary Simon; Katherine Hawke, a treacherous English nurse, Miss Rose Coran; Mammy Judy Johnson, a black Blue Grass widow, Miss Bessie Simon; Miss Johnnie Bell Randolph, a southern coquette, Miss Ida Berkson; Rosie Winterberry, a famous settlement worker, Miss Edith Karon; Madame Charteris, an old aristocrat, Miss Ruth Siegel; Enid Bellamy, a southern Cinderella, Miss Sadie Berkeon.

Miss Kathleen L. McLean and Gottfried M. Janisch will be quietly married at Sacred Heart cathedral this morning. Father O'Donahue officiating. Ray Clifford will be best man, and Mrs. Robert E. Donaldson matron of honor. The bride's gown is a handsome dark green silk suit with hat to match, and the bridal bouquet is a shower effect of lilies of the valley and bride roses. Mrs. Donaldson will wear blue silk and a white hat, and her corsage bouquet is of Aron Ward roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Janisch will take no wedding trip, but will go at once to their new home at 728 East Fifth street.

The wedding of Miss Sheba Yessne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Yessne, 817 East Fifth street, and Henry A. Shark took place yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the home of Rabbi M. Lefkovits, who performed the ceremony. Herman Shark of Devils Lake, N. D., brother of the bridegroom, was the only attendant. The bride's gown was of blue and white and she wore a hat to match. A wedding dinner at the Spalding hotel followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Shark left for an eastern trip and will be at home at 817 East Fifth street after June 10.

The executive board of the Missionary Union will hold a meeting at the Y. W. C. A. building Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock instead of Saturday, as previously announced. Reports from the committees in charge of the work for the summer school of missions, to be held the second week in June, will be given. Following the meeting there will be an hour of prayer for the success of the summer school of missions, to which all women interested are invited. A large number of the Superior societies are expected to attend.

"The Missionaries of the Minneapolis Branch Who Are in the Foreign Field" will be the subject of the meeting of the Missionary society of First Methodist church to be held in the church parlors this afternoon. Mrs. M. P. Burns is in charge of the program. The hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. C. S. McEachen, Mrs. Wentworth, Mrs. Richard Whiteside and Mrs. Frank Starkey. This meeting will be open to all women of the congregation and strangers will be cordially received.

The Ladies' Central auxiliary of First Presbyterian church will sew for the Children's home at a meeting to be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the church parlors.

The annual meeting and election of officers of the Ladies' Aid society of First Christian church will be held at the church this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

All of the Loyal Temperance Legion societies will form in line at 9 o'clock on Memorial day at the First Methodist church to march in the parade.
