

NINETEEN VIRGINIA MEN AND WOMEN IN COLLEGES THROUGHOUT COUNTRY

(Range Bureau of the News Tribune.)

VIRGINIA, June 9.—Virginia was well represented at higher schools of learning during the past school year. At the state university Leighton Simons and Ben Wilk of this city will receive diplomas, the former in the law department and the latter in the engineering school. Wilk is finishing a post graduate course. Prof. P. L. Johnsrud, the local agricultural teacher, will receive a diploma in the state agricultural school.

Other Virginia students at the state university this year were Enid Wilcox, Charles Lundmark, Ward Becker, Carl Hawkinson, Louis Gauthier, H. Hanson and Michael Bannen. Millicent Roskilly, Hattie Lipke, Ruth McKenzie and Gladys Parmelee attended the Duluth normal. At Rush Medical college, Gerald Roskilly attended; at St. Louis university, Dan Mahoney; Columbia university, Harry Wilk; Chicago kindergarten school, Ruth Butler; St. Thomas, Harold Cusson.