men's room of the church on Tuesday afternoon, Jan. 4, at 3 o'clock.

Misses Gertrude Berdahl and Emma Headland have just returned to this city, having spent New Year's with her aunt, Mrs. Charles Hansen, at Mapleton.

Mrs. J. McKinnon and daughter Jean, of Mapleton, are at present in Portland, Ore., where they are guests at the home of Mrs. M. E. Moran. A full attendance of the members is desired.

The Lyngblomsten society will meet Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, with Mrs. Chelness and Mrs. Lagreide, at the latter's home, No. 7 Eloran. A full attendance of the members is desired.

Miss Millie Hansen left Sunday morning for Enderlin, to resume her duties as teacher in the public school there, after spending the winter vacation with her parents, at Mapleton.

Miss Harriet Shell, Jack Farrand and William Peterson, all students at the State University of Wisconsin, who have been home for the holidays, left today for Madison, to resume their studies.

Miss Faye Whittier returned home this morning from a week's visit to Aberdeen, S. D., as the guest of Miss Marie Gamm. Miss Whittier was the guest of honor at numerous social affairs while in Aberdeen.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Campbell, of 407 Seventh avenue south, very informally entertained a small company of friends at a farewell dinner party Sunday evening, complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. F. Y. Keeble, who are moving to Minneapolis.

In a recent issue of The Forum, regarding a watch party New Year's eve, it was mistakenly announced that one Edward Hill was attending the party and Lucile Grassa, following a box party at the Grand. This was an unintentional error.

Miss Elizabeth Bailey, a student at Chevy Chase, left Saturday for Washington, D. C., after spending the holiday vacation in this city with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. F. H. Bailey. Miss Bailey will stop en route at Chicago, for a brief visit with friends.

Mrs. A. W. Cupter, 710 Tenth street south, was hostess Saturday afternoon to the Maids and Matrons members, who gathered at her home, at 8 o'clock, which red roses formed pretty table decorations, and the hours following were spent with needlework, as usual. The only guest of the club was Miss Kruger, of Minneapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert W. Haggart and Mr. Haggart's brother, George Haggart, of 2023 Robert street, Los Angeles, California, where they will spend the remainder of the winter. They will probably be in this city at the time of the Los Angeles, but will also visit San Diego, San Francisco and other points of interest in that vicinity.

As a surprise celebration of the twenty-first anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Swan Johnson, a company of about twenty-two mostly relatives gathered at their home, 328 First avenue south, Sunday evening. A pleasant social time was enjoyed with a nice lunch as a feature. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson were presented by the crowd with a beautiful gift of silver as a reminder of the delightful occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lemke, 823 Third avenue north, were host and hostess Sunday afternoon at a dinner party at which the engagement of Miss Thelma Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Anderson, president of the Equity Co-operative exchange, of this city, to the late Mr. Leonard Johnson, was celebrated. The wedding is not to take place for some time, and Miss Johnson resumed her duties at the public school today, after an over-Sunday visit with friends in this city. Covers were laid at 1 o'clock, and served at 1:30 o'clock, and white roses and pink decorations formed pretty table decorations.

Miss Maybelle Greenberg, of St. Paul, arrived in the city Tuesday evening, Jan. 4, at the Max Siegel club, where she is spending the night. Miss Greenberg is the niece of Mr. Bearman, and Mr. Siegel is an uncle of Miss Lewis. Quite a number of other out-of-town guests are expected to arrive in the city this evening, including Mr. and Mrs. Sig Harris, the latter sister of Mr. Bearman, of Minneapolis, where Mr. Harris is assistant coach at the state university; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bearman, the former a brother of Mr. Bearman; Mrs. E. O. Olson; corresponding secretary, Mrs. H. A. Prosser; and treasurer, Mrs. A. M. H. K. G. The wedding was a very pleasant and attractive affair.

The bride was the widow of John M. Cochran, formerly of Grand Forks, N. D., and at the time of his death ten years ago, a justice of the supreme court of that state. She was married to Mr. Cochran at Grand Forks, N. D., by Mr. and Mrs. Phelan, and her respective families were good friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Phelan are well known and have many friends in Fargo, and the former is one of the best known men in the state of North Dakota. Mr. Phelan was formerly a resident of this city for about fifteen years, and during part of his residence here was master mechanic of the Northern Pacific railroad. Later he engaged in the same business on an extensive scale, and went from there to Dickinson to live, and from the latter place he moved here. The friends invited to participate in the pleasures of Tuesday

JUDGE COCHRANE'S WIDOW WEDS N. DAKOTA BANKER

At the Hampshire Arms, Minneapolis, on the evening of Jan. 2, occurred the marriage of J. E. Phelan, president of the First National bank, Fargo, N. D., to Mrs. Frances M. Cochran, of Minneapolis. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Constable of Hettlinger, N. D. Only the near relatives and friends of the bride and groom were present at the wedding which was a very pleasant and attractive affair.

The bride was the widow of John M. Cochran, formerly of Grand Forks, N. D., and at the time of his death ten years ago, a justice of the supreme court of that state. She was married to Mr. Cochran at Grand Forks, N. D., by Mr. and Mrs. Phelan, and her respective families were good friends.

NOW is the most trying time of the year to test Ivory Soap for your bath and toilet. If you can use it satisfactorily during this severe weather you may be sure that there is nothing better for you to use the year around.

Try Ivory Soap the next time you bathe your hands and face. Notice the entire absence of smart and sting. Notice how the white, bubbling lather soothes as it cleanses, leaving the skin soft, smooth, refreshed.

The fact is, there is nothing in Ivory Soap that can irritate your skin. It is nothing but pure soap of the highest grade and therefore the mildest.

Another Artistic Musical Event in Honor of Mr. and Mrs. Steele

Miss Mollie Matheson and brother, Oscar Matheson, of Moorhead, were host and hostess Saturday evening at their home, 533 Fourth street south, at a delightful social gathering which was also an artistic musical treat, when they entertained a number of the musicians and music lovers of the two cities at a musical soiree in honor of Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Steele, who are leaving this week for Minneapolis, to make their home. The charming character of the program was in itself a compliment to the guests of honor, who have contributed so much musically to the two cities, and those taking part in it were most generous in their responses to entreat.

The piano had been placed in the living room, and the guests were seated in adjoining rooms, which gave all a chance to see and hear well. The rooms were attractively decorated for the occasion with a pretty profusion of plants, Christmas greens and yellow sunburst roses. Dainty souvenir programs were an attractive feature. The following program numbers were given:

Etude—Op. 25, No. 1..... Chopin	Liedestraum..... Liszt
To the Water Lily..... Grieg	My Soul..... F. J. Schuler
Ab, Love, But a Day..... Frothero	Miss Lillian Wright
Quartet—All Praise to God..... Wagner	Mrs. E. R. Wright, Miss Jennie Champine, Henry Houglum, Frank V. Steele.
Swiss Echo Song..... Bekert	Mrs. Cora Manson-Olson.
Melodrama..... Gairaud	By the Brook..... Boisdreau
Quartet—Christbiribin..... Pestalozzi	Mrs. E. R. Wright, Miss Jennie Champine, Henry Houglum, Frank V. Steele.

The quartet responded to only one encore, giving the Spinning Song from the opera Martha, which has been such a favorite with all who have heard them sing it.

Acting as charming accompanists for the vocal artists of the evening, were Mrs. F. M. Cleveland, and Misses Irene Carpenter, Lillian Wright, and Florence Turner.

The remainder of the evening was enjoyed in an informal way, and a delicious three-course lunch was served. Assisting in the serving were the Misses Anna Gietne, Beatrice Tuohi, all of Moorhead. The invited guest list, aside from those already mentioned, was as follows:

Prof. H. A. Boehmer and mother, Mrs. Sophie Boehmer; Prof. J. H. Powers, of the Moorhead normal, and wife; Dr. Max Batt, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Fullerton, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Cleveland, Arthur Olson, Miss Bertha Hagan, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Jewell, Mr. and Mrs. S. Foy, Mrs. F. J. Sucher, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Warner, Oscar Ruess, Wallace Ruess, Prof. and Mrs. E. A. Orr, and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Askegaard. Miss Katherine Fieldie, of Valley City, was the only guest present from out of town.

SOCIAL NOTES

SOCIAL EVENT AT LEEDS

The following, in which many friends of two well known Dakota young people will be interested, is taken from The Leeds News:

Mrs. F. G. Spaulding and Miss Pearl Spaulding entertained on Tuesday evening, complimentary to Miss Ruth Spaulding, of Sherwood, whose marriage to Thomas Cooper, of Minot, will take place on Jan. 7, and who is a guest at the Spaulding home. The spacious rooms of the Spaulding home were made attractive with decorations of red, green and white, poinsettias and holly being used in profusion. The entertainment was given by Mrs. Hazel Spaulding, Winnifred Horvay, Jane Renton, cousins of Miss Spaulding, assisted the hostesses in serving the guests.

STATE WEDDINGS

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Shepherd, of Crystal, on Dec. 31, when their daughter, Ida Ella, became the bride of Floyd Geaver, of Olath, Kan. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Annie Shepherd, and Cameron Shepherd acted as groomsmen. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Brindley, of the Methodist church.

Oscar Green, of Alexander, and Miss Myrtle Clodfelter, of Williston, were quietly married at the Congregational parsonage at Williston, Dec. 30. Mr. and Mrs. Green will reside on the McKenzie county homestead.

Yesterday at the Synod parsonage occurred the marriage of Thomas H. Arnold and Julia Germanson, both of Mayville. Rev. S. K. Tholhaug tying the knot. The contracting parties are well and favorably known in the western part of the county.
