THE WEATHER

Continued cold Thursday and Friday, Friday fair—this is the weather man's forecast. At 7:40 o'clock this morning it was 6 degrees above zero. For the past 16 hours the maximum temperature was 24 degrees above zero and the minimum five and one-half degrees below zero. The prevailing winds are from the northwest.

City Is Healthy Place.

Druggists in Virginia know of but an unusually small number of persons who are seriously ill and of none that are suffering from contagious diseases. This year has been an unusually good one from a health aspect and this is attributed to the fact that the sanitation conditions of the city are at their best. With the exception of a few cases of pneumonia and colds which are the result of unsettled weather conditions Virginians are very healthy.

Youngdahl In City.

E. S. Youngdahl, district representative of the Minnesota Anti-Saloon league was among last night's guests at the Ormonde.
