

CITY BRIEFS

From Monday's Daily

Funeral Largely Attended.
Several hundred persons took part in the funeral procession yesterday afternoon when Christian Johnson, who died Friday at the Jukoia Bros. boarding house was laid to rest. The services were held at the Socialist Opera, Axel Ohn, local speaker for the society, having charge. From the Opera the procession lead by the Socialist band playing a dirge, went up Chestnut street to Lake boulevard, and out to Greenwood cemetery where interment was made. Women and children as well as men marched to the cemetery. Johnson's relatives all reside in the old country.

Entertained Friends.
Rev. and Mrs. Risto Lappala of the Finnish Unitarian church entertained at their residence yesterday afternoon. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Alex Savolainen, Miss Mary Savolainen, Mrs. Henderson, sister to Mrs. Savolainen, who recently came to this country from Finland, Mayor and Mrs. Jacob Saari of Eveleth and F. W. Torvinen. The afternoon was spent socially and coffee and light refreshments were served.

Concert Well Attended.
The victrola concert given yesterday evening between 5 and 6 o'clock at the library was well attended. An exceptionally fine program had been arranged consisting of vocal and instrumental classic numbers and semi-classics. The attendance at these concerts is becoming larger at each meeting.

Entertain Tonight.
Mr. and Mrs. I. Kaner entertain this evening at a dinner and card party at their home at 201 Cedar street. Mr. and Mrs. William Kaner and Sarah, Fannie and Benjamin Kaner of Eveleth and the Misses Sarah Kusnier and Ida Kusnier of Duluth, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Solosky will be the guests.

Convalescing.
J. Findian, in the Phoenix building, who has been ill for several days of lagrippe is convalescing and is now able to sit up. Miss Gagne of Duluth, trained nurse, who has been attending him during his illness, returned last evening to her home.

Three File on Homesteads.
H. E. Branson of Littlefork, G. Tota and William Wilkinson of Kinney have made entry before United States Commissioner Otto A. Poirier on St. Louis county homesteads. All three plan to move to their land and begin the work of improving within a short time.

Two Harbors Pastor Will Preach.
Rev. Axel Strom, Two Harbors, will preach Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Swedish Methodist Episcopal church, Wyoming avenue and Spruce street. The public is invited to attend.

Purchased Northside Residence.
George Peck has purchased the residence at 502 North Virginia avenue and has moved his family and household goods there from his former residence at 311 Walnut street.

Guests at Tea.
Mayor Jacob Saari and wife of Eveleth were guests yesterday at an informal tea given at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Risto Lappala.

Entertained at Dinner.
Mr. and Mrs. S. Milavetz entertained at dinner yesterday for Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Milavetz and Mr. and Mrs. Kaner.

Looks, Slick, Fat and Sassy.
Stories that he was compelled to live on a diet of baled hay and rock salt while enjoying a rest and vacation and taking the baths at Martinsville, Ind., are denied today by U. G. Holloway, chief deputy clerk of the district court, who returned Saturday evening from a visit of several weeks at the Indiana health resort. Mr. Holloway looks slick, fat and sassy as ever, says he enjoyed his vacation and rest and is being given a warm welcome to our city by his many Virginia friends today.

Wants Stolen Keys Returned.
The person who stole a bunch of keys, on which was attached a policeman's whistle, from the rear of her residence are known, according to Police Matron Anna Fish. She wants the keys returned and says if they are not there will be trouble. Neighbors informed Mrs. Fish of the identity of the persons who took the keys from underneath the steps at the rear of her home Saturday.

Liked Potash & Perlmutter.
Charles Allison, the popular day clerk at the New Fay hotel, Saturday evening attended the performance of Potash & Perlmutter at the Lyceum theater in Duluth. Mr. Allison says its a great show and one of the best he has ever seen at the head of the lakes. The same company come to the Power theatre at Hibbing one week from tonight.

Visitors from Chisholm.
Miss Clark, principal, Miss Sweet, teacher of English, Miss Crowe, teacher of domestic science and Mr. Drotning, teacher of sciences at the Chisholm high school, were visitors here today at the local high school. No classes are being held in Chisholm schools today but work will be resumed tomorrow.

Three to Be Made Brave.
Three equires in the local lodge of Knights Pythias will have their bravery tested at the regular meeting of the lodge tomorrow evening when the rank of knight will be conferred. A lunch and smoker will follow the work of the evening.

Mrs. Haenke Returns Home.
Mrs. William Haenke, who has been a patient for some time at the More hospital at Eveleth, where she underwent a surgical operation, returned to her home at Wolf the latter part of last week.

Teaching at Iron Junction.
Miss Mary Mattson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Mattson, who is a student in the normal training department at the high school, went to Iron Junction this morning, where she will teach for a week as part of the normal training course.

Will Conduct Social Meeting.
Rev. Joneson of the Swedish Baptist church in this city, left last evening for Little Fork, where he is this afternoon conducting a social meeting at his mission. He will be away for several days.

Home For Vacation.
Miss Mary Mattson, who is on the staff of nurses at the Soudan hospital, Tower, is enjoying a vacation and is spending it visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Mattson in Virginia.

Miss Thomas Married.
Miss Janette Thomas was married yesterday at St. Cloud to Mr. O. W. Hopper, a jeweler. Miss Thomas was until a few months ago teacher in the local schools. The couple will make their home at Arlinton, Minn.

Miss Lillian Tromblay has returned to her home in Duluth after a visit at the home of Mrs. H. Hartford of Poplar street.

PERSONALS

From Monday's Daily.

H. B. Zeidler of Eveleth was a visitor here yesterday.

James Robb of Eveleth, transacted business here Saturday.

Mrs. L. Harris is visiting in Genoa today with Mrs. A. Murtagh.

Dr. C. L. Larson spent Easter in Duluth visiting with friends.

Miss Erna Carr of Aurora, was a visitor here today with friends.

H. B. Gordon of Tower, was among yesterday's guests at the Ormonde.

Frank Talus of Chisholm, was the guest of Virginia friends yesterday.

Miss Watson of Buhl, was the guest yesterday of Virginia friends.

Arthur Dearborn of Buhl, was a visitor in Virginia yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Myers of Biwabik, were Virginia visitors yesterday.

Herbert Stulberg and Irwin Stulberg visited yesterday with friends in Eveleth.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Weiner of Hemlock street were visitors at Eveleth yesterday.

Miss Margaret Burke returned at noon to Duluth to resume her studies at the Villa Scholastica.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Kaner visited yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Kaner in Eveleth.

Jack Sach of Chisholm, visited yesterday at the home of his sister, Mrs. S. Hinich of Mesaba avenue.

Coy S. Blair returned yesterday from a visit of several days at Duluth and Superior on business.

Mrs. H. C. Hancock of Superior, is a visitor at the home of her brother, Edward Banik, 208 Beech street.

Anthony Nolte of the Tredway Pharmacy, was a visitor yesterday with friends and relatives in Duluth.

Mrs. Sach, Forest Lake, was a visitor yesterday at the home of her sister, Mrs. S. Hinich of Mesaba avenue.

Rev. Hugo Thorene of the Swedish Lutheran church was a passenger to Duluth today for a visit with friends.

C. B. Gilbert, trainmaster for the Duluth, Missabe & Northern Railroad company, was a business visitor here today.

Miss Rose Lindstrom of Superior, visited during Easter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Heisel, 507 Locust street.

Jack Heisel of Superior, visited yesterday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Heisel of Locust street.

Mr. and Mrs. George King of Duluth, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Whiting, returned to their home yesterday.

Miss Hilda Hoppinen, who is attending a Commercial college at Mankato, Minn., is in the city for a visit with her sister, Mrs. F. J. Mollan.

Miss Rose Makesky returned last evening to Britt, where she teaches school, after a visit of several days with the relatives and friends in this city.

C. Lundmark, teacher at the Britt school, returned last evening to assume his duties. He has been spending the Easter vacation at the home of his parents.

Miss Margaret Cunningham, teacher in the Angola school, who has been visiting with friends in this city during the Easter holidays, returned last evening to resume her duties.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Stephan and family left yesterday morning for a visit with his parents in Duluth. Mr.

Stephan is station agent for the Mesaba Railway company.

Miss Helena Wolner, sister to Rev. Hans Wolner, pastor of the St. Paul's Episcopal church, returned to her home at noon after having spent Easter at the home of her brother.

Louis Koski, who is employed at Hibbing as linesman on the electric line being constructed from Hibbing to Nashauk, visited here yesterday at the home of his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hatch left at noon for Cleveland, Ohio, where they will make their home. Mr. Hatch has been employed in the shops at the Virginia Boiler Works.

F. J. Rinnert, who is in charge of the plant of the Gopher Heading and Manufacturing company at Cook, spent Easter at his home in Virginia, returning to Cook this afternoon.

Mrs. J. B. Ricks, who for the past month has been visiting at the home of her son, Glen Ricks, in Virginia, leaves tomorrow for her home in Chicago. Mr. Ricks will accompany her to Duluth.

Miss Theresa Hovland, who teaches at the Homestead school, returned last evening to assume her duties. She has been visiting over Easter at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hovland, of Spruce street.

L. Bellefeuille of Belle Prairie, Minn., left at noon for Cloquet after a three weeks visit at the home of his son, A. D. Bellefeuille, 406 Virginia avenue. He will visit in Cloquet with his daughter, Mrs. Samuel Doucette and with his son, Eugene Bellefeuille.

Patrick Coffey was a passenger at noon to Duluth, accompanied by his three daughters, Bertha, Margaret and Bernadine, who will resume their studies at the Villa Scholastica after having spent the Easter vacation visiting at their home.

D. E. Larson, proprietor of the Bijou theatre, left this morning for a visit of several weeks with friends and relatives in Minneapolis. Mrs. Larson went to Minneapolis several days ago and has been visiting at the home of F. Larson, Mr. Larson's brother.

E. I. Casey of Biwabik, transacted business here Saturday.

J. C. McKusick and wife of Marble, were visitors here today.

Dr. Rahala of Hibbing was a visitor here yesterday with friends.

J. H. McNiven of Chisholm was a business visitor here Saturday.

Mrs. D. M. Vermilyea of Marble is visiting with friends here today.

C. A. Mather of the City Pharmacy at Eveleth was a business visitor here Saturday.

Miss La Due, teacher of mathematics in the Hibbing high school, was a visitor in this city today.

Charles Pentilla of Two Harbors is a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Mannen, 110 Hemlock street.

Mrs. G. H. Lohnes returned yesterday from a visit of several weeks with friends and relatives at Centralia, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Wann of Cook, were visitors here Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Vanderpoel, 323 Cedar street.

Mrs. Bergman of Duluth has returned to her home after a visit of several days at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ray O'Leary of Cook street.

Miss Sawyer and Miss Frances McCole, teachers in the Keewatin schools, were guests yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Pasternacki.

R. Johnson, manager of the local store of the Gately company, is spending a week's vacation with friends and relatives at Dresser Junction, Wis.

Alfred Johnrud, student at the University of Minnesota, is visiting for a few days as the guest of his brother, Agricultural Instructor Johnrud of the local schools.

Harry Connors, agent for the Prudential Life Insurance company, was a passenger to Superior yesterday where he spent Easter visiting with relatives.

CITY BRIEFS

From Tuesday's Daily.

Conducted Meeting Here.
Major C. R. Boyd of Minneapolis, head officer of the Salvation Army corps in Wisconsin, northern Michigan and St. Louis county, who conducted a special service at the local barracks of the army last evening, returned at noon to his headquarters. Sunday school officers were commissioned and a special musical program and talks were given. The officers commissioned were Mrs. Martin, company leader, and Mrs. A. Holmes, pianist.

Will Attend Panama Exposition.
Mrs. C. G. Biggins of Cedar street, left last evening for an extended trip to the Pacific coast. She will attend the Panama Pacific exposition, stopping for a short stay at Grand Canyon, Los Angeles, and other California cities. From San Francisco Mrs. Biggins will go by steamer to Portland, Oregon, and thence through Idaho, Montana and the North Pacific northern route to Minnesota.

Social at Sincok Residence.
A public social will be given Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Captain and Mrs. W. J. Sincok, 1025 South Central avenue for the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist Episcopal church. A short business session will be held at 2:30. Mrs. Sincok will be assisted in entertaining by the Mesdames James Quayle and J. G. Milroy.

Attended Dance at Curling Rink.
Mrs. Lila Chappel and sister, were visitors here last evening from Eveleth and attended the Railroad Men's dance at the curling rink. Other Eveleth people who attended that dance were William Saari, Nestor Rauma and Paul Hintsala.

St. Paul's Guild.
A meeting of the St. Paul's Episcopal Guild will be held at the Guild hall tomorrow afternoon. All members are requested to be there at 2 o'clock. Mesdames A. C. Osborn and J. A. Howe will entertain.

Curfew Rings at 9:30.
The curfew does not ring until 9:30. This new schedule was adopted April 1. The youngsters are delighted by the additional time allowed them to play evenings.

At the Rex.
Today and tomorrow, Bethy Nansen, the royal actress, in "The Celebrated Scandal," 5 acts. The great stage success by Jose Echecary, the Spanish Shakespeare.

Opens Stove Repair Works.
G. P. Lambert of St. Paul, who was formerly connected with the Northside St. Paul Stove Repair Co., has decided to make Virginia his home and will open a stove repair works in this city. Repair parts for all makes of stoves will be carried in stock and stoves will be taken down, stored and set up at very reasonable prices. This business will be a great convenience for the people of the Range cities as repairs can be made on very short notice and the delay of sending for new parts to replace broken ones, avoided. Mr. Lambert is located at 1020 So. Mesaba avenue.

Oliver Officer Visitor.
Morris O'Donnell, for a number of years chief of the Oliver police at Stevenson, is in Virginia today to give testimony before the grand jury in the case against A. Oliverio, charged with concubinage, in bringing a young woman to the Range from New York city and living with her out of wedlock at the Stevenson location. Oliverio is in jail at Hibbing. Mr. O'Donnell says there are no indications of mining activity for this season at the Stevenson pit.

Returns to University.
Ralph Wilk, who has been spending the Easter vacation with his parents in Virginia, returned today to Minneapolis to resume his studies at the state university, where he is taking a special course in advertising and journalism. Ralph is considered one of the best newspaper reporters in the state and was for several years after graduating from the high school connected with Virginia and Eveleth newspapers. He will be with the Enterprise upon his return to Virginia at the end of the college year in June.

Brother and Sister Reunited.
Mrs. Catherine McPhail of Ewen, Mich., and her brother, William McLean of 605 First street, separated for 18 years were reunited in Virginia Friday when Mrs. McPhail came to Virginia for a visit with her brother. They had lost track of each other until recently when Mrs. McPhail wrote a letter to Chief of Police Gately which resulted in the address of her brother being forwarded to her. Mr. McLean was formerly employed on the Virginia police force.

Presbyterian Ladies' Aid.
Mesdames F. Carlson, William Brenner, J. P. Denyes and G. A. Capstick, will entertain the Presbyterian Ladies' Aid tomorrow afternoon at 2:20, at the home of Mrs. Carlson, 311 Lake boulevard.

Licensed to Wed.
Charles Karlund and Miss Hilma Ahola, of Virginia, were given a marriage license at the office of Chief Deputy Clerk of Court Holloway this morning.

Biwabik People Attended Dance.
Miss Nell Riley, Miss Ida Guss, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Christian, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Crocker, all of Biwabik, attended the Railroad Men's dance at the curling rink last evening.

To Attend Brown Mandot Fight.
William Geoghan, Al Brinker and Edward Malley, all employed by the Mesaba Railway company, will attend the Brown-Mandot fight Friday.

Ill of Lagrippe.
Dr. F. E. Thomas of Central avenue, is ill at his home with an attack of lagrippe.

Ill of Lagrippe.
Mrs. Morris Shandling of Maple street, is confined to her home with an attack of lagrippe.

Employed at Stulberg's.
Victor Hendrickson, formerly employed on the Stulberg Bros. sales force, has accepted a position there and has assumed his duties.

D. F. Foley, chief of the Oliver police, is a Duluth visitor on business today.

V. P. Marsh of International Falls, was a guest at the Ormonde hotel today.

Mike Lester of Gheen, attended to matters of business in this city last evening.

Dressmaking done at 226 E. Chestnut street. Phone 5862. Prices reasonable.

William Northey of McKinley, attended the dance last evening at the curling rink.

John Seaman of Gilbert attended the Railroad Men's dance at the curling rink last evening.

Charles Kinney has returned from a visit of several days with relatives and friends in Duluth.

R. J. Koerner, of the Virginia Floral company, was a business visitor at Hibbing yesterday.

Al Stewart of Duluth was a visitor here last evening and attended the dance at the curling rink.

F. E. Myers of Biwabik, was a Virginia visitor this morning on his way to St. Paul on business.

Miss Helia Johnson of Duluth is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Johnson of the Northside.

R. Rymer of Milwaukee, who is attending to matters of business here, attended the ball at the curling rink last evening.

Joseph Austin and Judge Freeman of Chisholm were in the city this morning to attend the opening of the district court term.

Nick Constantine of Eveleth, has taken his father to St. Paul to receive treatment for rheumatism at the mud baths near there.

Moses Helmer, well known Chisholm logging contractor, is a Virginia visitor today. He is interested in a case before the district court.

Floyd Williams and William Henderson of Duluth, arrived in the city today to take positions with the Great Northern Power company.

Miss Maud Binney of Gilbert, was among the visitors here from that village last evening and attended the dance at the curling rink.

John Sheehan of Genoa, timekeeper at the Genoa mine office, was a visitor here last evening. He attended the Railroad Men's dance.

Rev. Father O'Gorman of Biwabik, and nephew Richard Duffy, were visitors here yesterday at the home of Fred Desonia, Hemlock street.

Mrs. T. Woolpy of Duluth, returned to her home last evening after a visit of several at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. Myers of Spruce street.

Mrs. J. Goad of Chisholm, is a visitor here today at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Vanderbloom of Mesaba avenue. She is a sister of Mrs. Vanderbloom.

James Lavick has returned from Duluth where he was called several days ago by the serious illness of his brother, who was reported today as convalescing.

Miss Gertrude Simons left at noon to resume her studies at Macalester college after visiting during the Easter vacation with her brothers, Leighton and E. N. Simons.

James Montague returned yesterday afternoon to his home in Crookston after a visit of several days at the home of his grandparents, Judge and Mrs. R. J. Montague.

Miss Ruth McKenzie returned last evening to Duluth, where she is attending the Normal school, after a visit during the Easter holidays at the home of her parents.

Miss Margaret Gleason of Biwabik, teacher in a rural school out of Eveleth, visited here yesterday on her way to resume her duties after spending the Easter vacation at her home.

Miss Lucille Montague, who attends the Duluth Normal school, returned to the Zenith City last evening after having spent the Easter vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Montague.

P. C. Wright and little son and daughter, Walter and Hazel, were visitors here yesterday and returned to their home in Duluth last evening. They were guests at the home of Sixtus Lindahl in this city, and at the home of D. E. Burley in Mountain Iron.

B. Leopard, principal in the Roosevelt building, has returned from a visit of several days at St. Cloud, Minn. He attended the wedding of Miss Janette Thomas to O. W. Hopper, a jeweler from Arlington, Minn. Miss Thomas was formerly a teacher in the local schools.

after the regular meeting of the Knights of Pythias and lunch was served. During the meeting three candidates had conferred upon them the rank of Knight. The meeting was well attended.

Will Represent Local Sunday School.
Miss Nathalie Curtis left today for Brainerd to represent the Sunday school of the local Methodist Episcopal church at the state convention to be held Friday, Saturday and Sunday. She will visit with friends at Duluth today on her way.

Will Be Interned at Asbury.
Gerald Roskilly, who has been attending the Rush Medical college, left last evening for Minneapolis, where he will work for internship at Asbury hospital. He has been visiting at the home of his parents in this city for several days.

Recovering From Illness.
Eugene Benoit, who has been employed at the Fitger block barber shop is down town today for the first time in three weeks. Mr. Benoit has been ill and confined to his home, but is regaining strength.

Was Odin Lodge Met.
A regular meeting of the members of the Wasa Odin lodge was held last evening in the Northpole hall on Central avenue. After the business meeting lunch was served. The meeting was well attended.

Visited With Parents.
Alderman E. F. Murray returned yesterday from Huron, S. D., where he was called several days ago by the illness of his father E. A. Murray. He left his father much improved and out of danger.

Gilbert Club Dance.
Invitations have been received in Virginia for a dancing party to be given by the Gilbert club at Gilbert Friday evening. Dahl's orchestra will furnish the music.

Arranging for Bnai.
The Jewish Ladies Aid of Temple Bnai Abraham are arranging for a dancing party which will be held May 2 and will be one of the events of the season in Virginia.

Will Entertain Deborahs Club.
Miss Beatrice Kanter will entertain the Deborahs club at her home at 1031 South Central avenue next Sunday afternoon.

At the Rex.
Today, Bethy Nansen, the royal actress, in "The Celebrated Scandal," 5 acts. Don't fail to see this great feature and see what gossip does.

Opening Dinner.
A special opening dinner will be given at the Holland hotel next Sunday from 11 a. m. to 3 p. m. A seven course dinner will be served and the menu will consist of American and Chinese dishes. A fine musical program is being prepared by Prof. O. R. Olson, whose orchestra will furnish the music which will be published in the Enterprise Saturday.

First Auto on Sand Lake Road.
The first automobile traversed the new Sand Lake road yesterday when City Engineer Johnson, County Commissioner Pentilla and others drove out as far as the gravel pit. Work on this highway is progressing rapidly. It was begun by the city of Virginia, who have maintained a considerable force there for several weeks.

Will Preach Baccalaureate Sermon.
Rev. Hans Wolner, pastor of St. Paul's Episcopal church, was selected by the senior class at the high school to preach the baccalaureate sermon this year. The sermon will be delivered at 3 o'clock Sunday, June 6. Rev. Wolner was notified of the decision this afternoon and accepted.

Former Newspaper Man Here.
Harvey Grimmer, former newspaper man, now connected with the Fritzcross Printing company of St. Cloud, was a business visitor here today. His name is being favorably mentioned for the position of United States marshal.

Spoke On University Life.
Harry Prinbow, freshman at the University of Minnesota spoke yesterday at the high school on life at that institution. He told of university life from the viewpoint of a first year man. His talk was interesting to the pupils.

Gave Illustrated Lecture.
Coach Alfred Jackson at the high school this morning gave a lecture before the pupils on the high jump. It was illustrated with stereopticon slides. These lectures are being given to create interest in athletic field work.

Is Principal of Northside School.
Miss Mills, who has been teacher in the Seventh grade at the Roosevelt school, has been promoted to principal of the Northside school and has resumed her new duties. Her place at the Roosevelt has been taken by Miss Helen Goodrich of Anoka, Minn.

Gheen Pair Under Arrest.
Donald L. Fleur and Chas. Fields of Gheen were brought to the city this morning on a charge of carrying concealed weapons preferred against them by John Long of that place. They appeared before Judge Carey in municipal court and both entered a plea of not guilty. As Mr. Long was not present at the hearing today the case was continued until Monday morning.

Conferring Rank of Knight.
A smoker was held last evening

after the regular meeting of the Knights of Pythias and lunch was served. During the meeting three candidates had conferred upon them the rank of Knight. The meeting was well attended.

Will Represent Local Sunday School.
Miss Nathalie Curtis left today for Brainerd to represent the Sunday school of the local Methodist Episcopal church at the state convention to be held Friday, Saturday and Sunday. She will visit with friends at Duluth today on her way.

Will Be Interned at Asbury.
Gerald Roskilly, who has been attending the Rush Medical college, left last evening for Minneapolis, where he will work for internship at Asbury hospital. He has been visiting at the home of his parents in this city for several days.

Recovering From Illness.
Eugene Benoit, who has been employed at the Fitger block barber shop is down town today for the first time in three weeks. Mr. Benoit has been ill and confined to his home, but is regaining strength.

Was Odin Lodge Met.
A regular meeting of the members of the Wasa Odin lodge was held last evening in the Northpole hall on Central avenue. After the business meeting lunch was served. The meeting was well attended.

Visited With Parents.
Alderman E. F. Murray returned yesterday from Huron, S. D., where he was called several days ago by the illness of his father E. A. Murray. He left his father much improved and out of danger.

Gilbert Club Dance.
Invitations have been received in Virginia for a dancing party to be given by the Gilbert club at Gilbert Friday evening. Dahl's orchestra will furnish the music.