

M'GREGOR, MINN.

M'GREGOR, Minn.—Miss Floy Montee left Monday for Aitkin, where she will attend school this summer.

Harry Hahakahivich of Little Pine, New York, was in town on business Tuesday.

Miss Frances Spencer of Barnum is visiting at the Jordan home.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Spicola of Lawler passed Sunday with Mrs. C. A. Maddy.

C. A. Maddy, county commissioner of this district, returned Thursday from Aitkin after a tiresome and strenuous debate on the question of a county sanitarium.

The grading of state road No. 2 is once more under the surveillance of W. Gorsuch. It will be ready for travel in a short time.

Mrs. J. I. Walker visited at the Maddy home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Walker, and daughter, of Glentana, Mont., are visiting at the home of Joe Clark.

Some of the McGregor young folks enjoyed the Kimberly dance Saturday night. Among those attending were Messers Clarence and Edward Redman, Edward Bobbet, Dewey Dewey Rice, Albert Bobbet, Joe Memmola and Laurence Memmola.

Mrs. Jevene will lecture at the East Lake church Sunday.

Miss Irene Dennison and Welsely Pringle were quietly married last Monday.

Miss Mayme Jordan and Miss Frances Spencer visited in Aitkin Sunday.

Jack Mondschine was in McGregor Tuesday on business.

Carl Bobbet is in McGregor for the summer.

Charles Wilson was a McGregor caller Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hayes of St. Paul are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Deneen.

A new federal building is being erected in McGregor.

Miss Helen Maddy returned Sunday from a visit in Grand Rapids and other range towns.

Charles Rowles has gone on an extended trip through the east. He will visit in Baltimore and Washington, D. C., several weeks.

Dr. A. C. Tanner was a Pallsade visitor last Tuesday.

Mrs. Oscar Johnson of Cromwell visited Mrs. Elmer Hollberg Monday.

Mrs. E. Hollberg is recovering from a severe attack of quinsy.