

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST TOLD IN PARAGRAPHS

EVELETH, MINN.

EVELETH, Minn.—Misses Laura Brown and Mary Mills of the local telephone office, were Virginia visitors Wednesday.

Mrs. E. E. Schroeder, past grand chief of the Degree of Honor lodge of St. Paul, is a visitor in the city in the interests of the local lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Talbot of Aurora, autoed to Eveleth this week to visit Mr. and Mrs. Ted Banks and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hatch.

Mrs. William Brown and little daughter of Hibbing, were week-end guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Viger of Fayal-road.

The Eveleth high school graduated a class of 27, one of the largest in the history of the local school, Thursday night, in the auditorium of the local high school. The names of the graduates follow: Gertrude Janet Bjornaa, Josephine Lucile Burke, Esther Marie Carlson, Margaret A. Donavon, Sadie Faldman, John Arthur Forsman, Arthur E. Helms, Louise A. Jakich, Mamie S. Kentta, Ernest William Lampi, Matthew Lerant, Ethel Marie McDermott, Florence Margaret Maxwell, Lillian S. Mattson, Mauritz W. Nordstrom, Atry Herbert Peterson, John W. Peterson, Sara Grace Rabinowitz, Harry S. Roberts, Mayme S. Russella, Arthur Richard Saari, Anna Sannicola, Florence Shappiro, Willard Shea, Aileen Claire Corbett.

D. W. Freeman attended to business at Virginia the first of the week.

Axel Peterson, "chef" at the Durveyer's car, has joined the militia and left Sunday with the other members of the company for Lake City.

The ladies of the local Degree of Honor lodge entertained the public Wednesday afternoon at an ice cream social which was well attended.

Captain James Corbett of Old Mesaba, visited here with his family over Sunday, returning to his duties Monday.

Mrs. O. B. Austin and daughter, Barbara, visited the first of the week at Duluth with Mrs. J. J. MacDonald and Mrs. James Fraser.

Mrs. William Malloy is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Nelson of Minneapolis, for a couple of weeks and from there will go to Stillwater to visit with Mr. Malloy's parents. She will be accompanied home by Mrs. Malloy who will visit her sons, William and Frank of the Malloy hardware store.

Dan MacDonald, a popular local resident, left Sunday for Nova Scotia, Canada, where he will make his home.

F. R. Campbell transacted business matters at Hibbing several days this week.

Ed Cole passed the week end at Ely with friends.

Mrs. Paul Kuehn of Chicago is in the city visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Robb and other friends.

Otto Nelson, who has the contract for the excavating for the basement of the office building of the Home Electric and Heating company, has about completed his work. A new building, 22x26 and two stories of pressed brick will be erected.

Mayor Jacob Saari was a Duluth business visitor the first of the week.

Mrs. S. A. Meade and son, Merton, is a week-end guest of her mother, Mrs. James Fraser of Duluth.

H. Wisted was a Virginia business visitor Wednesday.

James Murphy of Minneapolis was a week-end visitor.

H. Henning of Fon Du Lac, Wis., passed several days in the city on business and is a guest at the Glode hotel.

Mrs. Morris Nathanson visited Tuesday at Virginia with friends and relatives.

Miss Fanny Koskela of Isphening, Mich., is a guest of Miss Caline Sarri.

BARROWS, MINN.

BARROWS, Minn.—Alfred Quackenbush of Smithville, Minn., is passing a few days here looking after his business interests and property.

Miss Sadie Davis left for Duluth Saturday to attend the term of summer school at the Normal.

John Klau rented a poolhall and rooming-house in Larch and moved his family there the last of the week, Marcus Grande doing the hauling.

The heavy frost last week did considerable damage to corn and other crops in this part of Crow Wing county.

Mr. Ed Granstad, one of the prosperous farmers of Crow Wing township, was a business caller the last of the week.

H. Baldwin moved into the bungalow at the mine this week.

Stanley Gulan's son who was operated on Monday for appendicitis is improving.

Those having logs sawed at the Crow Wing mill are hauling their lumber home this week. Among them are F. Ott, F. B. Anderson and Pete Anderson.

The "Clover Leaf Community club" met at R. J. Wetherbee's farm Tuesday. A large crowd was present. The county agent, Mr. Lake, was out of the state. It was ladies' day and the subjects under discussion was canning and preserving. A number of excellent receipts for canning and preserving were given, after which lunch was served. The president, R. J. Wetherbee spoke about the federation of the farmers' clubs of the county and said they would have a union picnic at Bay Lake July 16.

Ex-Sheriff Reid has moved to his farm south of town in St. Mathias township.

John Borden and wife, also his son and wife from Buffalo Lake, Randall county, Minn., autoed up from there the first of the week and are visiting Mr. Borden's sister, Mrs. Francis Maddoch. They expect to return the first of the week.

Miss Lily Kuntson who has passed the last year in Dillon, Mont., returned Friday and is visiting at F. O. Young's for a few days before returning to her home in St. Cloud.

Mrs. Steve Swartout and family of Palisade, Minn., are visiting her father, Levi Bailey this week.

Pete Shontall returned from western Canada this week and is visiting his sisters, Mrs. L. T. James and Mrs. W. R. Davies.

Buffalo Creek Farmers club met at William Miller's Wednesday. The meeting was held late as the town board was letting a contract to grade a piece of the St. Mathias road.

The four-legged chicken hatched last month at P. B. Anderson's farm, is still doing well and growing almost as fast as the balance of the brood.