

Out-of-Town People Married at St. Paul's.

Miss Ida Belle Widger and Elda A. Wilson of Shovel Lake, Minn., were married at 7 o'clock last night at St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal church by Rev. A. W. Ryan, in the presence of intimate friends. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson left for a trip to Mille Lacs, after which they will make their home at Shovel Lake.

Greysolon Chapter Has Picnic Luncheon.

Fifty members of Greysolon chapter, D. A. R., enjoyed a picnic luncheon on the lawn of Mrs. W. A. McGonagle's home, 9 Oxford street, yesterday afternoon. A basket luncheon was served at small tables placed about the lawn. Garden flowers were the decorations. The annual reports were given during the afternoon and an outline of the program for next year was discussed. Mrs. Charles S. Sargent, who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. McGonagle, told of the relief work in Paris, in which she is deeply interested.

Members of the senior class at Central high school will meet at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning in the assembly hall of the school to arrange for an all-day outing, which it is planned to have the first part of next week.

Mrs. Edward MacDowell, widow of the American composer, who will give a recital at the Little theater Saturday night at 8 o'clock, will be the guest of Mrs. Stella Prince Stocker, 1014 East Second street, during her stay at the city.

The meeting of the Woman's Rotary club, which was to have been held last night at the library club-room, was postponed until further notice, owing to the absence from the city of a few of the members.

The wedding of Miss Alice E. Ford, daughter of Mrs. M. R. Ford of Phillips, Wis., and Cephas A. Patrie took place at 9 o'clock yesterday morning at Sacred Heart cathedral. Rev. Hugh A. Floyd read the service. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Joseph Ford of Wausau, Wis. Miss Anastasia Ford of Phillips, Wis., was her sister's bridesmaid, and William McCoy of Phillips, was best man.

The bride wore a white messaline gown with a tulle veil. She wore a corsage bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid was crowned in pink crepe de chine and wore a pink picture hat. She carried an arm bouquet of pink roses.

A wedding breakfast for the members of the family followed the ceremony at the future home of the bride and bridegroom in the San Marco apartments.

The out-of-town guests were the bride's mother and sister, Mrs. M. E. Ford and Miss Gladys Della Ford of Phillips.

The wedding of Miss Kathryn Ames Gallagher, daughter of Mrs. James J. Gallagher of Pawtucket, R. I., and Thomas Joseph Hughes took place at 9 o'clock yesterday morning at St. Clement's church. Rev. Augustine Brockmeyer read the service. Miss Katherine Towey of Stewartville, Minn., attended the bride and William J. Heffern was best man.

The bride wore her traveling suit of sand color with hat to match and a corsage of bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid wore a suit of the same shade with a corsage bouquet of pink sweet peas.

A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Francis S. Gallagher, 2610 West Fourth street, covers being laid for the members of the two families. Pink Killarney roses were the table decorations.

Mr. and Mrs. Hughes left for a trip. They will make their home at 113 Devonshire street after July 1.

Social Gatherings For Miss Thurston.

Mrs. F. J. Patton, 1607 East Fourth street, will entertain at a picnic this afternoon in honor of Miss Adelaide Thurston, the guest of her sister, Mrs. F. E. Parker, 1622 Jefferson street.

Miss Thurston will be honor guest at a beach supper tonight on Park Point, the party to consist of 12 persons.

Mrs. Ernest Jacobi, 1510 East Superior street, will be hostess at a bridge party Friday night for Miss Thurston, and Mrs. E. F. Burg, 1407 East Superior street, will entertain at dinner Saturday night in her honor.

Bridges Planned for Miss Kirkpatrick.

Miss Gertrude Kirkpatrick of Oshkosh, Wis., the guest of Miss Mary Bradbury, 1028 East Second street, has been guest of honor at several social affairs.

Miss Helen Evered, 5620 West Sixth street, will entertain at three tables of auction bridge this afternoon.

Miss Edith Mullin, 2115 East Superior street, will be hostess at a similar affair Friday afternoon, the game to be played at seven tables.

Miss Kirkpatrick, Miss Bradbury and Miss Mullin were classmates at Waterman hall, Sycamore, Ill.

The regular meeting of J. B. Culver corps No. 69, W. R. C., will take place at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at Memorial hall, courthouse. A large attendance is requested as reports will be given by the delegates to the recent convention at St. Paul. Mrs. S. L. Mires of Brule, Wis., formerly of Duluth and a member of the corps, will be present at this meeting. Mrs. Louella Davidson of Northfield, Minn., past department inspector and senior aid, will also be a guest at the meeting.

Miss Ida Berkson, 613 East First street, will entertain the members of the Osewa club tonight, the affair to be given in honor of Miss Ida Fagelson, whose marriage to Morton Azins will take place Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Flynn, 1009 East Third street, have as their guest for the summer their daughter, Mrs. Dick Shock of St. Louis, formerly Miss Beatrice Flynn of this city. Mrs. Shock will join her the latter part of July for a month's visit.

Roland Bromund, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Bromund, 9 East Fourth street, has returned from Chicago, where he attended the school of dental surgery at Northwestern university.

Mrs. Cortland Gregory, 2510 West Second street, has returned from a two weeks' visit to relatives at Mason, Wis.

Miss Pearl Leary of Minocqua, Wis., is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. Mitchell, 2214 West Third street, for a few weeks. Miss Elizabeth Leary of Chisholm who is attending the summer session at the normal school, was the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Mitchell Sunday.

Mrs. Paul Thompson, Mrs. Charles Humbert, Mrs. E. H. Woodruff and Mrs. William F. Moore will entertain the women of First M. E. church at a missionary tea in the church parlors this afternoon.

Miss Selma Oreckovsky, 11 East Third street, has gone to Minneapolis, where she will enter the summer school at the state university.

Miss Evangeline Ettinger, 308 Eighteenth and One-half avenue West, and Miss Corean Baker, 5511 Grand avenue, left last night on the Tionesta for a few weeks' visit at Houghton and Calumet, Mich.

"Reulah," in six acts, at the Zelta Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur C. Case and daughter, Mildred, of Woodland, have left for Minneapolis, where they will make their home.

Mrs. F. H. Connor, 4527 Cambridge street, has as her guest her mother, Mrs. James Casselman of Calumet, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Mitchell and Miss Constance Mitchell, 1102 East First street, will return today from Northampton, Mass., where Miss Mitchell was a member of the graduating class at Smith college.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bridenthal and daughter, Louise, 1429 East Fourth street, who have been in Chicago for a week, have returned.

Miss Josephine Carey, 5131 London road, has gone to Albert Lea, where she will attend the convention of the Minnesota Music Teachers' association, which convened yesterday.

Mrs. Stewart G. Collins and daughter, Estelle, 424 Woodland avenue, who have been visiting in Minneapolis for three weeks, have returned.

Mrs. B. E. Baker and sons, Phillip and James, 2231 East Third street, who have been in Boston and other eastern cities, have returned.

Dr. A. L. McDonald and Mrs. McDonald, 1930 Jefferson street, left yesterday on a freighter for a 10 days' lake trip.

Miss Irma Levin, 117 West Third street, returned yesterday on the Noronic from Cleveland, where she has been visiting since leaving Chevy Chase school at Washington. She was accompanied by Miss Edith Halle, who will be her guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Payne of the Granville apartments have left for a two months' stay at Pettibone lodge at Detroit, Minn.

Dr. C. E. Parsons left last night for a several weeks' trip to the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Letz of Ravenswood, Chicago, are visiting their daughters, Miss Carrie Letz and Miss Emma Letz, at the Spalding hotel.

Miss Elizabeth Dunn and niece, Josephine, 102 West Fifth street, have left for an extended eastern visit. They will stop at Detroit, Buffalo and New York.