

EVELETH GRADUATES TO TEACH SCHOOL IN MINNESOTA CITIES

EVELETH, July 26.—The coming school year will show an increase in the number of graduates of the Eveleth high school who are acting as efficient teachers in grade and high schools throughout the state.

Miss Esther Ferris will continue her domestic science instruction at Crookston, and Inga Bjorness, graduate of Downer college at Milwaukee will have a similar class at Rushford. Pauline and Esther Rabinowitz, Teckla Jackson, Mollie Donovan, Allee Springer and Cora Williams again will hold positions in the local schools.

Irene Davey will be an instructor at Chisholm, and Anna Sholund and Flossie Noel will teach grade classes at Virginia. Irene Campbell will be at Two Harbors and Margaret Corbett at Burnett. Ida Ellsworth will be located at Bird Island, Adeline Rohrer at Elk River and her sister, Clara, at Gilbert. Miss Ruth Jessmore, graduate of the University of Minnesota, expects to teach high school classes at Marble.
