

HURLEY, WIS.

HURLEY, Wis.—Mrs. Owen Sullivan has returned from an extended visit with relatives at Morowville, Kans.

James Golden has accepted a position as chemist with Lerch Bros. at Hibbing, Minn.

Rev. George B. Thompson of the M. E. church returned the first of the week from Eau Claire, where he attended the west Wisconsin district convention of M. E. church.

J. W. Davis, chairman of the county board, has appointed Mrs. A. L. Ruggles, Hurley; Mrs. Jay P. Rogers of Kimbal, and John T. Kendrigan of Mercer, members of the county committee on common schools. The committee appointed Miss Agnes Boyington supervising teacher of the county.

Mr. and Mrs. James Meade accompanied their daughter, Hyacinthe, to Duluth Saturday. Miss Meade will attend school in Duluth this year.

John Lucia and Ednard Gibbons are attending the fair at Minneapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. James McGinley of Stevens Point are guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. Lenihan.

Mrs. George Porter, who has been a guest at the Dressely home, returned this week to her home at Antigo.

Miss Ida Adams of Ontonagon, Mich., who has been the guest of Mrs. Lalond for several weeks, returned Thursday to her home.

Special services were held this week at Hurley Jewish synagogue.

Nels Dueholm and Fred Hawn returned this week from a business trip to Duluth.