

Announcements for Class Instruction at Y. W. C. A.

The class schedule at the Y. W. C. A. today will be as follows: Registrations for dressmaking, 10 a. m.; "Life of Christ," 7 to 8 p. m.; beginners' French, 7 to 8 p. m.; advanced French, 8 to 9 p. m.; English for foreigners, 8 to 10 p. m.; etiquette class, free, 8:15 p. m. The classes in French are taught by Prof. Julian M. Romieaux and are open to both men and women. A course of studies in the "Life of Christ," illustrated by works of art is being conducted by Miss Ida M. Dodd, industrial secretary.

Mrs. John MacLeod will give her first lecture of a course of 10 studies from the Bible at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning at the association building. The association chorus rehearsals on Thursday nights from 7 to 8 o'clock are conducted by Miss Faith Helen Rogers and are open to all members of the association. The chorus will make its first public appearance within a few weeks and for this reason every member is urged to attend the rehearsal tomorrow night.

Mrs. C. S. Mitchell spoke on "Modern Fiction" before the members of the Book Review class last night, 29 young women being in attendance.

Mrs. Theo Lieberman and little son, Leonard, of Ironwood, Mich., who have been visiting Mrs. Lieberman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Salnovitz, 616 East Sixth street, and relatives on the range for six weeks, have returned home.

Mrs. Frank M. Woodfill and daughter, Virginia, of Two Harbors, who arrived in Duluth last night from a month's visit in Cleveland, will return to their home today.
