

Many Phases of Work at Y. W. C. A.

Miss Elizabeth Porter, of the normal school, read a number of Alfred Noyes' poems before the Book Review class at the Y. W. C. A. Monday night. At the next meeting of the class Mrs. Charles S. Mitchell will speak on Modern Fiction.

The hour for Miss Shepard's Bible class in "Old Testament Characters" has been changed from Monday to Wednesday at 7 o'clock. This class is open to young women who have had little or no Bible study and who have not had time to prepare a lesson outside of class.

Miss Dodd, association industrial secretary, will open her class in the "Life of Christ," illustrated by pictures, Wednesday at 7 o'clock. It is hoped a large number of young business women will register in one of these classes. The early hour will permit them to make other engagements.

On Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock young women who wish to memorize the 500 Bible verses suggested by Mrs. Helen Gould Shepard to earn a Bible, presented by her, are invited to meet with Miss Dodd at the association.

The association Halloween costume party will be given Friday night, Oct. 29, and all members are requested to reserve the date.

The etiquette class will meet tonight at 8 o'clock. Miss Harret F. Glendon, instructor in domestic science at the normal school, will speak on the etiquette in the dining room. Members of the association are invited to attend this open class.

Mrs. John McLeod meets her class in a "Course of Ten Studies from the Bible" on Thursday mornings at 10 o'clock in the assembly room. Registrations may be made for entrance to this class by applying at the general association office or speaking to any of the following women: Mrs. W. C. Agnew, Mrs. F. H. White, Mrs. George H. Claypool, Mrs. Brewer Mattocks, Mrs. T. W. Hoopes, Mrs. H. S. Mahon, Mrs. F. W. DeVey, Mrs. E. D. Field, Mrs. E. T. Hughes, Mrs. W. H. Cole or Miss Myra Germond.

Wednesday's Class Schedule.

"Old Testament Characters," 7-8 p. m.; "Life of Christ," 7-8 p. m.; beginners' French, 7-8 p. m.; basketry, (registration), 7-9 p. m.; advanced French, 8-9 p. m.; English for foreigners, 8-10 p. m.; etiquette, 8:15-9 p. m.

A delightful hour is passed each Thursday night from 7 to 8 o'clock when the chorus class rehearses for some special events to be held a little later in the year. The class is under the direction of Miss Faith Helen Rogers.

The members of the Osewa club met at the home of Miss Minnie Brusso, 412 Fourth avenue East, last night and elected the following officers: Miss Charlotte Azine, president; Miss Minnie Brusso, secretary; Miss Dora Simon, treasurer. The club meets every Tuesday night for a social gathering. Miss Ida Berkson, 613 East First street, will be hostess at the next meeting.

Siljan lodge No. 292, Ladies of the Vasa order, will have its regular meeting tonight in Eagles' hall, 418 West Superior street. All members are requested to be present as this will be the last meeting in the old hall, the next meeting to take place in Camels' hall, 12 East Superior street.