

LAKE BREEZES

Will Deliver Address.

"Drygoods," will be the subject of a talk by Bentley P. Neff before the Minnesota Retail Merchants' association at the Ryan hotel in St. Paul this afternoon. The convention is a general meeting of all merchants of the state. Mr. Neff will return tomorrow morning.

New Company Incorporated.

Capitalized at $250,000, shares $100, articles of incorporation for the Shaw-nut company yesterday were filed with Charles Calligan, register of deeds. The company will engage in a real estate and mining business at Duluth. Incorporators: William Prindle, E. M. Dunbar and T. T. Hudson. Board of directors: Louis Rouchlean, Joseph Chapman and W. A. Durst of Minneapolis; Russell Dyson of Chicago and William Prindle of Duluth.

Asks $5,160 Damages.

For injuries alleged to have been sustained by himself and one of his horses, and the wrecking of his wagon in an automobile collision, Oscar Lee yesterday began suit in district court against Charles Shogran and Rudolph Shogran for $5,160 damages. He alleges carelessness on the part of Rudolph Shogran in the operation of his car, on West Superior street near Tenth avenue West, Oct. 20, 1914.

Five Hens Stolen.

Frank Walker, 524 East Eleventh street, is poorer by five Plymouth Rock hens. Yesterday he told police of the theft and of unusually large footsteps which led to a well-traveled thoroughfare were found. The police are looking suspiciously at men whose feet are particularly big.

Degree Team to Entertain.

The Uniform degree team of the Gustaf Adolphus lodge of the order of Vasa will give an entertainment at 8 o'clock tonight in Eagles' hall, 428 West Superior street. A literary and musical program will be given and following it a basket social and dance. O. W. Olson, Henry G. Lavick and A. L. V. Ahlen are to give talks.