

COPS BREAK UP GAY

"PENNY ANTE" PARTY

"Penny ante," played on the stairs of the Matt Carpenter school entrance resulted in the arrest of Morris Greenblatt and the frightening of a score of others yesterday.

The game was in full swing when Sergeant William Miller and Detective William Meade swooped down on the players. All, except Greenblatt who was caught, fled in all directions. He pleaded guilty in municipal court and was fined $10 and costs. A total of 31 cents was found in the "pot," by the policemen.
