

KANSAS CITY RABBI TO SPEAK HERE TONIGHT

Rabbi Samuel M. Cohen of Kansas City, Mo., representative of the United Synagogue, an organization of the orthodox Jewish congregations of the country, will speak at 8 o'clock tonight at Adas Israel synagogue, Third avenue East and Third street. His talk will treat of work done by the United Synagogue in the past and of work it intends to do in the future. His topic will be, "The Present Need of Judaism."

A special meeting of the congregation will be held following the talk.
