

Miss Rachlin Is Bride of W. Weizer

Miss Florence Eva Rachlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Rachlin, 425 East Fifth street, became the bride of William Weizer of Bellaire, Ohio, at an impressive ceremony at 6 o'clock last night at the Talmud Torah club rooms. Rev. W. Kissin read the service in the presence of relatives. Mrs. Julius Goldberg of Minneapolis, aunt of the bride, was the matron of honor, and Miss Sarah Rachlin, the bride's sister, was the maid of honor. Miss Sarah Miller of Eau Claire, Wis., Miss Gusta Cohen of Bellaire, Ohio, and Miss Mae Rocklin were the bridesmaids. Benjamin Gingold was best man, and Julius Goldberg was the bridegroom's other attendant. Palms were used to form the aisle for the bridal party. Miss Sadie Gingold, pianist, played the "Lohengrin" bridal chorus as a processional, and Mendelssohn's wedding march as a recessional.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore an exquisite brocaded ivory satin gown with pearl and tulle trimming. A dainty shower bouquet of lilies of the valley was attached to the court train. Her long tulle veil was edged with opalescent trimming and arranged about her hair with lilies of the valley. She wore a short face veil. The bridal bouquet was a shower of orchids and lilies of the valley. The matron of honor was gowned in gray and rose satin and she wore a corsage bouquet of rose sweet peas. The maid of honor wore a quaint girl's dress of blue flowered taffeta trimmed with lace and rosebuds. She carried a shower bouquet of pink Killarney roses and sweet peas.

Miss Miller's gown was of white chiffon over pink taffeta and she carried an arm bouquet of sweet peas. Miss Cohen was gowned in green accordion pleated chiffon trimmed with pink rosebuds and she carried pink sweet peas. Miss Rachlin wore a white net gown trimmed with yellow ribbon and she carried an arm bouquet of yellow coreopsis. The flower girl, Ellen Zeldia Pavian of St. Paul, wore a white satin gown with court train and carried a basket of shaded sweet peas.

Mrs. Rachlin, mother of the bride, wore a black satin and lace gown with a corsage bouquet of rose sweet peas. Mrs. Samuel Cohen of Bellaire, Ohio, sister of the bridegroom, was gowned in black satin and she wore a corsage bouquet of pink sweet peas.

A wedding supper and reception followed the ceremony. Lavick's orchestra played.

The out-of-town guests were Mr.

and Mrs. Julius Goldberg of Minneapolis, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Pavian and Ellen Zeldia Pavian of St. Paul, Abe Rochlin and Al Rochlin of St. Paul, Mrs. Samuel Cohen and Miss Gusta Cohen of Bellaire, Ohio, Mrs. B. Miller, Miss Sarah Miller and Master Harvey Miller of Eau Claire, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. Weizer will leave within a few days by boat for a trip to Detroit, Niagara Falls, Cleveland and Pittsburgh, and will make their home at Bellaire after Sept. 15. The bride will wear a black taffeta traveling suit with black velvet hat.
