

MAN WITH DISCOLORED OPTICS DEMANDS ARREST

From a throng of 50 persons gathered in front of the butcher shop of Ben Milavitz, 1609 North Fifth street, late Sunday night, John Patton, displaying two colored optics and several blemishes on his face, picked out Abe Jaffe and asked Patrolman Hawkins and Driver Holden to arrest him on a charge of assault and battery.

Jaffe pleaded not guilty in municipal court and was released on depositing $25 bail.

According to Milavitz, a fight started on the street in front of his shop, which attracted a large throng. Of a sudden the crowd dispersed. Patton, when the police auto arrived, came from between two houses across the street. The crowd had collected again. Patton asked that Jaffe be arrested.
