

WOULD HAVE PERMANENT FUND FOR THE RELIEF OF JEWISH WAR SUFFERERS

Jewish Workmen's circle, branch No. 353, last night resolved to seek the aid of all Jewish organizations in the city to establish a permanent fund to help Jewish war sufferers in the eastern zone of the European War.

A committee, composed of Louis Dorffman, J. Lichten, A. Litman, M. Conoval and I. Jaffe, was appointed to meet Thursday night at the Hebrew library, room 10, Edison building, to outline a plan of campaign.
