

BOTH BOYS IMPROVING.

"Jack Polinsky," the boy run down by a jitney, is improving and will recover, according to the attending physician at St. Luke's hospital. Wilbert Bergren, age 16, who was trampled while holding a horse and was thought to be fatally injured, also is improved.