Mrs. M. Cook Hostess to 80 Guests at Chinese Tea

ARTISTIC in every detail was the Chinese tea given yesterday afternoon at the Canton cafe by Mrs. M. Cook, 1621 East Second street. The hostess was assisted in receiving the guests by Mrs. E. Frank Barker, dressed in correct Japanese costume, who greeted them in the Japanese and Chinese languages.

"The Yellow Jacket" was read by Miss Mary Sheegreen, and Miss Zaidée Gittelsohn, sister of the hostess, gave a musical reading, "A Japanese Love Song," in which the characters were a Japanese boy and a Chinese girl, with piano accompaniment by Ed. McClaren Liggett. She responded to an encore. Chinese piano numbers were played by Mrs. Barbara J. Cook, who has recently come from Minneapolis to make her home, and who will be welcomed to Duluth musical circles.

Assisting were Miss Esther Abrahamson and Miss Zaidée Gittelsohn, who wore quaint Chinese costumes, and Miss Rosalie Mondschnine, Miss M. Silberstein and Mrs. Barker who were garbed in Japanese attire.

The guests were seated at long tables decorated with red and white decorations. The place cards were printed from China, and bore the hostess' greeting of happy new year, written in Japanese script by Mrs. Barker. Mrs. Barker distributed one of her collection of postcards and books which added to the enjoyment of this unique entertainment. Chop sticks were given as favors.

The guests were Mrs. B. Silberstein, Mrs. M. Lofkowitz, Mrs. William Gomburg, Mrs. S. Levy, Mrs. A. H. Brocklehurst, Mrs. L. K. Daugherty, Mrs. A. A. Miller, Mrs. W. H. Schilling, Mrs. O. A.
