

GAVE HER FIRST BIRTHDAY PARTY

PHILOMENA CONGI.

Philomena Congi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Congi, 507 East Superior street, celebrated his first birthday anniversary Friday afternoon, entertaining 16 little folks. A dainty color scheme was used at the luncheon table. The guests were Bernardine Barton, Evelyn Peterson, Anna Peterson, Robert Sazoma, Roland Kempton and Francis Miller, and the mothers present were Mrs. David Sazoma, Mrs. Lester Barton, Mrs. Chester Kempton, Mrs. Rudolph Miller, Mrs. Harry Peterson, Mrs. Ben Congi, Mrs. Ed Robens, Mrs. M. McCosson and Mrs. S. M. Frisko.

♦ ♦ ♦
Mrs. Fannie Mondshine and daughter, Miss Rosalie Mondshine, 228 North Fourteenth avenue East, will receive informally tomorrow night in honor of their guests, Mrs. J. Lewy of Greenville, Miss., and E. B. Lewy, of Memphis, Tenn. The marriage of Miss Mondshine to Mr. Lewy will take place Monday afternoon.
