

Marriages of Interest in Duluth

Needless to say, Wednesday is the ever popular day for marriages, and yesterday was chosen by two brides for their wedding day.

The marriage of Miss Vina Page to Charles Henry Morris, both of Saginaw, Mich., took place at 12 o'clock at noon yesterday at St. Rosa's church, Proctor, the service being read by Rev. Edmund J. Walsh. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Rose Page, and Frank Yanda of Cloquet was best man.

The bride wore a blue broadcloth suit trimmed with beaver and a gold lace hat, with a corsage bouquet of pink and white roses. She wore the bridegroom's gift, a lavalier with diamond and pearl setting. The bridesmaid wore a blue suit with silver lace hat and a corsage bouquet of carnations.

A wedding luncheon followed at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. A. R. Reavie, 1818 Hughitt avenue, Superior, at which the immediate relatives were present. Covers were laid for nine at a table daintily appointed in blue and white.

Mr. Morris and his bride are well known in the Twin Ports. They left for a visit in the Twin Cities and Chicago, and will make their home in Saginaw after March 1.

Lewy-Mondshine Marriage.

A pretty home wedding of yesterday was that of Miss Rosalie Mondshine, daughter of Mrs. Fannie Mondshine, 228 North Fourteenth avenue East, and Ernest Berwin Lewy of Memphis, Tenn., which took place at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's mother, the service being read by Dr. Maurice Lefkovits in the presence of the members of the families. There were no attendants.

The bridal couple stood beneath a canopy of smilax before the fireplace in the living room, which was banked with southern smilax and lilies. Smilax and spring flowers were effectively used in the dining room.

The bride wore a white bridal satin gown with a bolero jacket of Chantilly lace veiled with Georgette crepe. Her veil was held in cap effect with orange blossoms and she held a white morocco bride's Bible with a shower of lilies of the valley.

The bride's mother was gowned in steel gray faille silk, and Mrs. L. Lewy of Greenville, Miss., mother of the bridegroom, wore a taupe chiffon velvet costume.

The bridegroom's mother and B. Magoffin, jr., of Deerwood, Minn., were the only out-of-town guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewy left for a trip to Chicago and southern points and will make their home at Sawrie Inn, Memphis, Tenn., after March 1. The bride wore a blue novelty going-away suit with a rose colored hat.

The St. Cecelia society of Trinity cathedral will meet at 7 o'clock tonight in the guild hall.

The Young Ladies' auxiliary of First Methodist church will entertain at a supper tonight in the girls' room.

Miss Thora Flagstad and Bert Flagstad of Sacred Heart, Minn., are visiting Rev. O. J. Flagstad and Mrs. Flagstad, 512 Fourth avenue East.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lavelle, London Road, left yesterday for a six weeks' trip in California.
