Local Items.

You will find in this issue an advertisement calling special attention to a line of gas ranges on sale by the Minneapolis Gas Light Company. These ranges are of approved types and comply with the required specifications of the gas company. A gas range is the most important feature of the equipment of the home. The cabinet gas range is a labor saver and is designed to make cooking a pleasure. We wish to call special attention to the advertisement referred to.

D., Ralph Greengard, Williston, N. D., Mirton Breslauer, Spokane, Wash., David Edelstein, North Branch, Minn., Abraham Levine, St. Paul; and Joseph Cohen, Dewey Friedman, Morris Green, Samuel Kulberg, Maurice Rosenberg, George Weiss, Reno Wilk, Bernard Zalkind of Minneapolis. The following were pledged: Felix Moses, Jordan, Minn., Mandell Levy and Benjamin Gingold of Duluth. The chapter house has been opened at Walnut St. S. E.

Many young people who ordinarily would not know just where to spend their Sunday evenings enjoyably and in a wholesome atmosphere, find that the Sunday evening dances at the Talmud Torah provide the desired means of enjoying a good time at a small expense. The second dance of the series will be given Sunday Eve, Feb. 27th, under the direction of the Ner Tamid girls—a guaranty of a well-spent and pleasant evening.

At the meeting of the Deborah Society, Tuesday evening a motion was made and carried that a collection be taken up at every regular meeting for the war sufferers.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Adath Yeshurun Synagogue will meet Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 29th, at the vestry rooms, 12th ave. S., and 9th st. An address will be given by Miss Julia Felsenthal, superintendent of the Associated Jewish Charities on some phases of Charity Work.

The Ladies Sewing Club of the Adath Yeshurun Synagogue met at the home of Mrs. J. H. Woolpy, 1817 Chicago ave., Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 22.

Zionist Notes.

Subsequent to the visit of Dr. Schmarrya Levin, ways and means were taken to revive Zionism in the Twin Cities. As a means of arousing interest in the subject of Zionism and to present both sides of the question a debate for Saturday evening, Feb. 26, in the Hall of the Talmud Torah has been arranged between Dr. S. N. Deinard and Mr. Gustavus Loevinger of St. Paul.

It is also planned to have Dr. Horace Kallen of the Philosophical Department of the University of Wisconsin and Judge Julian Mack of the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals here in the very near future to give addresses on Zionism.

It is also desired to organize a collegiate Zionist Society to be a member of the Intercollegiate Zionist Association. All who are interested in joining in Zionist activities are requested to communicate with Alex Kanter, 510-512 Flour Exchange.
