

300 EVELETH PUPILS IN EXHIBITION DRILL

Portray American History From
Indian Period to Present Day—Gym Work.

EVELETH, March 31.—More than 300 children took part in the gymnasium exhibition and drill tonight under the direction of Earl C. Ford, expert of the National Playground and Recreation association. The exhibition was given at the City Auditorium. The program follows:

Grand march; A unique dance, high school girls; wand drill, high school boys; English country dances, Lincoln school girls, Miss Pauline Rabinowitz, instructor; free hand exercises, grade school boys, Douglas Avery, leader; Spanish dances, high school girls, Miss Bessie Feldman, leader; Beauty of the Alps, high school girls; Faces and Graces, grade school girls, Miss A. Hambley, instructor; Indian club exercises, Fayal school girls and high school boys and girls; Norwegian mountain march, high school girls; Greek interpretation solo dancing—"Barcarolle," "Tales of Hoffman" and "Humoresque."

One of the features was the finale, "America," a series of six characteristic dances, representing American history from the Indian period to the present day, as follows; Indian period, Sara Bradford; Puritan period, Marlon Ruddy; Dutch period, Leona Rohrer; Quaker period, Frances Penrod; Colonial period, Arthur Stevenson; Present day steps, one-step, Tula Fada, and tango, Florence Robb and Ellis Huttula.