

Birthday Celebrated At Informal Affair.

Mrs. J. Brusso, 222 East Second street, entertained Sunday in honor of her daughter, Minnie's birthday anniversary. Pink and green was the color note used in decorating, and peonies and gypsophila were used as a centerpiece at the table. Favors were won by Miss Rose Coran, Miss Ida Tibel Berkson and Miss Lillian Lieberman. Mrs. M. Stein of Gilbert assisted. The guest of honor was presented with a diamond ring from her mother. Covers were laid for the following guests: Mrs. Morton N. Azine, Miss Dora Simon, Miss Ruth Raihill, Miss Della Fox, Miss Hattie Markowitz, Miss Ruth Siegel, Miss Minnie Averbrook, Miss Charlotte Azine, Al Loffalmacher, G. W. Lorence and A. J. Brusso.

The Osewa club will have its regular meeting tonight at the home of Miss Ida Tibel Berkson, 613 East First street.

Miss Sarah McDavitt of St. Paul is expected in the city next week to visit Miss Helen Congdon and Miss Marjorie Congdon, London road, and later Miss Isabel Patrick, East Superior street.

Miss Helen Ball of Muncie, Ind., has returned to her home after visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. Ashley Tomlinson, Hawthorne road.

Miss Dorothy Mason of Evanston, Ill., returned to her home yesterday after visiting Miss Charlene Bagley, East First street.

Mrs. Alfred Owens and her sister, Miss Lois Sprague of Minneapolis, are visiting their cousin, Dr. J. D. Budd and his daughter, Miss Leila Budd, 1925 Woodland avenue. Miss Eunice Copeland of Rochester, N. Y., another cousin, also is a guest at the Budd home.

Mrs. A. Graeme Darling, 301 Kenilworth avenue, Hunter's Park, will be hostess to Miss Amy Walker's circle of the Red Cross tomorrow afternoon.
