

ADOLESCENT MAN DIES IN OHIO.

AURORA, Jan. 14.—Abe Levin, the 22-year-old son of Marcus Levin, a well-known dry goods merchant of the village, died yesterday at Cincinnati, Ohio, to which place he had recently gone for an operation, which was performed two days before death occurred. The young man had suffered for several months and it was thought that an operation might save him.