

WEST DULUTH BABIES CELEBRATE FIRST BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARIES

BERNICE LAVICK.

MARIAN MAE SLACK.

Two little maids of West Duluth celebrated the arrival of their first birthday anniversaries with parties this week. Marian Mae Slack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarke A. Slack, 416 North Fifty-third avenue West, and Bernice, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Lavick, 1007 North Central avenue. Both little kiddies are possessed of a typically feminine quality of wanting and insisting upon her rights according to her standards, and finding out the "why" and "wherefore" of every object that comes within her line of vision, oftentimes with disastrous results to herself and the family peace of mind, not to speak of the family exchequer.

The first party was given for Marian Mae, by her mother Wednesday afternoon. The Christmas motif was used with charming effect in the decorations, holly and Christmas bells being hung from the chandeliers, in the archways and in the window ledges, which were banked with evergreen and holly. A birthday cake with one pretty candle occupied a place of honor. The guests were Mrs. O. H. Wetterlund and little sons David and Buster, Mrs. A. B. Ringsred and son Jack, Mrs. J. F. Dryer and son Harry of Minneapolis, Mrs. F. G. Gullin, Mrs. A. Olson, Mrs. P. J. Haggerty, Miss Ingeborg Wohlin and Miss Ruth Scott. Mrs. F. G. Gullingsrud and Mrs. P. J. Haggerty assisted in the dining room.

Bernice's party will be held this afternoon, when Mr. and Mrs. Lavick will entertain at a dinner party. The holiday colors will be cleverly combined in decorating, and a birthday cake with one candle here, also will occupy a prominent place.

The guests will be relatives of the family: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lavick, Mr. and Mrs. James Lavick, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Lavick, Mr. and Mrs. A. Evans and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Kernes.
