

JUDAEA CLUB WILL CELEBRATE SUCCOTH

Members of the Young Judaea club, an organization composed of boys, will celebrate the feast of Succoth, the coming Jewish holiday, by building a large Succah, an abode used during the holiday, near the Talmud Torah building, and with an elaborate program on Sunday Oct. 15.

The Succah is now under construction and will be completed by Sunday. Among those to participate in the festival program are Rabbi Levine, superintendent at the Talmud Torah school; Marvin Oreck, I. Levine, Jacob Tulman and others. Several other organizations in the city will participate in the celebration.
