

SOCIAL NEWS

[The news columns of The American Jewish World are open for the publication of news of a communal and social interest. These must reach our office by Wednesday to insure publication in the issue of the following Friday. Telephone your Minneapolis news to Hyland 1860, or write The Society Editor, The American Jewish World, 316 Tribune Annex, Minneapolis, Minnesota.]

MINNEAPOLIS.

With the Travelers.

Miss Constance Cohen, Humboldt south, leaves Friday, November 24, for a three months' visit with her sister, Mrs. Joseph Silverman at St. Louis. She will also visit in Chicago and Kansas City.

Miss Florence Friedmant of New York City, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Weil, Fremont south.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Mandell and son have closed their summer home at Mineral Springs, Lake Calhoun, and moved into their new home, at 907 Morgan avenue north.

Mrs. Jacob Hershman has left for Los Angeles, Cal., where she will spend the winter with her daughter, Frances Hershman.

Miss Bessie Litowitz, Portland avenue, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Samuel E. Goodfriend of Chicago.

Mrs. G. Segelbaum, Grand avenue, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Shapiro, in Virginia, Minn.

Mrs. M. Lefkowitz and Miss Elsie Silberstein of Duluth are at the Radisson for a week's stay.

Mrs. Leo Shapiro, Irving south, and little son, leave Wednesday for a visit in Duluth.

Mr. David Friedman left Sunday for Detroit, Michigan, on a business trip.

Mr. A. H. Karatz, Plymouth avenue, has returned from an extended Eastern trip, having been away for three weeks. While in New York City he was the guest of Mr. Max Lowenthal, formerly of Minneapolis, who is now engaged in the practice of law in that city.

Mr. Albert L. Hershman left Thursday, November 23rd, for a two weeks' trip to the East, where he will visit New York, Boston and Atlantic City. Mr. Milton Newman of Dupont south will also make the trip in company with Mr. Hershman.

Mr. L. H. Frisch returned Wednesday from a week's visit in Chicago.

Entertaining.

Miss Caroline Weil, Fremont south, entertained informally, Tuesday, November 21, at her home for the Misses Hattie Rosenstock and Elsa Cohen of Chicago, the guests of Mrs. B. F. Weil.

Mrs. S. Ravitz of the Hastings, entertained twelve ladies at bridge luncheon at her apartment, Tuesday afternoon, November 21.

Mrs. Lena Rivkin, Sixth street north, entertained Wednesday afternoon, November 22, at Dayton's Tea Rooms for her sister, Miss Fanny Silesky, whose engagement to Mr. Louis Schweid, was recently announced.

The Mmes. Ben and Harry Bloom entertained at a series of one o'clock bridge luncheons; the first, last Friday at the home of Mrs. Ben. Bloom, Logan north; the second, at the home of Mrs. Harry Bloom, Dupont south.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Joseph, West 32nd street, will entertain at a dancing party at the Gymal Doled hall, Saturday, December 2, in honor of Miss Gazella Kleckner and Mr. Morris Kanter, whose marriage will take place next month.

Miss Pearl Kleckner, Elliott avenue, entertained twenty-five friends at a parcel shower for her sister, Gazella. Miss Ida Cotlow gave a hosiery shower last Saturday evening at her home, Logan north, in honor of Miss Kleckner. Whist was played at six tables.

The Sigma Theta Pi sorority entertained at bridge Thursday, November 23, at the Temple House.

Mmes. I. Kaufmann and Aaron Heller will entertain at bridge Tuesday afternoon, November 28, at the Temple House, under the auspices of the Ladies' Auxiliary of Temple Shaarei Tov.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Goldberg, 1219 Irving avenue north, celebrated their 12th wedding anniversary Monday evening, when they entertained at a dinner at the Dyckman hotel, followed by a theater party. There were 12 guests.

Mrs. I. H. Ruben entertained the members of the West High school football team Wednesday evening, November 22, at the Athletic Club.

Engagement Announced.

Mrs. S. Rosenfeld, 1714 Eighth avenue north, announces the engagement of her granddaughter, Miss Theresa B. Himmelstein, to Michael Miller of St. Paul.

Weddings.

Mr. Louis Ross and Miss Lottie Walstein of this city were married Friday November 10th at the home of the officiating minister, Dr. S. N. Deinard.

Mr. Abraham Fink of St. Paul and Miss Gertrude Goldman were married Tuesday, November 14th, at the home of the officiating minister, Dr. S. N. Deinard.

Tonight at the Temple.

"Are the friends of the Bible its worst enemies?" is the subject of Dr. S. N. Deinard's address at the temple tonight, in answer to the agitation for Bible reading in the public schools.

An Expression of Thanks.

Congressman-elect, Ernest Lundeen wishes to express his thanks to the Jewish people of his district for their faithful support on November 7th.

Adath Yeshurun Notes.

On Friday evening, December 1, Rabbi Matt will give the first of a series of five lectures on "The Jewish Prophets."

This evening, November 24, Rabbi Matt will preach on "Environment."

On Sunday evening, December 10, there will be public memorial service to mark the Yohrzeit of Dr. Solomon Schechter of blessed memory.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Adath Yeshurun will meet Tuesday, November 28th, at 4 p. m. Dr. Max Seham will lecture on "Nervousness in Children." The public is cordially invited.

University Notes.

Mr. Herman Sinaiko, a sophomore, in the academic college, won his class memorials and service sweaters, as center on the freshman football squad this year.

Mr. Sinaiko will be taken to Chicago with the squad and will then visit his parents at Madison, Wisconsin, for a week.

Messrs. Phillip Levin and John Schwartz left Thursday evening for Chicago as members of the University Band, to attend the football game.

Invitations have been issued for its first annual informal dance to be given by the Minnesota Zionist Club on Thursday evening, November 30, at Royal Arcanum Hall.

The Misses Kahn and Calmenson of St. Paul led the discussion at the Minnesota Zionist Club meeting last Wednesday evening on "The Geography and National Resources of Palestine." The meeting was well attended.

The Menorah Society was addressed by Miss Julia I. Felsenthal last Wednesday evening, on the subject of "Community Social Service Work."

Miss Esther Bank left Thursday evening for a week's stay in Chicago, where she will attend the Chicago-Minnesota football game.

Mr. E. E. Levin left for Chicago Wednesday to take motion pictures of the Minnesota-Chicago football game for the local theaters.

Xi Psi Theta announces its pledge list to date, as follows: Philip Levin, David Pink, Ben Segal, of Minneapolis; Emmanuel Zimmerman, Michael Cohler, of St. Paul; Herman Sinaiko, Madison, Wis.; Abe Salnovitz, Abe Sosnovsky, Duluth.

Xi Psi Theta will give its annual Founders Day Banquet at the Dyckman on Wednesday, November 29.

WILL YOU BE THERE?

At the Deborah Musical and Tea given at the home of Miss Esther Woolpy, 1817 Chicago Avenue.

Musical Numbers Fortune Telling
Admission 15c Sunday, Nov. 26th

FIFTH ANNIVERSARY OF LADIES' AUXILIARY OF TALMUD TORAH TO BE CELEBRATED.

Five years have rolled by since the Talmud Torah opened its doors to its Ladies' Auxiliary. In order to properly celebrate the occasion, an anniversary entertainment has been planned.

On Tuesday eve, Nov. 28, at 8 o'clock, the Ladies' Auxiliary will be at home to their friends and patrons. There will be a musicale from 8 until 9:30 o'clock. Then a pleasant evening at dancing, cards and refreshments is anticipated. The proceeds will help defray the expense of ninety-five pupils who cannot pay the per capita cost of the Talmud Torah of $2.52. All are welcome.

The program will consist of a dance by Baby Levy; violin selection, Mr. G. Stahlberg, accompanied by Miss Stahlberg; reading selection, Miss Sybel Harris; vocal, Mrs. Sloan.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1916.

Informal dance will be given by the Ner Tamid Club, at the Talmud Torah auditorium, Eighth and Fremont avenues north.

Dancing classes are now being conducted under the auspices of the Ner Tamid Club at the Talmud Torah auditorium, on Tuesday evenings. Mr. Reno Wilk has been secured as instructor for the class, and instruction is being given in the latest ball room dancing. The class will not be conducted on Tuesday, November 28th, but will be resumed on Tuesday, December 5th.