

WITH BUILDERS AND BUYERS

The sale of two lots for the Park Realty company to B. W. Brooks at Sixty-sixth avenue West and Bristol street, was effected last week by the Field-Frey company.

Berquist Bros. were awarded the general contract for the construction of a one-story factory for the Fountain Faucett company, to be erected at Sixty-first avenue West at an approximate cost of $14,000. J. J. Wangenstein is the architect.

An interesting transaction in real estate last week was the purchase of the Torrey building by the Moore Realty corporation, from the R. A. Torrey company, Inc. The consideration is reported at $25,000.

The sale of two lots in Park Drive division, and two lots in Oneota last week was completed by the Hoopes-Kohagen company. That company also sold four lots on Fifth avenue East and Third street at a consideration of $8,000.

The general contract for the construction of the addition to the Lakewood pumping station has been awarded to Jacobson Bros.

The sale of a 50-foot lot at Twenty-fourth avenue West and Fourth street from August Anderson to Paul Ptaszek for $3,500, was completed by the Western Realty company.

Receipt of earnest money on the sale of a house for L. Shenowsky to Samuel Cwngel, was reported by the Harris Realty company.