

SOCIALIST LEADER TO LECTURE HERE TONIGHT

Morris Winchevsky, known among the Jews as "grandfather" will speak tonight at the Talmud Torah hall on "Socialism and Judaism." Socialists and radical Jews are bringing Winchevsky to Duluth. He is a writer and lecturer who has won considerable fame, and although nearly 60 years old is active in the Socialist and radical movement as he was when a young man 30 years old. He was one of the first members of the International Socialist movement.

At the close of his lecture tonight, Mr. Winchevsky will be entertained by the Duluth Jewish Socialist local, Duluth branch 353, Arbeiter Ring, the Young Women's Library club and the Young People's Socialist league.
