—how mother admired that vari-colored Silk Sweater with the sash around the waist? Wouldn't one like it look fine on her? Wouldn't you like to tie the sash around her waist? They're here in a great number of colors and color combinations. $5 to $50.

—that daddy could be a lot more comfortable around the house in one of those Siewert Soft Wool or Silk Smoking Jackets. A good cigar really smokes better for the wearing of one and a little snooze seems more comfy. We have them, just the style for him. $7 to $25.

—either wife or husband would appreciate the Siewert quality of Mufflers and Reefers or Skaters' Outfits. They are the warm, snugly kind that keep the wind out but weigh practically nothing. $2 to $15.

—sister would be happy with a snappy little Silk Umbrella with a gold top and her monogram engraved in pretty script lettering. We can't speak too highly of the ones we have in stock for this Christmas trade and the prices have a wide range. $2 to $30.

—too, that brother has long wanted a nice bathrobe and that now is a very good time to satisfy his desire. We have one in particular with just the bright color effects to suit his individual fancy. $5 to $25.

—that you still have two good days in which to make your selections and that we are ready in full force to give you just the best attention and assistance in the work of properly filling your list.

—any time up to 10 o'clock tomorrow night, but it is well to get here as early as possible. Come in today if you can.

A Shirt from BORTH'S

Any man who knows anything about "the little store with the little price" will gladly accept "a shirt from Borth's."
Or for that matter: Collars, ties (some beauties at 50c and Cheney's at 50c), socks, gloves, kerchiefs, underwear (a regular $2 garment at just one dollar), and in fact everything needed by dad, son, father and brother—or the other girl's brother.
It's a little shop with little expense and little prices.
