

SUSPECTS HELD FOR ALLEGED SHOPLIFTING

Cella and Leo Polinsky were arrested yesterday as shoplifting suspects. According to J. Simon of the Simon department store, the two went into the store and exchanged an old overcoat for a new one without notifying any of the clerks of the transaction.

Isador Simon, a clerk in the store, followed the couple up to Winter street and Tower avenue. The three boarded a car and on reaching Belknap street Simon called Patrolman Martin Widness and had the couple arrested. No charge was placed against them, but they are detained at police headquarters pending investigation.
