

TWO MARRIAGES TAKE PLACE SUNDAY EVENING

Friedman-Azine Nuptials Solemnized at Home of Bride— Latts-Rudnitzky Wedding at Talmud Torah Hall:

Miss Edith Azine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Azine, 420 First avenue West, became the bride of Harry A. Friedman of Dows, Iowa, formerly of Duluth, at a home wedding at 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Rabbi I. S. Teplitz read the service. The Esther Gomberg orchestra played the nuptial music.

The bride wore a gown of silver lace over cloth of silver draped with tulle. Her long tulle veil was held in place with pearl motifs and lilies of the valley. The bridal bouquet was a shower of lilies of the valley with a gigantum lily in the center.

Mrs. William H. Glass of South Range, Mich., sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and she wore a white satin gown with heavy silver embroidery and a corsage bouquet of pink Killarney roses. Miss Gertrude Azine attended her sister as bridesmaid. She wore pink taffeta and carried a bouquet of pink Killarney roses. Another sister, little Ida Azine, who carried the ring in a gigantum lily, wore a white ruffled frock.

Miss Charlotte Azine and Miss Minnie Averbrook stretched the ribbons for their cousin. Miss Azine was gowned in white and gold and Miss Averbrook wore pink tulle. Their flowers were white roses.

Mrs. Azine, mother of the bride, wore a gown of blue charmeuse embroidered in gold and a corsage bouquet of violets and roses.

William H. Glass and Arthur Anchel were the bridegroom's attendants.

The ceremony took place beneath a canopy of smilax and ferns and white roses. A color note of yellow and white was used about the room, narcissi and daffodils being the flowers.

A wedding supper was served to 50 guests and in the evening a reception for 75 was held. Mrs. G. Cowl and Mrs. Nary assisted.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. William H. Glass and daughter, Florence Bertha, of South Range, Mich., who will remain for a week's visit with Mrs. Glass' parents; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Azine of Denver, Colo., uncle and aunt of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. John Azine and David Azine of Minneapolis, and A. F. Friedman of Des Moines, Iowa, brother of the bridegroom.

The bride's traveling costume was of black panne velvet with a silver lace hat. Mr. and Mrs. Friedman will take a trip to the Twin Cities and points in Iowa and will be at home at Dows, Iowa, after March 1.

Latts-Rudnitzky Nuptials.

The wedding of Miss Sarah Helen Rudnitzky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Rudnitzky, 1126 East sixth street, and Samuel C. Latts took place Sunday evening at Talmud Torah hall. Rabbi I. S. Teplitz read the service. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Esther Rudnitzky, as maid of honor, and Miss Ethel Latts of Superior, cousin of the bridegroom, was the bridesmaid. Samuel Cohen of Milwaukee and Joseph Rudnitzky of St. Paul attended the bridegroom.

The bride wore a gown of satin with an overdress of white tulle trimmed with white satin ribbon. A wreath of lilies of the valley held her veil in place and her bouquet was a shower of bride roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor was gowned in white tulle over pale blue satin and she carried pink roses. The bridesmaid wore a gown of pink charmeuse and she carried pink roses.

At the wedding supper which followed covers were laid for 150 guests.

The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Rutz and son of Aurora, Minn.; Samuel Cohen of Milwaukee; Miss Esther Soloski, Mr. and Mrs. M. Solosko, L. Milavitz and Mrs. I. Cohen, all of Virginia, Minn.; Mrs. Theodore Lieverman and son of Ironwood, Mich.; Joseph Rudnitzky, Miss Mary Latts, N. Cohen and Mr. and Mrs. Cohen, all of St. Paul; Abe Latts and B. Resnick, both of Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. Latts left for a wedding trip to the Twin Cities.
