

Better Films

On Inspection.

A delegation from the Better Films committee viewed a special performance at the Zelda yesterday morning and pronounced the bill clean and stirring. A remarkable film "Pidgin Island" in the opinion of the committee is worth seeing as a picture of water in storm and calm and great breakers rolling in. A hunting film showing game birds and meadows and northern woods was also interesting to the committee.

Miss Jean Polrier returned yesterday from a two week's trip to the southern part of the state.

Miss Alice Wetzler, 1430 East Third street, has returned from a short visit to Milwaukee.

The Foreign Missionary society of First M. E. church will meet in the church parlors at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Miss Rhoda Dickinson will have charge of the devotional services and the study on "World Peace" will be led by Mrs. L. A. Larson.

The Home Missionary society will meet at 3:30 o'clock in the church parlors and Miss Cartes K. Swartz, field secretary, will speak.

A social hour will follow the meetings, which are open to anyone interested.

Endion circles of First Presbyterian church will have an all-day meeting in the pastor's study today, beginning at 10 o'clock.

An all-day meeting of Trinity guild will be held in the guildroom of Trinity cathedral today.

Mrs. S. M. Kaner and Mrs. Frank Sher entertained at a linen shower at the home of the former, 1123 East Fifth street, Sunday afternoon in honor of Miss Sadie Coran, whose marriage to Oscar Wine will take place next month. Hyacinths, carnations, hearts and cupids were used in decorating. Whist was played at four tables. Favors were won by Mrs. A. J. Garon, Mrs. Benjamin Kenner and Miss Ida Sher. Twenty-five guests attended.
