

MISS CORAN THE BRIDE OF OSCAR WINE

Two Hundred Guests Attend Wedding at Adash Israel Synagogue.

The marriage of Miss Zelda Coran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Coran, 215 East Fifth street, to Oscar Wine took place at 5:30 o'clock Sunday evening at Adash Israel synagogue. The service was read by Rabbi I. S. Teplitz.

La Brosse's orchestra played "Perfect Day," and other numbers and the "Lohengrin" bridal chorus and Mendelssohn's wedding march.

The bride wore a gown of silver lace and pearls made en train, and her veil was held in place with pearls and lilies of the valley. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and bride roses.

Mrs. S. Hoffman, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor.

Miss Fanny Coran was her sister's maid of honor. Miss Anna Coran, Miss Marie Coran, Miss Rose Coran, sisters of the bride, and Miss Sarah Lavenstein of La Crosse, niece of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids. The bridesmaids carried a bouquet of roses in shades of pink and yellow to match their gowns.

Gladys Hoffman, niece of the bride, was the flower girl, and Israel Harrison of La Crosse, the ring bearer, carried the ring in the heart of a lily.

Mrs. Coran, the bride's mother, wore a gown of lavender satin.

Benjamin Kenner jr. was best man. The ushers were Jacob Garon, Joseph Wolfe of St. Paul, Abraham Goldfine of Menomonie, Wis., and Israel Kenner.

A reception for 200 guests followed the ceremony at Talmud Torah hall. La Brosse's orchestra played from behind a screen of ferns. Red roses and carnations were used in decorating the dining hall. In the receiving line with the bride and bridegroom were the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Coran, Mr. and Mrs. I. Cohan, Mr. and Mrs. S. Hoffman and Mr. and Mrs. E. Kenner.

Mr. and Mrs. Wine will make their home in Superior after March 15.
