

BEAT BOYS BADLY IN SCHOOL HONORS

NEARLY FIVE GIRLS FOR EVERY BOY.

HIBBING, March 29.—What is the matter with the boys? All the time the girls are taking school honors where honors count. Boys win basket ball, baseball and football games, track events and other incidents of field meets, but when it comes to getting down to business and preparing for the greatest of all games—life—they are back numbers; only the girls come to the front.

The Hibbing high school publishes an honor roll in the monthly school paper. The accompanying photograph shows those who have taken honors. Again the sad story is revealed when one sees 14 girls and only three boys. Is that one reason why "votes for women" is having such easy sailing?

On the honor roll every month this year are: Viola Ankerbrand, Gordon Crowle, Elizabeth Falb, Edna Gleason, Margaret Remington, Margaret Shelko and Cora Washberg. Those who made the honor roll every month except one are: Elsie Benesovitz, Dorothy Cohen, Hubert Dear and Myra Schwartz. Those who have been enrolled there are: Mae Hall, Ellen Jarpe, Lillian Lindberg, Edward Oja, Virginia Purcell, Eva Friday, Lorella Hazlecamp and Blanche McCabley.
