

Boys Give Annual

Minstrel Show April 11.

The stage is all set for the boys' department Y. M. C. A., annual minstrel show that will be given at the Lyceum theater Wednesday, April 11 at 8 o'clock. The minstrels have been training for the last eight weeks and they have promised to put on two hours of solid fun. The proceeds of the show will go toward putting an appropriate entrance to the Camp Miller property at Sturgeon Lake.

Max Goldberg, chairman of the entertainment committee is to be the interlocutor. young Goldberg possesses a clear voice and in the capacity of interlocutor will show his usual ability. Harold Hein, Lawrence Haycock, Townsend Hoopes and Lester Steurwold, will occupy places on the end. Willis Peer, a 9-year-old boy soprano, will sing, "You Never Can Tell." Young Peer is said to possess a remarkable voice and his number is expected to be quite a hit. Morris Bywater will sing "Mammy's Coal Black Rose." Bywater sang last year and his splendid voice is well remembered. A feature not on the program will be a duet by Godfrey Azine and Abe Fagel; they will sing the boys' department smile song, and the whole chorus of 70 voices will sing the famous chorus "Smile whenever you can, smile whenever you can, t'will make your pathway brighter to smile whenever you can."

The first part of the program will be vaudeville with five numbers: Cornet solo by Ernest Paulson, selections by the boys' department mandolin club, concertino solo by John Centainino, thrilling feats on the parallel bars by E. Kulo, J. Waisenan, K. Purhonen and E. Abrahamson. The first part of the program will close with a sketch entitled the "The Best Man." The sketch will be given by Ralph Wyly, John Moore, Miss Edna Morterud and Miss Edith Hogan.
