

- FAGEL—Funeral services for Sam Fagel, aged 23, son of Jake Fagel, 21 North Second avenue East and who was drowned in Lake Superior off Lester Park Sunday night in a boat collision, were held yesterday. Crawford's undertaking rooms having charge of the body.
- STROM—John Strom, aged 55, a longshoreman, died Sept. 8 and was buried Sept. 11, according to a certificate filed yesterday at the health department. He was married and resided at 501 South Sixty-third avenue West.
- TRACY—John Tracy, aged 54, single, a cook died at a local hospital, Sept. 15 of alcoholism. He was born in Michigan, but his relatives are unknown. Grady & Horgan's undertaking rooms had charge of the body, interment being in Park Hill cemetery yesterday. He had resided for a time up to his removal to the hospital at 917 West Michigan street.
- DANIELSON—Carl N. Danielson, aged 33, a farm hand, died at a local hospital, Sept. 13, as a result of a fractured skull. He was born in Finland and had resided recently at Midway. Funeral services were held yesterday, interment being at Midway.
- ERICKSON—Funeral services for Kenneth E. Erickson, 1-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Erickson of 27 North Sixty-sixth avenue West, who died of colitis at a local hospital, Sept. 15, were held yesterday, Bell's undertaking rooms having charge of the body and interment being in Oneota cemetery.
- HAKKERUP—Dorothy Hakkerup, aged 9 months, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Hakkerup of Virginia, died of colitis at a local hospital, yesterday. Funeral services will be held at Virginia, tomorrow.
- HANNETT—Patrick A. Hannett, aged 61, a laborer, employed in woods work, died at the county hospital, Sept. 14, and was buried in Greenwood cemetery yesterday. He had formerly resided at Ely. He was a widower.
- HEBERT—Charles R. Hebert, aged 74, single, a druggist, died at the county hospital Sept. 13. Funeral services were held yesterday, burial being in Greenwood cemetery.
- LEMBERG—Jahner Lemberg, aged 29, died Sept. 16 at his residence, 1427 East First street. He was employed as a bartender. He is survived by his wife. Funeral services were held yesterday, Crawford's undertaking rooms having charge of the body and interment being in Park Hill cemetery.
- KOSKI—George Koski, aged 4 months, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Koski of Chisholm, Minn., died of diphtheria at the contagious hospital, Sept. 16. Burial took place the same day at Greenwood cemetery.
- WESTON-GOSS—Funeral services for James Weston-Goss, aged 76, well known Duluth newspaperman, who died Sunday, Sept. 16, will be held today. Crawford's undertaking rooms have charge of the body and interment will be in Park Hill cemetery. Mr. Goss was single and no close relatives are known.
- JOHNSON—Mrs. Anna Johnson, aged 27, died at a local sanitarium yesterday morning following a long illness. Her home was at Chisholm, Minn., and the body will be taken back there for burial today.
- SCHNEIDER—F. C. Schneider, aged 38, an architect, who came to Duluth from Germany three years ago, died at his residence, 505 East Second street, yesterday morning. The body was taken to Crawford's undertaking rooms and will probably be removed to Minneapolis for burial.