Arthur M. Crapo transacted business in Bemidji Wednesday.

Last Friday, Mrs. Myrtle Bell Spore and Mrs. Frances Pierce were tendered a testimonial in the form of a logging bee. It was an all-day affair. As Mesdames Spore and Pierce are two charming widows, it is needless to say that some of our bachelors did their bit in a most gallant manner to make the affair a success. Those who attended were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McKee, Mr. and Mrs. James F. Hayes, Messrs. M. A. Djonne, Amund Jacobson, George and Roy Montiech, Charles Anderson, George Pierce and R. B. Hayes, who donated the sawing. The little folks were Esther and Edith Hayes, Dorothy McKee, Walter and Edward Pierce.

ARMOUR'S OATS

For "War-Time" Meals

Food Administrator Hoover urgently asks American housewives to conserve foods that are vital to victory abroad. A practical, economical way of doing so is to make more liberal use of Armour's Oats for breakfast, luncheon, dinner.

Armour's Oats, made by a special process, are high in strength-building, health-sustaining elements. They furnish at low cost the various and necessary food elements. Therefore it is a real saving to let Armour's Oats furnish the basis for many wheatless meals.

Your grocer sells Armour's Oats. Buy today and try the worth-while recipes on every package.

Legitimate Profits

This store knows what it owes to the public, and POSITIVELY will ask no more than a fair, legitimate profit on any line of goods that is offered for sale. IN THESE TIMES we feel that we should help the PUBLIC SAVE on everything and not take advantage of any scarcity of merchandise or anything caused by war conditions. Our PERCENTAGE profits are and will remain the same as under ordinary conditions. A FAIR PROFIT and that's all. In MANY, MANY cases we have sold goods for less than wholesale cost just because we bought on an early market. We could give dozens of instances of this kind.

DOES THIS APPEAL TO THE TRADE ANY AT ALL? Well, it should. Anyhow we have a duty to perform and RENDER THIS SERVICE TO OUR HOME FOLKS. We build our business for the future. We ask your help if these statements are true, and they are.
