

'MIMEOGRAPH' STICKER FOR WOMEN SPELLERS

Men Win "Bee" at "Open-House" Party Given by Covenant Lodge.

"Mimeograph" proved the undoing of the ladies in a "spellin' bee" held between the men and women at the April "open house" party of the Covenant lodge, Independent Order of B'nai B'rith in the vestry rooms of Temple Emanuel last night. Both teams, consisting of twelve persons, had gradually dwindled down until Miss Elsa Silberstein on one side and Abe Feldman on the opposition were the only contenders left. The word "mimeograph" proved a "sticker" for Miss Silberstein, but was correctly spelled by Mr. Feldman, whose team was then given the decision. The words were selected by Leonard Young, principal of Central high school.

The team selected by Mrs. Saul Goldberg, vice president of the Temple Adis society, consisted of Mrs. Michael Levy, Mrs. L. S. Loeb, Mrs. M. S. Hirshfield, Mrs. M. Cook, Mrs. Sigmund Slonim, Mrs. H. Y. Josephs, Mrs. Saul Goldberg, Miss Elsa Silberstein, Miss Stella Bondy, Miss Alice Wetzler, Miss Sadie Gingold and Miss Jecanette Gomberg.

A. B. Kapplin, chairman of the "open house" entertainment, selected the following team: E. A. Silberstein, Morris Mark, Dr. Maurice Lefkovits, Charles D. Oreckovsky, David Fieldman, Abe Fieldman, Samuel Weinstein, Dr. Samuel Gross, Dr. Maurice Zack, Charles Rosenfeld, Samuel Nides and Max Rosenfeld.

Dr. Maurice Lefkovits gave a short talk on the new Bible translation that has been issued by the Jewish Publication Society of America. Helen Kunody and Hazel Blumenthal entertained with Grecian dances. Miss Esther Gomberg played for the dancers. Miss Sylvia Josephs gave a piano solo. Refreshments and dancing concluded the entertainment.
